

COUNCILMEN COME TOGETHER

Wheeler Waxes Wroth and Galls Elissamer Very Bad Names. SERGEANT-AT-ARMS RESTORES ORDER

Other Members Keent Wheeler's Language and He is Compelled to Apologize—Squatter Ejection Referred to the Health Board—Routine Business.

Howell Takes It Up. Mr. Howell was on his feet in an instant and said he did not propose to sit in a council where one member was permitted to use such language to another on the floor.

Specifications relating to the paving of Cutting street were referred to a committee of the council, consisting of Messrs. Back, with Chairman Birkhauser and City Engineer Rosewater.

Squatters Get a Reprimand. A petition signed by the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company, John F. Coats and others, asking the council to order the removal of the squatters from the neighborhood of Sixth and Leavenworth, called on considerable discussion.

Beaten by a Priest. Father Jakowicz Charged with Having Greedily Whipped a Boy. A complaint was filed at police headquarters yesterday by a woman who had been troubled by Father Theodore Jakowicz, the priest in charge of the Polish Catholic church at Twenty-ninth and Walnut streets.

Ypsilanti's Disaster. Business Suspended and the Streets Piled High with Debris. YPSILANTI, Mich., April 13.—This city today is in a lamentable condition and business suspended owing to the havoc caused by the late night storm.

Only Ruins Left. Robinsonville, Tenn., Wrecked—Seventeen People Killed. MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 13.—It is hardly possible to exaggerate the havoc made by the cyclone at Robinsonville yesterday.

End in Sight. It is now considered probable that the city hall will be fully completed by May 15. The handsome carved oak panel work will soon be placed in position, and inside of a week the Farnam street entrance will be complete in its trimmings of polished marble and tastefully carved oak.

Awful Effect of Tuesday's Storm Now Apparent. MANY VICTIMS OF THE WHIRLING WINDS. Numerous People Lose Their Lives in Missouri and Tennessee—Towns Were Wiped Out of Existence in a Moment's Time.

St. Louis, Mo., April 13.—Though two nights and a day have passed since the cyclone drove through the small towns in the southwestern part of the state, reports of damage and loss of life are still coming in. Southwest of the territory already heard from is a large stretch of country from which communication is slow and it is feared much further loss of life has taken place there.

At Hawkins Bank the dead are: WILLIAM ASHER, with a baby in his arm; ANDREW LAY. MRS. JAMES WILSON. MISS WILLIAM A-SHER. JOHN D. LAY. JOHN HILL. UNKNOWN BABE. There were six fatally and twenty-five seriously injured.

At Lexington, the dead are: ANNA WALKER. MRS. JOHN LUKER and her brother. FARRIS WALKER. NANCY LAY. Three were fatally injured. At Stansbury the dead are: MRS. WARD. TWO UNKNOWN WOMEN. Two were fatally hurt.

At Steelyville the dead are: CHARLES AYER. D. M. GREEN. FIVE UNKNOWN. At Pate City only one is dead: DAISY STANLEY, colored. Three are fatally and three seriously hurt. Mrs. W. M. Ayer and the loss of several lives are reported from Texas county.

At Higinville eight persons were killed, three more will probably die, and twenty-five were wounded. The killed are: MRS. W. A. LAY and her two daughters. TWO CHILDREN of William Walker. MRS. A. B. KELLY. JOSEPH BURGESS. The report has not been confirmed, but the report has not been confirmed, but the report has not been confirmed.

Through-out Michigan. Awful Effects of the Late Storm—Widespread Destruction. DETROIT, Mich., April 13.—Reports from different sections of Michigan show that the storm of last night prevailed all over the southern portion of the state, leaving destruction and death in its wake.

Cyclone Wrecked a Train. PONTIAC, Mich., April 13.—Reports from Chesterfield, a little village on the Grand Trunk railway, bring the news of great damage. A cyclone struck Chesterfield a few minutes before the arrival of a freight car standing on a side track.

Business Suspended and the Streets Piled High with Debris. YPSILANTI, Mich., April 13.—This city today is in a lamentable condition and business suspended owing to the havoc caused by the late night storm.

ON THE CRUST OF VOLCANO

That is How the Members of the Chicago Board of Trade Felt Yesterday. WEDNESDAY'S LIVELY TIMES REPEATED. Uncertainty Characterized the Dealings of the Operators—Partridge Not Considered in the Events of the Day—Some of the Special Features.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 13.—May wheat sold down to 80 cents a bushel today, a break of 10 cents from yesterday's high point. The general air on 'change was like that of a party on the main standing on the thin crust of a volcano. They were not quite sure whether they were going to be blown sky-high or whether they were going to drop to the center of the earth.

It is a Cold-Blooded Deal. The deal, it is asserted, is being run in absolute cold blood, and the determination to secure the price of wheat that can be obtained. There would have been glory in running the price up to $1 a bushel and breaking shorts wholesale, besides tying up a good many of the commission firms for an indefinite period.

FELL AMONG THIEVES. An Iowa Granger Robbed and Badly Beaten by a Hackman. About 10 o'clock last night George E. Dennis, a stockman from Red Oak, Ia., was brought to the city jail with a badly battered head, a jaw and a long tail of wounds.

Hard on the Shorts. Today's volume of trade in May wheat was comparatively small and none of the big shorts were allowed to cover. When they wanted to buy there was no wheat for sale.

MARRIED IN THE DARK. Chicago, Ill., April 13.—A queer Russian romance had its climax in the Chicago divorce courts today. Nathan Laboriel was the complainant, and his story of the circumstances of his marriage to Sarah Laboriel was not of the usual order.

May Reach a Settlement. New York, April 13.—The conference between the committees of the clothing manufacturers and their locked-out cutters last night continued till long after midnight. It is understood a basis of agreement was practically arrived at.

Strikers Badly Beaten. St. Joseph, Mo., April 13.—A curious strike, which ended disastrously to the strikers, occurred here yesterday. The Santa Fe and Union Pacific had been engaged and employ a large force of men.

Trouble with the Faculty. Students of South Dakota's Agricultural College Made Demands. BROOKINGS, S. D., April 13.—The trouble between the faculty and the students of the agricultural college is increasing in warmth.

Gibson Has a Grievance. The citizens of Gibson are still complaining about the refuse from the South Omaha stock yards being dumped along the river in front of their residences.

Mrs. Johanna Deaney, wife of Michael Deaney, a member of Daniel Deaney died yesterday morning at her residence, 2338 South Eighteenth street, of dropsy. The deceased was 70 years of age and was a native of Ireland. Her husband died in 1910.

THE TRADE Bulletin this evening contains the following sarcastic paragraph: "It is reported that some of the principal supporters of the anti-union bill walked up to the 'captain's office' and settled up their May dues on the 13th inst. The bill, it is said, is not yet passed and the 'friends of the farmer' did not realize from the anticipated depression."

WILL CURE YOU. A true statement of the action of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, when taken for diseases originating in impure blood; but, while this assertion is true of AYER'S Sarsaparilla, as thousands can attest, it cannot be truthfully applied to other preparations which are advertised as cures for the same ailments.
