

REMNANTS OF THE RACKET

Passenger Agents Are After the Scalpers that Bloomed in the Spring.

RUNNING A FEW TRAINS OF THOUGHT

Freight Men Waiting for War-Blowers' Appointment—More Sleepers Needed Between Chicago and Omaha—Peter Hollenbeck's Popularity.

Passenger agents of lines in the Western and transmissorial associations are endeavoring to conclude their sessions of yesterday by signing the agreement prepared last week. Should this agreement be signed it will be interesting to note the methods the roads will take to clear the market of all the ticket men and brokers. Some railroad men alleged that the Burlington and Rock Island roads have 2,000 such tickets in brokers' hands between Omaha and Chicago.

Even if the agreement is signed there is no certainty that it will be served, as it is already asserted that the Rio Grande is making a cent per mile rate from Colorado common points to Chicago in conjunction with the Rock Island.

As school commences come on and summer occupies the saddle heads of families are wondering if they will have to pay the present rate of $17.50 for a round trip to the World's fair and if five or six of the children are to go, many of the fathers are wondering just where the money is to come from.

Complaints are pouring in upon the general managers all over the country that rates are too high, but the railroad people show no disposition to reduce the present figures and so the matter rests. It is foolish, however, to believe that the present rates will be maintained throughout the summer, as most of the western roads fully realize that it would be suicidal to insist upon the strict enforcement of the agreement.

At best things are chaotic, to remain so until frost comes again.

Courtland Beach Line Opened.

Sixty days seems a very short time in which to grade, iron and thoroughly equip a motor railway, but the East Omaha people demonstrated yesterday what push will do by running the first train over the new line from Thirtieth and Locust streets, East Omaha, to Courtland Beach.

Two coaches made up the first train, motor and trailer Nos. 13 and 14, and they were filled with the company's officers and invited guests to make the initial trip, which was satisfactorily accomplished, the train making wonderfully good time, considering the new track and its recent surfacing.

After the grip when you are weak and "played out," Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your health and strength.

WOMEN WRANGLE.

Henson Has a Lively Little Gossipy Scandal of His Own.

The usually quiet suburb of Benson furnished an interesting case for Justice of the Peace Edgerton yesterday morning. The complaining witness was May Miller, and the defendants were Mrs. Dodson, postmistress at Benson, and her neighbor and friend, Mrs. Trapp.

It seems that Mr. Trapp has just been appointed a special policeman at Teutonic park, or 'Tietz' park, as it is better known, and Sunday was his first day in his new position. Word was conveyed to Mrs. Trapp Sunday night that her husband was gathering in all the perquisites that attached to his job, and that among other things was getting a sustaining questionable relations with the Miller girl.

HIT THE TRUSTS A RAIL.

Judge McConnell's Rolling In a Case Brought by the Preservers' Trust.

Chicago, June 13.—Judge McConnell today hit the trusts a hard rap, particularly the Preservers' trust, the so-called American Preservers' association. A corporation representing the trust is litigating with a recluse member of the trust, Andrew D. Bishop. In overruling the demurrer by the association, Judge McConnell said: "No court of record should lend its legal operations to further the interests and carry out the purpose of a trust. To my mind, the corporation known as the American Fruit Preservers' association is but the agent of a trust, and, as such, the same illegality attaches to it as to the principal concern.

As the case now stands the corporation has been granted three days in which to reply to Bishop. In case the association fails by its demurrer the case will be appealed to a higher court.

The Preservers' trust controls a majority of the gaming interests in Washington, Boston, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Liverpool and St. Louis. Its capital stock is about $2,000,000. It, however, has the privilege of increasing the capital stock at any time to $15,000,000.

Will Not Have Their Salaries Cut.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 13.—In the test case of the circuit court this forenoon of the State ex rel Stout against Henderson, Auditor of State, Judge Brown decided the fee and salary law of 1891 unconstitutional. "This is the law that placed nearly all the state and county officers of Indiana on salaries and reduced their compensation more than one-half.

MERIT REWARDED.

Exercises and Award of Prizes at Brownell Hall.

At Brownell Hall yesterday four bright and cultured young ladies passed from the confines of school life and all its tender memories and arduous tasks into the freedom and greater responsibilities of this wide wide world.

There have been few commencement days at Brownell Hall more auspicious or enjoyable than this. The weather was fine, the attendance large and the exercises passed off with the utmost precision and smoothness from first to last.

