William Sullivan and Edward Skerry were bound over to the grand jury yesterday morning in police court on the charge of burglarizing William Arnd's store on Lower Main street a few nights ago. The defense they put forward was that they had bought the goods of a man whom they didn't know, but the court declared that that kind of a defense was too stale to pass muster there and the two men will have a chance to think up some other. The local firemen claim to have received Information of a conspiracy in Yankton, S. D., to carry off all the prizes at the state tournament to be held this year at Sioux City. It is stated that a number of profes-sional foot racers from Council Bluffs have gone to Yankton and are now in training as a hose team, intending to register as ama-teurs and in that way defeat the really amateur hose teams of the state. Bluffs tried that scheme once and it failure, the fact leaking out before the prizes were awarded, and the ones who are interested in the local team this year do not in tend to let Yankton do anything that Council Bluffs can't do.

The announcement already made that this city is soon to be given an oppor-tunity to witness "Living Whist," or "Dancing Whist," has given rise to much speculation as to the character of such an entertainment and how it is conducted. It is nothing more nor less than a game of whist wherein each card of a deck is designated by a living figure dressed to personate the particular card sought to be represented. The eards are shuffled, cut, dealt and played by means of graceful evolutions to the measures of bright and catchy music:

"Living Whist" will be presented Wednesday evening, May 3, at Masonic hall, by Miss Harriet Harris under the auspices of Unity guild. .

Arrangements Being Made to Use the Block Presented to the City by Colonel Addison Cochran - Considerable Business Transacted.

The city council held its monthly meeting last night. P. G. Mikesell, city poll tax collector, reported that he had collected $134 and returned 80 per cent of the amount to the city, retaining the other 20 per cent as compensation. He was called down on this statement, he having kept just twice what he was allowed by law. His claim was referred to the finance committee and he was instructed to turn the whole amount over to the city treasurer.

The following bills were allowed: City officers' salaries,$792; police, $585; engineer's department, $555; sewer department, $375; streets and alloys, $1,318; Globe, $239; Nonparell, $241; lights, $965; fire department, $1,039; Stimpson & Huber, for construction of intersection sewer on Washington

The election of a street supervisor was next in order, this being the fourth attempt made in that direction. A. E. Avery, F. H. Guanella and O. H. Lucas were the candidates and on the first vote Avery received two votes, Ghanella, four and Lucas two. Four more ballots were taken before a selection was made. On the last ballot all of Guanella's friends forsook him and Avery was elected by a vote of 6 to 2 over Lucas.

E. C. Baldy appeared before the council and asked that an appropriation to assist in the observance of Decoration day be made. The request was referred to the committee of the whole.

Land for Park Purposes.

S. B. Wadsworth read a communication calling the attention of the council to the fact that Addison F. Cochran has given to the city block 7 of the addition which bears his name, and that there are two lots in the block to which he has not a clear title. He asked that the city attorney be directed to take immediate steps to have the two lots in question condemned for park purposes. The request was granted. Wadsworth also said that Colonel Cochran had presented the city with his picture. It was ordered hung in the council chamber, and a committee was appointed to draft a set of resolutions thankng Colonel Cochran for his magnificent wift committee consists of Tibbetts, Keller and Geise.

A communication was read from the city uncil of Omaha asking that a committee of three be appointed to act in conjunction with a similar committee from the Omaha counci for the purpose of reducing the fare on th motor line between the two cities. The mayor was instructed to appoint the com-mittee which consists of Smith, Jennings and White.
A committee was appointed to destroy

$1,912,000 worth of city bonds which have been accumulating in the vaults since 1888. An ordinance was passed reducing the scavenger liceuse from $50 to $10 per annum. Forty-two property owners living between Broadway and Eighth avenue from Twenty-eighth to Thirty-seventh streets asked that a stop be put to the practice of allowing cattle to be herded in that vicinity. The city attorney was instructed to draw an ordi-nance prohibiting the herding of cattle north of Tenth avenue.

With reference to the vote taken at the last meeting on the question of appointing two more men at the Lower Broadway engine house Mayor Lawrence reported that the motion to appoint must be carried by a majority of the entire council, it being a motion for an appropriation of money.

May Pole Party. The children of the First Presbyterian Sunday school were given an entertainment last evening in the church parlors, in honor of the first day of May. The room was crowded to its full capacity, a great many older people being present to watch the enjoyment of the children and listen to the excellent musical and literary program that was presented. The boys of the High school gave a Delsarte exercise representing the "Angels of Buena Vista," which was thor-oughly understood by the audience, although was all in pantomime. Miss Neola M. Ogden sang several songs and was en-thusiastically encored. Music was also furnished by the High school orchestra and a string quintet. Miss Wright read a noem which was well received. The crowning point of the whole program, how-ever, was the May pole dance by the chil-dren. Miss Edith Thomas was crowned queen of the May, and as soon as this interesting exercise was was gone through with the children trooped in and executed the dance, winding the different colored streamers about the tall pole that had been pro-vided for the occasion. Refreshments were served and there was a booth of flowers where all could purchase the first beauties of spring. The entertainment was a great success and a great deal of credit is due those who had the management.

