

LATENSER HAS GOT THE JOB

Board of Education Architect Will Boss the Work on the New Postoffice.

MARTIN'S FACTION SCORES THE VICTORY

End of a Fight in Which the State Central Committee Was Fitted Against Prominent Individual Democrats Who Had Endorsed Henry Voss.

The long and bitter democratic fight over the position of chief of construction of the new federal building in Omaha is over and Mr. Henry Voss has been defeated.

A telegram was received from Washington yesterday stating that Mr. John Latenser had been appointed to fill the position.

This appears to be a decided victory for the democratic state central committee.

The fight has been a decided one in some respects. While Mr. Voss was personally upon good terms with many of the members of the state central committee, his unkindly relations with the chairman, Chairman Martin, were the means of preventing him from seeking the support of the state central committee and this gave Mr. Latenser his victory ground.

At the last meeting of the state central committee Mr. Voss had sent his application on to Washington, but hearing that Chairman Martin was preparing to call a powerful blow by getting the state central committee to endorse some one else Voss hurried to the Paxton hotel to see the members of the committee on the day of the last meeting and forestall the work of Martin if he could.

He was too late. A majority of the committee had already signed Mr. Latenser's application and Mr. Voss saw that his battle would have to be fought without the aid of the committee.

He still had hopes that ex-Governor Boyd and other prominent Democrats would overbalance the influence of the central committee, for he had Mr. Boyd on his side.

A week or so later he secured the appointment, but before the commission had been Secretary Carlisle's hands a batch of burning protests were hurried away to Washington and the appointment was hung up.

Mr. Voss was notified that his appointment had been revoked and that the whole matter would be done over.

For nearly a month the matter has been pending and it is now for the first time Secretary Carlisle has something to do with a wagon load of documents on both sides of the fight.

There have been several other candidates besides Mr. Voss and Mr. Latenser, but the fact that Mr. Latenser had the support of the state central committee placed him in the forefront in the fight.

Mr. John Latenser, the successful aspirant, is at present architect for the Board of Education. He will doubtless be obliged to give up this position, for it is understood that the present administration is going to give all of the time of the architect to the federal building. The salary is $4 a day.

FEDERAL COURT OPENS

Omaha Grand Jury at Work Investigating Charges—Minor Cases.

The federal grand jury began its work yesterday. At 10 o'clock the jurors, twenty in number, appeared before Judge Dundy and were sworn.

Opposite the jury sat a squad of criminals who will be the subjects of investigation at this term of court. They eyed the jury keenly as the judge imparted some general instructions.

Major Pearson was appointed as foreman of the jury and after a few words from the district attorney with regard to the duties that would devolve upon them and the probable amount of work that would be required at this term the jury was escorted to the small court room below by a deputy and the work of sifting out the evidence of crime began.

Most of the criminals in custody are said to be guilty of either counterfeiting or selling liquor to the Indians or without a legal permit. There is one case of alleged murder, that of a woman, a private in the Sixth cavalry, is accused of killing a fellow soldier at Fort Niobrara.

Following are the names of the jurymen: S. G. Harris, J. W. Pearson, Maurice Sullivan, J. S. Miller, John A. Templeton, R. E. Allen, W. M. Williams, Richard Stebbins, Julius Jankowski, John T. McCague, J. H. May, C. F. Mantz, Charles E. Catlin, Jerome B. Parrott, Fred H. Smith, A. D. Peck, W. L. May, A. J. Simpson and T. S. Wilson.

The petit jury will be called next week. Jesse Robertson, William Corey and Albert Davis, the young men who were arrested several months ago upon a charge of breaking into the postoffice at Aspinwall, Neb., and were indicted by the grand jury at the January term, were arraigned this morning and pleaded not guilty. They will be tried as soon as the petit jury is empaneled.

Don't Fool With a Cold. From The New York Sun.

We must repeat our warning against pneumonia: the most dangerous disease which prevails in the city, and which is extraordinarily prevalent at this time.

Colds are even more dangerous at this season than in the winter. Be on the guard at all times against taking a cold. Look out for it if you take it. Gladstone goes to bed and sends for a doctor whenever he has a cold, and consequently he always gets well in a very short time.

The Sun is right and their warning should be heeded. For colds there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It prevents any tendency to pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it.

Trainmen's Organizer. Timothy T. Slatery, vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, with headquarters at Galesburg, Ill., is in Omaha about six years ago. "Tim," as he was popularly known, earned a livelihood twisting a brake on a railway line in Montana.

Subsequently he became yardmaster of the Montana Union road in Montana. He was a few years after his arrival in the northwest when he came to Galesburg, Ill., to fill the responsible position, which he at present occupies. Mr. Slatery has made an excellent record as an organizer, and the knowing ones say that the day is not far distant when he will be at the head of the crew.

