aw Under Which the Culprits Were Sentenced Has Been Repealed and They Now Ask to Be Released from the New Statute.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1. - The lives of wo men, convicted of murder in the state of alifornia and sentenced to be hanged, are ependent on the fate of a motion made oday in the United States supreme court by ttorney General Hart of that state.

After these men had been sentenced in the unty courts to be hanged in the ounty jail, by the county sheriff, and while their cases were pending in appeal in the supreme court of the tate, the legislature passed a law directing that executions for capital offenses should e in the state prison by the warden thereof. he judgment of the lower court being afirmed by the supreme court of the state, unsel for the condemned appealed o the United States supreme court the ground that the law lirecting executions to be held in county halfs having been repealed and the new law half having been repealed and the new law half applying to judgments rendered before its passing, the sentence on the accused could not be carried out, except in violation of the fourteenth amendment to the constitution. The court received the appeal and counsel were given until the 13th inst. in which to file briefs in support of or in

Of the surplus $16,095,105 was in national bank depositories, against $15,954, 641 the previous month. Liabilities of a Railroad.

Washington, D. C., May 1.-The question of the liabilities of a railroad corporation to an employe for injuries received while in the services of the company was the substance of a decision by the supreme court of the United States today, the opinion being the United States today, the opinion being read by Justice Brewer. The circumstances briefly are these: John Baugh, a fireman in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company at Bellaire, O., was injured in a collision. Baugh claimed that the injury received was due to the negligence of the engineer. He brought suit against the company and the trial of the case resulted in a verdict and judgment for the plaintiff in the sum of $6,700.

The railroad company appealed to the su-

The railroad company appealed to the su-preme court. Justice Brewer reviewed the principles applicable to the case at great length. The justice says: "The opinion maintains that the injury to Baugh was simply one of the risks assumed by him when entering the company's service. The peril was known, and yet, with this knowl-

on the engine with the engineer." The judgment of the circuit court was reversed and the case remanded for a new trial. Justice Field dissented, presenting trial. Justice Field dissented, presenting his views in a lengthy opinion couched in most vigorous language. He said that the verdict and judgment in the court below were reached in conformity with the law as settled by the decision of the supreme court of Ohio and that that law was the law to control."

Federal Taxes Not Governed by State Laws Washington, D. C., May 1.-Mr. Justice Shiras announced an opinion in the supreme court of the United States today in relation to the internal revenue tax laws of the United States to local statutes of states. A bill for the collection of taxes assessed against him as a tobacco manufacturer was filed in 1885 in the circuit court for the eastern district of Louisiana by the United States against Charles Snyder, Execution was issued in 1889. In 1881 Snyder sold certain lots in New Orleans to the International Compress company, and the latter was made defendant with Snyder on the ground that the United States had a lien for these taxes on the property sold by Snyder. Assessment of taxes constituting the lien was not filed in the mortgage office at New Orleans, as required by the laws of Louisiana to affect third parties, and the Compress company purchased in ignorance of said lien. The circuit court gave judg-ment against Snyder, but dismissed the bill

ment against Snyder, but dismissed the bill as to the Cotton Compress company on its claims under the state law quoted. This action of the court below, Justice Shiras said did not meet the approval of the supreme court, which holds that "the tax system of the United States is regulated by the federal statutes, and practice, and is not controlled by state enactments." The judgment of the circuit court was therefore. ment of the circuit court was, therefore reversed and the cause remanded, with in structions to proceed in accordance with this Successful Armor Plate Test.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.-Another successful armor plate trial took place today at Indian Head, the naval proving grounds near Washington. It was the acceptance test of the eight-inch armor for the New York, Monterey and Texas. While the contractors failed to secure a premium as the result of the test, the plate filled the terms of the contract and about 300 tons of the armor for the vessels named will be accepted. Carnegie, Phipps & Co. were the makers of the plate. makers of the plate.

Candidates for the Derby Reaching Louisville-Yesterday's Results. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1 .- Two prominent candidates for the Kentucky Derby reached Churchili Downs this morning. They were Lookout and Boundless, the Cushing and Orth pair and they came from Memphis. Both are in superb condition and up to a bruising race. Being coupled in the betting, they will doubtless be the favorites in the betting when the saddling begins on Derby day. There are now over 400 horses at the track with applications on file for nearly thirty stalls more. From present indica-tions there will be at least twelve starters

LAST NIGHT'S ARRESTS.

Police Capture a Notorious Woman, a Suspect and a Bad Girt.

Ellen Foster, who was arrested yesterday afternoon upon the charge of harboring minors at her bagnio in the burnt district, and afterward bailed out until her trial could be had, celebrated the regaining of her freedom by getting on a spree, and before midnight was again behind the bars on a charge of disorderly conduct. She made some resistance to arrest, but is now languishing where she can have time to moralize upon her sinfulness and make new resolves for

Mike Gavin was pulled in last night as a vagrant and suspicious character. It is thought be is guilty of having peddled stolen goods in the Third ward. Annie Hoagg, a young girl about 15 years of age, was arrested last evening by Officer, Vaughn upon the charge of mcorrig-ibility, preferred presumably by her mother. For some time past, Vaughu says, she has been a habitue of the house run by Ellen Foster. The warrant for her arrest was swarn out on March 31, but she successfully evaded the officers until last evening. Upon her appearance at the jail her first request was for a cigarette. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

IMPEACHMENT TRIAL OPENED

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE. that the trial would proceed upon its merits. as he had no desire to pince a straw in the way of the meting out of justice. He also stated that the attorneys for the accused would not attack the question of the legislative appropriation. the information was conveyed to Judge Doane, who represents the state, he said that he had expected all along that the matter would take that turn, as the points the opposing attorneys had taken were not well founded. While this is true so far as the officials in office are concerned, there is a possibility that the case against ex-Treas-urer Hill may be postponed, his attorneys claiming that as he was out of office the legclaiming that as he was out of office the leg-islature had no authority for filing the charges. This is a question to be passed upon by the supreme court, and many of the best lawyers in the case hold that he must stand trial with the officers who are the present members of the Board of Public Lands and Buildings.

