Sharp Bulge Characterized Dealings in the Wheat Pit Yesterday.

LITTLE OF THE CEREAL FOR SALE... Corn Was Firm and Also Advanced a Fraction at the Close—An Unusual Situation Not Regarded as Any Worse.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 9.—There was a sharp bulge in wheat today. The market advanced 2c a bu. and closed firm at the top. With wheat below the cost of production and the business situation apparently more settled, there was a disposition to buy wheat and it was discovered there was little for sale. Corn was firm and also advanced, netting 1/2c gain at the close. The heavy shorts were diligently talking corn down and buying it, as for some days past. Provisions responded to the lack of the drivers of that deal and advanced a little.

A favorable feature regarding wheat was that there was no news strikingly bearish. English cables were slightly lower, but not enough to exert much influence, while the agricultural outlook in the United Kingdom was by no means assuring and the scattering state reports received were far from encouraging. The growing activity among exports gave some promise of a relief in the market and to that extent encouraged holders, and there was a feeling that the government report tomorrow will show a low harvest.

The business situation, if not cleared, was not regarded as any worse than there was a disposition on the part of the short sellers to take profits. Offerings were decidedly moderate. Provisions responded to the lack of the drivers of that deal and advanced a little. A local scalping firm closed out its trades and a second crop of wheat was expected to be known to be embarrassed. The market opened from 1/2c to 1c higher, and the wheat continued with slight fluctuations until the closing.

WITNESS QUICKLY REWARDED. A Little Act of Courtesy Sets a Chicago Traveling Man Fifty Thousand.

MENCI, Ind., June 9.—The kind act of a Chicago traveling salesman has been substantially rewarded. During the Danward meeting here two weeks ago, among those in attendance were Amber Fuller and wife, a feeble old couple from Amboy, O.
