IT IS hoped that Mr. Mosher will not get lost. Sometimes men in his position wander off into strange lands and forget to return.

IT IS said that J. Sterling Morton is the best dressed man in the cabinet, which goes to show that the wild and woolly west has become civilized.

IT APPEARS that 90 per cent of the people of Kansas are opposed to an extension of the legislature. They know when they have had enough.

THERE are now two or three canal projects by which it is proposed to furnish this city with cheap power. It is much easier and cheaper to build projects than canals.

IT IS now understood that the prince of Wales is not coming to this country this year. But the preparations for the Columbian exposition have progressed so far that it cannot be postponed without great inconvenience.

WHEN the president and the heads of the various departments of the government look upon the naval display in New York they will do well to remember that our great war ships are not the outgrowth of the policy which they represent.

A DENVER contemporary thinks that a round trip rate of $25 from Colorado common points to Chicago during the fair would be about right.

YOUNG King Alexander of Serbia does not receive much credit now for his sensational coup d'etat. It seems that Russia, holding a first mortgage on Europe, was behind the movement and used the youthful king as a tool.

THE gamblers of Chicago are preparing to reap a rich harvest during the exposition, and it is said that at least $50,000 has been expended during the past three weeks in getting ready for a season of wide open games.

WHEN the home rule bill passed its second reading the other night by a majority of forty-three it was apparent to even the most bitter of Mr. Gladstone's enemies that he is an invincible force in English politics.

AT a public meeting in New York City the other night there was a strong demand for a constitutional limit upon the power of the legislature to meddle with municipalities.

ONCE in a while a millionaire has a bright idea. Henry Villard has placed about $12,000 at the disposal of the German government to enable worthy young men to visit the World's fair.

CARE in the selection of consuls is to be commended and nothing will be lost by the proposal of the president to put off further appointments for some time, in order to give the officials in the State department opportunity to make a thorough investigation as to the character and fitness of applicants for the consular service.

ADVERSE PARTISAN BIAS.

When the resolutions to impeach the members of the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings were first introduced in the house the accused officials and their personal followers endeavored to make it appear that the inspiration for impeachment came from personal enemies.

This report was adopted after a spirited debate by an overwhelming majority of the house. It was voted for by republicans as well as by democrats and populists, and hence cannot have been inspired by partisan malice or personal animosity.

THE BEE entertains a higher opinion of the court and does not believe that its rulings will be biased by partisanship one way or the other.

Whatever the supreme court, sitting as a court of impeachment, may rule or decide in the trials that are now pending will, we confidently believe, be in conformity with the letter and spirit of the constitution and statutes.

THE statement made by President Cleveland to a representative of the Associated Press regarding the position of the administration as to gold payments ought to be put at rest all reports to the effect that there was a serious difference of opinion between the president and the secretary of the treasury.

for less from this than if it should permit gold to go to a premium, a condition which some intelligent financiers now apprehend.

THE NEW COMPTROLLER.

There are few more important offices in the government than that of comptroller of the currency, whose duties are directly related to the financial interests of a large body of people who have business with the national banks.

At any rate the new comptroller has some ideas about the nature of the duties he will be called upon to perform, which are entirely sound and if put into effect cannot fail to have good results.

THE clearing house of Boston yesterday came to the assistance of the government by voting to turn into the treasury several million dollars in gold in exchange for greenbacks.

With the utmost faith that the Yanick & Norfolk road will be speedily constructed, the city of Cleveland has been laid out in Knox county, sixteen miles from Bloomfield and seventeen miles from Hartington.

THE Campbell Commission company of South Omaha denies categorically the assertions of a Kearney paper that the company, through Mr. T. B. Clouston, has been negotiating a contract with the government to be used as feed and stock yards.

A GREAT irrigation canal is now being constructed in Arizona by which the waters of the Colorado river are to be distributed over a vast territory that is specially adapted to semi-tropical fruits.

THE president shows no signs as yet of any intention to send a special ambassador to Tammany.

THE word "straight democrat," so often used by certain eminent gentlemen, is beginning to acquire a new and unpleasant meaning.

PEOPLE WORTH MENTIONING.

The agricultural department of the University of Georgia has just matriculated a freshman who is 93 years old. His name is G. M. Hold.

President F. L. Patton of Princeton, has not fully recovered his health, though it was much improved by his sojourn in Switzerland last summer. Dr. Patton is now in Bermuda.

Hoke Smith's aunt has just died, leaving him $300 in cash. Should the secretary keep on accumulating legacies and become a real millionaire one will make many more fun about his name.

Octave L'Amie, a distinguished French author, compiler and editor, is an intending visitor to the World's fair. While in this country he will contribute letters to Figaro under the head of "Sensations d'Amérique."

Theodore Krasavsky, a Russian peasant, died recently at Tolokna, in Volynia, at the reputed age of 130 years. His great age was pretty well substantiated, and he came of a long-lived family, his father having attained the age of 100.

Falls City will have a manufacturers' exposition, beginning July 3. The proceeds will be used to help build a Presbyterian church.

A cigar store thrown in the grass in a suburb of New Orleans caused a fire which burned over several vacant blocks of ground and destroyed a barn.

John Buchanan of Burr was struck by the Missouri Pacific train at a crossing and thrown about a distance, but he was not seriously injured.

Jesse Gandy, the founder of Broken Bow, after residing in the city from 17 1/2 years until it is thirteen years of age, has resumed life on his farm.

The enterprising town of Axtell, comes to the front and offers a bonus of $12,230 cash for the location of a flouring mill, and also a bonus for a brick yard.

Five of the six children of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sorenson, formerly of Omaha, but now residing near Chicago, have died within a few weeks of diphtheria.

While the young son of Rev. Mr. Hawley of Auburn was playing around a bonfire his clothes became ignited and before the flames had been extinguished he was badly burned.

Boys at Rushville threw a baseball up into the air, and when it descended it landed squarely on top of George B. Jack's head, knocking him senseless. He will recover.

The Broken Bow Beacon-Independent has "unhappened" and hereafter there will be no papers here in its stead. One Beal & Dorrill will conduct the Beacon and Colonel Webb will run the Independent.

With the utmost faith that the Yanick & Norfolk road will be speedily constructed, the city of Cleveland has been laid out in Knox county, sixteen miles from Bloomfield and seventeen miles from Hartington.

Joe Houser, a farmer near Hollowood, put his hand in a machine for mangle clothes, cutting strips with a stake cutter. She fell on the machine, and the result was that she was badly "cut up" by the machine running over her, one limb being badly mangled.

The story that Quin Bohman, the escaped murderer, is working in machine shops in a Mexican town has created great excitement in Nebraska. Quin has been reported in some places at the same time that all hope of catching him has been abandoned.

Mr. David Seal of Fort Calhoun has recently patented a machine for making and depositing "anchor rips," and has issued a very neat pamphlet descriptive of the same with illustrations as to construction and the many advantages over any now in use.

Rev. B. F. Flory of Pawnee City has been acquitted by a jury of the charge of forgery. He still has a long way to go in his fight against him, and the one just tried was with A. W. Miller as prosecuting witness.

The fact that Flory had tried to imitate Miller's signature coupled with his sudden disappearance for parts unknown over a year ago, satisfied the jury that he was guilty, but the state failed to show evidence to the jury that would justify the conviction that he was guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The Campbell Commission company of South Omaha denies categorically the assertions of a Kearney paper that the company, through Mr. T. B. Clouston, has been negotiating a contract with the government to be used as feed and stock yards.