Might Have Had an Extra Session. The news that the trial would proceed was good news to the many prominent state peo-ple who are in Lincoin tonight. Had the de-murrer been filed for the purpose of delay it is hard to tell what the outcome would have been, as there was a strong sentiment in favor of petitioning Governor Crounse to call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of preparing new articles of impeachment. The parties who were back of the movement had hesitancy in saying that if new charges had been preferred they would have been much stronger than those now on file. In saying this they declare that as far as rottenness is concerned the present charges simply skim the surface and do not go into the depths of the real corruption. In touching upon the appropriation made by the legislature for the purpose of carry-ing on the trial they declare that the amount is a mere bagatelle, and in arguing this they point to the fact that when the state was as poor as it was possible for any commonwealth to be $20,000 was appropriated to carry on the impeachment preferred against ex-Governor Butler, while now the state is wealthy. Aside from this they urge that the people of the state are entitled to know if their servants have been stealing, and if so how long it has continued and how much money has been diverted from the channels for which it was intended.

Efforts of the Accused. The efforts of the impeached officials to have the appropriation for the expenses for the impeachment trial declared illegal by reason of the mistake in the enrolling of the bill, took a new bent today. It was confi-dently announced that a discovery had been made to the effect that an item of $15,000 was never appropriated by the senate at all. Acting upon this assumed discovery, Auditor Moore was again warned by friends of the accused officials that if he issued warrants against the fund he would involve himself in serious complications. They also asserted with equal show of confidence that they had extracted a promise from Auditor Moore that he would draw no more warrants against the fund unless actually compelled to by an order from the supreme court.

Auditor Moore said to The Bre tonight that it was true that the reputed discovery had been brought to his attention and that he had been warned not to issue further warrants. But he asserted emphatically that he had given no such promise and that his position still remains just exactly where it did inst Wednesday when he notified the state treasurer not to register the warrants until he could get further legal advice upon

The auditor takes a complacent view of The auditor takes a complacent view of the matter. In the first place he has a certified copy of the proceedings of both the house and the senate in regard to the much-disputed appropriation, and knows exactly what each of the two houses did in reference to the matter. The record is perfectly straight and all the efforts of the may who are so active in their efforts of the men who are so active in their attempts to thwart the plainly expressed wish of the legislature are likely to fail.

The impeached officials are apparently do-ing nothing in reference to the question, and if they countenance the efforts of their selfconstituted assistants the public will know it. They will assert that they have no interest one way or the other and that they are perfectly indifferent as to the decision of

"Turkish" and "Russian" Bath of Civilltation Known to the Indians.—How They Do It.—A Lesson From Nature which the Wise will Heed - Kickspoe Indian Sagwa a Grand Remedy.

Indians Taking Vapor Baths.

In this way an Indian takes a "Turkish" or a "Russian" bath; They dig a bole in the earth, in which they lay stones, and upon which they build a fire, heating the stones to a red heat; they belid a fire, heating the stones to a red heat; they then carefully remove the coals; cutting a number of saplings they sitek one end in the ground, bend them over and place the other end also in the ground, these extend over the hot stones in the shape of a half loop. Over these poles or hoops the Indians place skins of animals or blankets. If the "Russian" or vapor bath is desired, they then throw water upon the hot rocks, this generating steam. Those destring the vapor bath crawl underneath. After the pores of the skin are opened and they profusely perspire they crawl onland another Indian dashes buckets of cold water over them, or they plunge into a near by atresm. They are then rubbed thoroughly with Kickapoo Indian Oil, and are given copious drafts of Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, after which they roll up in blankets and have a sound sleep.

Who can teach the Indians anything Who can teach the Indians anything about health? His own physique answers for his superior knowledge.

His preparations of roots, barks and herbs, now given to the world for the first time in the Kickapoo Indian Remedies are unequalled by any discoveries of the medleal world of the whites. When you feel twinges of pain in your joints, look out, a slight cold might develop Rheumatic Fever. If you have pains in your back or sides your liver is congested or your kidneys are not performing their work and poison is gathering in your body. Exposure to cold or contagious diseases would be fatal to you. Pimples, blotches, and other humors indicate that the poison is working in your blood. You feel languid, heavy, dull; you awake in the morning unrested. Beware! Drive these symptoms away at once! Take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. It will cleanse your system, heal your diseased cleanse your system, heal your diseased organs, purify and enrich the blood, and drive every taint of poison from your bedy. Then you will feel strong, bright, alert and active as the Indian does.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa is composed of nature's remedies, gathered and prepared by nature's children, who depend not upon book knowledge for their cures, but upon the leaves, the flowers, the roots and the herbs that are placed in the earth by an all wise Providence for the benefit of every living creature.

Why, look at the animals!

If your horse lacks his accustomed vigor you are taught to turn him out to pasture. You do so. The horse gets well.

Why?

Because there grows in every field the tender leaves of some medicinal plant which instinct tells the animals to eat, and does for the poor old horse precisely what some other, or perhaps the same plant will do for a human being. Restores the wasted energies! Renews the lost strength! Revives the drooping spirits.