After a piano duet by Miss M. Hetzel and Miss Lydia Larson the audience listened to a very interesting paper read by Miss M. E. Baig of Omaha on "Soluble Elements of Nineteenth Century Science." The fair young reader touched skillfully the many great triumphs of modern science and predicted that the future held even greater victories in store for the persevering and thoughtful student of nature.

The following prizes were bestowed upon the successful students at the close of the commencement exercises: The Wallace prize for music, Miss Wancetta Bunting; Yale prize for grammar, Miss Winifred Cate; Hawkins prize for writing, Miss Grace Rowley; Hawkins prize for rhetoric, Miss May Hetzel; Wheeler prize for improvement, Mrs. M. A. M. Charlotta C. Smith; Whitmarsh prize for composition, Miss Louise Theisen; Chase prize for elocution, Miss May Hetzel; Wheeler prize for higher mathematics, Miss Edith Abbott; Kountze prize for language, Miss Edith Abbott; the bishop's prize for general excellence, Miss Helen Burnham.

The gold medals were bestowed as follows: Windsor medal, preparatory department, Jennie D. Baldwin; Max Meyer medal, for instrumental music, Fuchs; Doty; Adolph Meyer medal, for vocal music, Master Windsor Doherty; the Mrs. J. M. Cook medal, for history, Miss Edina Elmer; the Thomas low medal in literature, Miss Sarah Boen; Woolworth medal in scholarship, Miss Elizabeth McCracken; Williams medal for deportment and attendance of boarding school pupils, Miss Charlotta Debold.

When the essays were all read Dr. Doherty presented the four graduates with their diplomas and the vice president presented each of the graduates with a gold cross, the gift of Mrs. Bishop Worthington.

The members of the class then knelt upon the rostrum and Dr. Doherty supplicated the throne of grace in a very touching prayer beseeching God that He might guide and protect the young ladies all along the journey of life and lead them into ways of usefulness in this world and into eternal happiness into the world to come.

Busy people have no time, and sensible people have no inclination to use pills that make them sick a day for every dose they take. They have learned that the use of Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers does not interfere with their health by causing nausea, pain or griping. These little pills are perfect in action and result, regulating the stomach and bowels so that headaches, dizziness and lassitude are prevented. They cleanse the blood, clear the complexion and set up the system. Lots of health in these little fellows.

WILL FIGHT THE CHARGES.

Frank Dorsey Does Not Propose to Rest Under the Indictment.

Mr. Frank Dorsey, late of the First National bank of Ponca, now defunct, came to Omaha yesterday to arrange for his appearance in federal court upon a charge of having falsified the records of the bank for the purpose of deceiving the national bank examiner and of embezzling the funds of the bank while operating them in his own name.

Mr. Dorsey was cashier of the defunct bank of which his brother, Hon. George W. E. Dorsey, was president, and in the early stages of the bank's collapse it seems to be sweeping over the country the institution went to the wall in a miserable collapse.

It says that he will fight the charges from start to finish. Mr. Dorsey's bond was fixed at $5,000, and after giving good and satisfactory sureties for his appearance, he was permitted to go his way.

Following are the names on Mr. Dorsey's bond as being men worth over $5,000 each: William H. Beck, D. T. Glimmer, Wilbur P. Mahey, J. H. Bond. The following are also on the bond and are said to possess more than $1,000 each: W. A. Ance, J. M. O'Connell and Highland P. Lockner. Lockner, the clerk of the United States circuit court has certified to the statement that these men are good for the amounts for which they would be held in the event of Mr. Dorsey's failure to appear in court when wanted.

LOST THE LACE.

New York, June 13.—The disappearance of thirty pieces of lace from the exhibit Queen Margherita of Italy sent to the World's fair is unaccountable to the Italian Chamber of Commerce in city, to which the laces were consigned. C. Bertolino, secretary of the chamber, said: "The laces were in two trunks, which were sealed with the government seal and Queen Margherita's private seal. The trunks arrived here safely on the North German Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II. on her last trip to this country. I gave the seals a thorough inspection, and finding them intact I insured the laces for $50,000, and the trunks, still in bond, were forwarded through the Adams Express company to Chicago. The Countess di Brazza was the only person who had authority to open the trunks and is the only one who makes a full description of the valuable exhibit. It is certain that the seals on the trunks themselves were not molested before the trunks left this city, and I do not see how there could have been tampered with while in charge of the United States officials."