The Grand Army has decided to take back what it said about having Decoration day exercises all by itself, and the general public will be invited to take part in the celebration. The action that was taken a week ago last Saturday night is attributed by some of the members to the fact that several of the leaders had just gone to Keokuk to attend the state encampment, and while the cats were away the mice thought it would be a good time to play. Whether the eming of mind is due to the return of the Keokuk delegation or of the public feeling that was aroused over the matter is not known outside of the ranks, but the fact remains that there has been a change, and everybody will be allowed to help decorate graves. The resolution not to ask the citizens to contribute, however, stands as it was first

AN ARTICLE FROM THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

CCMMENDING THE PLAN OF DR. COPELAND.

In a recent article entitled "Have a Spec-spoken, closes with these accepted truths:

the world must avail itself of his labor.

"We do not mean to argue that a man should be like a horse, capable of entertaining but one idea at a time, for that would be to advocate narrow-mindedness; but we do mean to say that no man should be without one essential and prevaiting object, in the prosecution of which he is determined to excel, and it does not make any difference what that is, whether cleaning a gutter or saving lives, "All this adds weight to our first advice;

to nave a specialty and push it. Be sure you are right before you select it,"

The above excellent advice is quoted here to emphasise Drs. Copeland and Shepard's claim that the true specialist, one that selects a certain line of diseases and makes their study and practice his life work, can not help but become more proficient in their treatment than the general bedside practitioner. The field of medicine has become too extended for a man to hope to master i in all its details. Drs. Copeland and Shepard's great success in the treatment of all diseases of the mucus membrane and their kindred affections is the result of years of special training and special application,

The only objection that can be urged against them is that they advertise, but if they did not do so they could not hope to secure enough patients to justify them in treating these diseases at the low rates they charge,

so the public is benefitted by their advertis-

He says: "It began with catarrh years ago, and for three years past cough and asthma have made me wretched. I could not rest at night, but walked the floor or sat up to get my breath. My lungs were sore, and the terrible racking cough seemed to tear me all to pieces, I raised tough, black masses of micus and slime that almost choked me. It seemed as If nothing would be left of my lungs. My chest rattied and wheezed at times like a brass band. After two months with Dr. Shepard I am perfectly relieved and as well as I ever was. I believe this treatment for catarrh, asthma and lung troubles is the best in the world."

Mr. Cook's Case.

"My trouble," said Ben R. Cook, the second tenor in the Bison City Quartet of Netl Burgess's "County Fair," dates back five years, For three years I had been using sait and water as a nasal douche notleing an obstruction in my breathing. Instead of helping no it seemed to aggravate the disease.

"The obstruction interfered seriously with my voice, and after treatment for two years with various doctors I was recommended by a professional friend to Dr. Copeland and associates.

An Iowa Teacher.

An Iowa Teacher.

Teaching school is a tolisome and exacting employment. The work is far from healthful. The dust from the school-room and the physical and mental strain induce catarrhal troubles, headache and nervous exhaustion. Many teachers are now being treated by Drs. Copeland and Shepard for these and kindred complishins. Among them is Miss Alta M. Fisher, a popular public school teacher of flamburg, lowa, who has been treated entirely by mail. She says:

"I suffered all the misery that comes from catarrhal disease until I took the mail treatment of Drs. Copeland and Shepard. This has made a wonderful change in me, and is completely uprooting the disease from my system. To teachers and all others I highly commend these physicians."

Dr. W. H. Copeland was president of his class in Betievue Hespital Medical College, New York, where he graduated, the most famous institution of its kind in the country.

Dr Shepard's credentials are no less abundant and unqualified. He was the president of his class at Rush Medical College, Chicago, the most noted medical school in the west. Also member of the lowa State Medical Society, and of various other medical and surgical organizations.

Shepard Relieved Her.

Mrs. James Gibbs, wife of the well known sexton of Forest Lawn cemetery, lives in Florence, where she is known by the whole village as a model wife and mother.

Her story, as told by herself, is one of the best examples of what Drs. Copeland and Shepard have often urged—the danger of allowing catarrh to develop and fasten on the system in early childhood. Mrs. Gibbs says:

"I had hardly known what it was to have an entirely well dusy in my life until very lately. I contracted catarrh when I was E years old, and had been a sufferer from it ever since, until I was restored to health by Drs. Copeland & Shepard. I was so nervous I could not sleep or rest; worn out, run down, and weak and tired all the time. My head and throat were always choked up, my head ached all the time and my throat was sore and dry. I could positively retain hardly anything I ate on my stomach; it was a wavs giving me trouble and I suffered all the misery of a confirmed dyspeptic. For days and days I could et nothing, but lived on fluids alone. Under these physicians, however, I began to improve, and this improvement kept up until I am now nearly cured. Every one of my symptoms is gone and I feel healthy, energetic and well. I cannot put my thankfuiness to these physicians too strongly." cians too strongly." Sem Our Sales Keep Increasing.
