DOMESTIC WOE.

Mrs. Weeks Tells the Story of Her Troubles to the Commissioner for the Insane.

Charles Weeks made a new move yester day morning in the difficulty between him self and wife that resulted Sunday in the arrest of Cornelius Miller. He filed an information charging her with insanity and she was before the commissioners yesterday afternoon for an examination. She teld a long story of domestic broils, the first chapter of which dated back about the tin the war, and the succeeding chapters all went to show that she had been the money making part of the firm and her husband did but lis toward caring for the family of nine children.

She admitted that she was a spiritualist, and that Miller had "developed" her as a medium, but said it was with the entire consent of her husband. She denied having had any relations with Miller excepting those of a friend, and said that Miller had always neted the part of a gentleman toward her. She said the final flare-up came last Tuesday night, when she refused to send her list and the consense of the consense o night, when she refused to send her 18-year-old daughter up stairs to spend the night in a room with five young men, some of them her brothers and the rest sons of Miller The next morning Weeks announced his de termination to leave her and said he would go out on the street and cut her throat rather than live with her any longer. He told her that his life with her had been hell, and he didn't want any more of it. She agreed to his plan and he left for and he didn't want any more of it. She agreed to his plan and he left for Lincoln, Nob. She went right on with her preparations for leaving for the Missouri river farm which the spirits had told Miller of, deciding to go with Mr. and Mrs. Miller and leave her husband to go where he saw fit. At the close of Mrs. Weeks' testimony the examination was the examination was put off until this morning at 9 o'clock, when it will be resumed.

KILLED FOUR INDIANS.

Patal Results of an Attempt to Make an Indian Woman Drink Tiswin. Washington, D. C., May 15.—Secretary Smith today received a telegram from Lieutenant Johnson at Fort Apache, dated April 27, giving an account of the killing of four Indians on Cibicu creek. The report says: Indians on Cibicu creek. The report says:

Ah Des Pah tried to force his wife to drink tlswin; she refused and told her husband to kill her. Her father was present on horseback and believing in bis son-in-law, jokingly, also told him to go ahead and kill his daughter. Ah Des Pah shot and killed his wife. The father and a young back rushed in to prevent Ah Des Pah from killing his wife, when the latter turned his Winchester on them and killed them both. An Indian named Johnnie, hearing the shots, rode up and dismounted to get his gun, when Ah Des Pah firea two shots, which missed. Ah Des Pah then fled, but which missed. An Des Pah then fled, but Johnnie pursued and killed him. All is quiet. I have sent deputies to the scene to prevent the Indians from gathering in excited groups.

Washington Notes. Washington, D. C., May 15.-William E. Curtis, director of the Bureau of American Republies, today returned to Washington from Chicago and tendered his resignation to the president. Mr. Curtis' action was

AFFAIRS IN SOUTH OMAHA

City Council Meets and Does Much Routine Business of Importance.

WANTS FIVE THOUSAND FOR A BROKEN ARM

Miss Cors Lee's Death Calls Forth Resolutions of Respect-Case for the Geary Law-Matters of Minor Moment.

The South Omaha city council ground out a long grist of routine business last night. The two measures that attracted most attention were the petition to build a viaduct across the railroad at N street and the ordinance repealing the ordinance compelling stationary engineers to be licensed. The N street viaduct proposition had been before the council on a previous occasion and was defeated. Some of the engineers are anxious to have the ordinance governing their trade enforced while others are opposed to it. Mayor Walker is the father of the repeal.

J. W. Blake and Frank Pekelka were granted liquor licenses.

The special committee on the opening up of East N street was granted further time to report in. Its chairman, Mr. Bulla, said the committee desired the advice of the city attorney on the matter.

The committee appointed to wait on the street car company and request the extension of the motor line across Q street reported that masmuch as the manager of the company was out of the city, further time would have to be granted. would have to be granted.

An ordinance repealing the ordinance governing liceused engineers was read a first time and referred. This is the ordinance that Mayor Walker said he had intended to veto, but was out of the city at the time a veto would have been effective. The ordi-nance has never been in force.

Mr. Ryan and others presented a petition asking that the city open V street from Twenty-seventh street to Railroad avenue.

Spirre Brothers asked in a communication if some provision could not be made to col-lect a license from Garneau and other out-side bakers, who peddle their bread in this Anna Cain gave notice to the council that she had a bill against the city for $5,350. Her statement is that on March 12, 1893, she was thrown from the sidewalk to the curb. breaking her arm and shoulder blade. The accident occurred on Q street, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets. Referred to the city attorney.

