

STRONG OBJECTIONS URGED

Mr. Mitchell's Arguments Against Seating the Appointed Senators.

TOO MUCH POWER GIVEN GOVERNORS

How It Could Be Used to Defeat the People's Will—What Would Follow the Establishment of such a Precedent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Today's session was devoted almost wholly to the debate started yesterday on the question of the admission of the senators appointed by the governors of the states of Montana, Wyoming and Washington, after the legislatures of those states had adjourned without making regular elections.

Mr. Chandler asked unanimous consent to withdraw the resolution offered by him yesterday and to substitute for it one directing the committee on privileges and elections to investigate a statement derogatory to Senator Powers of Montana contained in the Washington Post of yesterday and to report whether any, and if so, what action should be taken thereon by the senate, with power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Vest said that he would not object to the resolution. After some further discussion the matter went over.

Mr. Teller asked and obtained leave of absence for the remainder of this extraordinary session.

Mr. Mitchell inquired what business was before the senate.

The vice president decided that the resolution for the admission of Mr. Mistle as senator from the state of Montana was before the senate.

Mr. Mitchell's Arguments. Mr. Mitchell a member of the committee on privileges and elections, addressed the senate in opposition to the majority report and in defense of the minority report.

Mr. Mitchell went on to argue his side of the question on legal and constitutional principles. One striking feature of Mr. Mitchell's argument was emphasized through a question put to him by another minority member of the committee.

WILL SMASH THE STATES.

President Cleveland Announces His Policy in Regard to Appointments.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—There were no signs of a letting up in the rush of office seekers at the white house today.

"But Mr. President, what are you going to do with the states that the congressional delegations are fixing up about the distribution of local patronage?"

"I am going to smash them."

"This is the question, reported to have been put to the president by a congressman and the reply of the president. It is said to have followed a conversation which is said to have proceeded some time between the president and several members of a certain delegation of congressmen over the question of local appointments. They were discussing while the agreement of a delegation upon local officers may have weight, the president will not be bound by it. So plain is this policy of the president, that the Alabama delegation has decided to abandon its slate heretofore agreed upon. This lead will be followed by other delegations with the result that probably the contest for office will be free-for-all race, and each candidate will run on his own merits. This will probably be satisfactory to many congressmen. It will relieve them of considerable responsibility.

A strong pressure is being brought to bear on Mr. Cleveland to have him select a commission of men from the states to investigate the Allegiances. Those who are exerting influence to this end argue that the west had the office too many times, and it is now the turn of the east. But he estimated that the new commission will be a young man of known ability, not too closely allied to practical politics.

The president told a recent caller that he had information which led him to believe that the force of clerks in the pension office could be reduced by about 400 or 500 to the benefit of the government, not only in economy, but in the more rapid disposition of the work.

CHARGES AGAINST MINISTER RISLEY.

Senator Voorhees Produces Evidence to Show They Are False.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Senator Voorhees today sent a dispatch to his law partner in regard to the Golden Circle charges made against Minister John E. Risley, and says, in part:

"The statement that I ever connected Mr. Risley's name with the paper, signed in my former law office by Carrington in 1864 is utterly false. Risley was married and went to New York in October, 1863. He visited Terre Haute in the spring of 1865 and has continued to do so at least once a year from that time to the present. During this period of twenty-eight years he has often spent weeks at a time in Indianapolis in different parts of the state on the trial of cases in court. He never received a hint or a suggestion that he owed anybody anything on account of the transaction spoken of until his appointment appeared in the papers. Of course, the whole story is a stretched line, and now, after more than twenty-one years, Risley will not plead the statute of limitation, if anyone wishes to bring suit. If money was raised, alleged, it is to somebody's hands, it is to nobody's hands who now wishes to shift his own guilt."

Whether Mr. Risley was a member of the

ATLANTA'S BANK MIDDLE.

Another Complication Which Results in Further Investigation by the Government.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—It is authoritatively learned at the department of justice that Special Counsel Henry W. Jackson, employed in the Gate City National bank case of Atlanta, Ga., has not been removed, but any further action in his part in the case has been suspended. The Atlanta General Office and Secretary Carlisle of the treasury agree on a course to be pursued. The case has assumed a peculiar character. It is now in the opinion of the treasury officials, in a position to open its doors and pay every dollar of its indebtedness caused by the liquidation of the bank. When a Woman Proposes to wash clothes without Pearline, her husband or her employer ought to interfere. She is not only wearing out her own health and strength with useless rubbing and scrubbing, but she is wearing out the clothes with it, too. This rub, rub, rub isn't needed. Put Pearline into the water, and you'll find half the work done by the time you are ready to begin. It's Pearline that loosens the dirt and does the work—not you with your washboard. Just a little rinsing—and it's all over.

Beware of False Pearline.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled. If your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.