Mr. Slatery reports that the brotherhood is growing rapidly and its numerical strength has made it a powerful factor in organized labor. He smiles at the rumors that the railway managers contemplate exterminating organized railroad labor and regards such a movement as not likely to be a successful achievement.

Fancy Figures for Omaha. "Here is a singular thing," said a member of the Board of Education to a Ben reporter this morning, pulling a telegram out of his pocket. "I have here a message from the secretary of the Board of Education at Detroit, stating that the Smead company has offered to place their system of heating and ventilation with automatic flushing closets and fans in an eight-room building for $2,500."

"Now couple this with the fact that the same company wants the Omaha Board of Education to pay $7,500 for the same apparatus in the same kind and size of a building and you have the peculiar situation to which I refer."

The Smead company may have a very good kind of a heating and ventilating machine, but why are we expected to pay $1,200 more than the board in Detroit for exactly the same kind of an apparatus?"

Yale Theological School. NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 17.—The commencement exercises of the Yale Theological school were begun this morning and were attended by about 600 people. President Timothy Dwight presided, and after opening the services with a prayer and hymn, essays were delivered by members selected from the graduating class.

INDIAN BATHS.

The Red Men's Knowledge of the Laws of Health.

"Turkish" and "Russian" Bath of Civilization Known to the Indians.—How They Do It.—A Lesson From Nature which the Wise Will Heed.—Kickapoo Indian Sagwa a Grand Remedy.

In this way an Indian takes a "Turkish" or a "Russian" bath. The dig a hole in the earth, in which they lay stones and upon which they build a fire, heating the stones to a red heat; they then carefully remove the coals, cutting a narrow hole of saplings they stick end in the ground, they then throw water upon the hot stones in the ground, thus extend over the hot stones or upon the Indian place skins of animal or blankets. If the "Russian" or vapor bath is desired, they then throw water upon the hot stones, thus generating steam. Those desiring the vapor bath, they then open the pores of the body, they crawl out and another Indian dashes buckets of cold water over them, or they plunge into a stream. They are then rubbed thoroughly with your Kickapoo Indian Oil and a copious draught of Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, after which they roll up in blankets and have a sound sleep.

Who can teach the Indians anything about health? His own physique answers for his superior knowledge.

His preparations of roots, bark and herbs, now given to the world for the first time in the Kickapoo Indian Remedies are unequalled by any discoveries of the medical world of the whites.

When you feel twinges of pain in your joints, look out, a slight cold might develop Rheumatic Fever. If you have pains in your back or sides your liver is congested or your kidneys are not performing their work and poison is gathering in your body.

Exposure to cold or contagious diseases would be fatal to you.

Pimples, blotches, and other humors indicate that the poison is working in your blood. You feel languid, heavy, dull; you wake in the morning unrefreshed. Beware! Drive these symptoms away at once!

Take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. It will cleanse your system, heal your diseased organs, purify and enrich the blood, drive every taint of poison from your body, and you will feel strong, bright, alert and active as the Indian does.

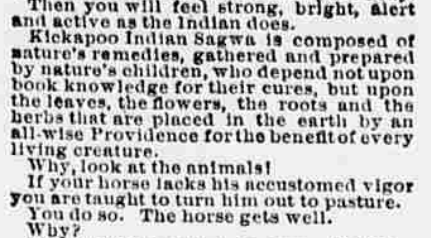

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa is composed of nature's remedies, gathered and prepared by the Kickapoo Indians, who depend not upon book knowledge for their cures, but upon the leaves, the flowers, the roots and the herbs that are placed in the earth by an All-wise Providence for the benefit of every living creature.

Who look at the animal! If your horse lacks his accustomed vigor you are taught to turn him out to pasture. You do so. The horse gets well.

Why? Because there grows in every field the tender leaves of some medicinal plant which instinct tells the animal to eat, and does for the poor old horse precisely what some other, or perhaps the same plant will do for a human being. Restores the wasted energies. Renews the lost strength! He gives the drooping spirit.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. Sold by All Druggists and Dealers. $1.00 per Bottle, 6 Bottles for $5.00.

Short Lived Shams

Are those ignorant pretensions who without any qualifications, any ability, any experience, any skill, claim to possess the power to cure all the ills of the human race. But their wail of woe soon becomes apparent to their would-be dupes, and these conscienceless quacks are soon consigned to the oblivion they so richly merit.

In strange and strong contrast with these miserable boasters is the quiet, dignified yet courteous demeanor of those noted leaders of their profession.