George C. Ford lost his city warrant for $2, which he earned as clerk of election, and asked that a new one be issued.

Fire Chief Smith was instructed to get prices on 800 feet of rubber and 200 feet of cotton hose and report same to the council.

The cit, engineer was instructed to establish the grade on Eighteenth street from Q to Armor and on Wyman street from Eighteenth to Twenty-second.

Mr. Schultz showed plans and figures on $18 worth of shelving to be done in the city clerk's office. The work was ordered done. City Attorney Connell submitted an opinion on the question of permitting saloon keepers to remove their places of business from one ward to another without procuring new licenses. Mr. Connell maintains that the ordinances on this subject are not only open to liberal construction, but should be so constructed, and that it is a matter for the board to decide in individual instances, as they may occur, whether or not the owner of a saloon license may remove from one ward to another without securing

Nearly All Have Registered and Feel Safe-

One Old Shir. Washer Left Out. be in the least disturbed over the decision of the supreme court declaring the Geary exclusion law constitutional. As they have nearly all registered they have no occasion for feeling uneasy. Several of the leading Chinamen of the town were seen yesterday, and they all said that so far as they knew there was but one Chinaman in Omaha who had not regis-"He is old man," said Tom Kwaie, rather bright Mongolian who keeps a laundry on Dodge street east of Fourteenth. "He nearly sixy year old and he no good in Melica anyhow. He have to go back' This old man keeps a laundry on Tenth street and is intending, it is said, to pack his few personal effects and light out for the Flowery Kingdom in the very near future.

Enlante Enroute.

Washington, D. C., May 15.—The Infanta Euralie is coming and the cloud that overspread the sky of international etiquette has partly cleared away. A cable message received by Secretary Gresham today from the United States consul general at Hayana states that the infanta sailed for New York this afternoon. The president is in favor of doing all that can be done to pay honor to the infanta during her visit, but he wants to do it in the American way. The royal lady is due in New York on May 19, and the time intervening will give plenty of opportunity-for the arrangements of the details of her recontion.

Billings-Little.

Miss Malla A. Little, formerly of Kewanee, Ill., and Mr. W. S. Billings were married yesterday at 4 p. m., Rev. Dr. Duryea of the First Congregational cnurch officiaing. The bride is one of Omaha's well wn and popular musicians, greatly missed by her friends, whose best wishes go with her to her new home, which will be in Kansas City, Mo., after June 1.

AN ODDFELLOW'S OFFERING

He Gives Some Facts of Importance to All People Exposed to Weather Changes.

Mr. A. G. Hollander, living with his family at 21218. 10th street. Council Bigiffs, is a carrepairer at the U. P. Transfer, and his occul in the U. P. service for five years. He is also a faithful member of the Swedish Oddfellows lodge, No. 183, Omahs. His statement will be accepted by hundred who know him as absolute fruth, and he will kladic verify it personally. The nature of Mr. Hollander's work exposes him to the weather a great doal, and this has aggravated and aided a disease with which he was afflicted out; despite his efforts with pattern medicings and physicians who with patent medicines and physicians who did not understand his trouble, the disease had become a chronic one. Mr. Hollander

"isuffered so much and so long that I was discouraged. I tried everything recommended, but secured nothing but temperary relief until I placed myself under the care of Drs. Copeland and Shepard.

2/23 S. 10th St., Council Bluffs.

"My catarrh spread from the nose and throat to my eyes, which became bloodshot and blurred. My ears were then attacked with deafness and rin ing. My system yielded steadily to the catarrhal-disease until I was nearly broken down in streagth. My stomach lost its nower. I could not eat. A severe cough, night and day, set in, with soreness and pain through my chest which made rest and sleep almost impossible. A severe headache was almost constant, and was greatly aggraveted by cold or damp weather and raw winds, for my work is entirely out of doors. Dr. Shepard has stoadly treated me until I am entirely cured. My cutarrh, deafness and headache are all cone; also, my cough and lang symptoms. Leat and digest food splondidly, and am built up as inever hoped to be, It has taken a number of months for this grand result, but the tetal expense has been very light, and the methods employed soothing and grateful. I believe Dr. Shepard saved me from a decline into consumpt on, and I am very carnest in my grat tude and praise." My catarrh spread from the nose and throat

Catarrh and all curable diseases treated at low and uniform rates me lienes free. Patients at a distance successfully treated by mail. Send for symptom blank.