The Countess di Brazza was Miss Cora Slocum of New Orleans, daughter of a wealthy merchant, and is a first cousin of Cora Urquhart Potter.

ONE HONEST MAN.

An Iowa Finds Nineteen Diamonds at the Fair and Retains Them.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Vice President M. H. DeYoung of the national commission and editor of the San Francisco Chronicle came into Secretary Dickinson's office yesterday with a smile on his face and a small package in his hand.

"I had more faith in the honesty of the human race than I had last week," he began. "On Friday Mrs. DeYoung lost a diamond pin while going through one of the buildings here. I reported the loss as soon as she discovered the pin was gone, but had little hope of recovering it. This morning I got a notice from the lost and found bureau here, telling me to come around and claim the pin. I went and got it. To the pin was attached a card showing that it had been picked up by John Atkinson of Cedar Lake, Ia. He returned it to the office as soon as he found it, and here it is," Mr. DeYoung added as he unwrapped an ornamental set with nineteen diamonds. "I shall send a letter to Mr. Atkinson acknowledging his kindness and honesty in this matter, and if I ever have an opportunity to do him a favor, he will not be allowed to ask a second time for it."

Refer to Banks. If there is any institution that can be considered safe, it is a Building and Loan association. Those in Omaha are all known to be money makers. In the first place a person subscribes for as many shares of stock as he thinks he can conveniently carry; making payments monthly on the same. After three months, interest is paid on the amount invested, at the rate of 6 per cent, while no bank pays more than 4 per cent ordinarily; thus one can readily see where the Building and Loan association is superior to banks. Furthermore the rate of interest continually increases with time. There is no liability of a run on an institution of this kind and consequently depositors have a feeling of safety and security not guaranteed to them in any other line of investment. It is well worth investigating by everybody who has any desire to secure reliable investment for savings. The Bankers Building and Loan association, located in room 432 Bee building, offers the best of inducements to all classes of investors, whether they take two shares, paying $1.50 monthly, or a hundred shares, paying $75 monthly. There is no class of people, not even the day laborers, but who can invest a portion of their earnings in this substantial association if they will take the trouble to examine it.

Purloined a Pin. Upon complaint of L. McGinn, a tailor at Twelfth and Dodge streets, Detective Vizard arrested one Mary Riser yesterday for the larceny of a $50 diamond stud from the complainant.

According to the story told the police, the woman had been stopping at McGinn's shoe store time. Desiring to get to Kansas City, it is said she stole the diamond and pawned it for $5. The stone was afterwards recovered by Detective Vizard.

It was afterwards discovered that a couple named Seiffert were, in a measure, implicated, and accordingly Detective Vizard arrested them. After the arrest, Rosa Seiffert broke down and told the officers her story. She said that her husband was Benjamin that her home was in Neola, Kan. Seiffert had induced her to leave her husband and child and come with him.

Two or three weeks ago she returned home, her husband forgave her, she promised to be good, and after obtaining money came back to get her trunk. Again Seiffert's influence came into play and she decided to stop here awhile longer.

Yesterday she decided to go to Kansas City and the officer was anxious to accompany her, in order to raise the money the diamond had stolen.

Detective Vizard has charged Miss Riser with larceny and adultery. She will save her complaints against the Seifferts for adultery.

There are three things worth saving—Time, trouble and money—and Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers will save them for you. These little pills will save you time, as they act promptly. They will save you trouble as they cause no pain. They will save you money as they economize doctor's bills.

Falling in these, they'll take anything so it's a "snap." Men have been known to pretty near starve to death waiting for a "snap" rather than go to work and get a dollar by good hard licks.

There are several kinds of snaps—not counting the good old ginger snap. One is a job with nothing to do and lots of pay. Another is a chance to buy something that you actually need at a good deal less than you expected. We're offering a snap of this sort

IN CHEVIOT New York struck a man with a good many more cheviot suits, and not quite as much money, as he needed. They had the money—and they "struck a snap"—We place these suits on sale today—three full lines—elegantly made up—single and double-breasted—in blacks and blues—a much less than they're worth that they'll be 'snapped' up by good judges as quick as they see 'em. The first line are single-breasted sacks—all wool chevrots—blacks only—value twelve dollars—a snap at $8. The second line are fine all wool unfinished worsted chevrots—double-breasted—blues and blacks—value fifteen dollars—a snap at $9.75. The third line—finest all wool chevrots—single and double-breasted—blacks only—value sixteen to eighteen dollars—at $10.50. They're big "snaps"—are these
