several colleges in the state are shortly to be held in a building to be conducted by a number of well known local physicians.

Regular meeting of Etcheta council, No.

degree of Pochonias, this evening. All members are requested to be present at 773 and Minnesota councils of Omaha be in attendance.

Sheriff Hazen has received a circular from Brooklyn, N. Y., asking for information concerning William H. Cochran of 973 street in that city. He disappeared the 24th of last March and nothing has been heard from him since. His wife is said to be in the city. He is believed to have been confirmed services at St. Paul's

The jury in the damage suit of Kruger against the city was completed and given its verdict yesterday afternoon. Last evening the jury came in with a sealed verdict, after only a few hours. The contents of the envelope containing the verdict are not known, but the attorneys for the city feel confidently that it is for them by the fact that an agreement was reached so early. The verdict will be opened in court tomorrow.

Commencing this morning the Council will hold its regular sessions for Corn-crest, Glenwood, Hastings, Malvern, and Junction, Red Oak, Villisca, Henderson, Macedonia, Carson and Taylor. In the afternoon, Burlington & Quincy will be held. The mails will close at 7:30 a. m.

of the members of the Infallible Dramatic association went to Ingene last Wednesday to give a musical entertainment in the house of that place. They were entirely successful and played to a packed house, returning home with their pockets filled with Ingene silver, gold and diamonds.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Hilarious Conduct of John P. Tinley, a Young Lawyer.

HE GETS A JAG AND GOES ON THE WARPATH

Three Officers Have a Difficult Time in

Taking Him to the Lockup—A

Pierce and Desperate Struggle on the Street.

John P. Tinley, a young lawyer of this city, created some excitement on North Main street yesterday afternoon. He had been drinking just enough to make him want to fight some one, and two colored men happened to be the ones closest at hand. He chased them up street and into Price Gibson's saloon, driving blows in their direction which would have had telling effect if they had hit anything but the air. In the saloon there was a pitched battle, it requiring the combined strength of several men to prevent Tinley from training his opponents with a chair. John Sandel, the driver of the patrol wagon, soon reached the spot in response to a telephone message, closely followed by Deputy Marshal Fowler. In the melee Sandel fell with Tinley on top of him and would probably have been hurt had not Fowler held one of Tinley's fists. The prisoner was at last overpowered and taken to the station, although on the road he became very fractious and not only refused to walk, but insisted on fighting the two officers and

Deputy Marshal James Anderson, who had come to the rescue.

There was considerable criticism, after the fracas was over, of the action of Deputy Marshal Fowler in using his fists on the prisoner's throat in order to compel him to submit. For nearly two minutes he choked off Tinley's wind, and when he at last released him Tinley's face was purple and he could hardly walk the remaining short distance to the jail. He soon recovered his breath, however, and used up a large amount of it in abusing the officers. A number of the bystanders ventured the assertion that three able-bodied officers ought to be able to pick up a man like Tinley and carry him off bodily without having to choke him into submission. Some of the members of the bar who watched the entire scene were especially severe in their denun-ciations.

Piles of people have piles, but De Witt's

Witch Hazel Salve will cure them.

AWFUL SKIN DISEASE

Covered Head to Feet with Scales.

Could Not Work. Could Not Sleep.

Wished Himself Dead.

Read of Cuticura. Got the Remedius. Relief Immediate and Cure

Speedy and Complete.

I feel thankful for your wonderful CUTICURA

REMEDIES, which have cured me of an awful skin disease from which I suffered for nine years and from which I endured the greatest torment. I was covered from head to feet with a scaly disease. I could not work. My hands were so sore I could not wash, and often I wished myself dead. I would sit up all night in my chair with my clothes wet with sweat and cry with pain. I tried everything I could hear of. Nothing seemed to do me the least good until I saw an advertisement in the paper of a wonderful cure by the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I tried my husband's disease was the same as mine. He got us the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and before I had taken one set they gave me relief, and I could sleep. I got more of your CUTICURA SOAP and
