AWAITING THE IDES OF JULY

Irresistable Magnetism Draws the Politicians to City Hall.

CANDIDATES FOR THE MAJOR'S BROGANS

Mon Who Are Willing and Anxious t Serve on the Board of Public Works -Some of the Strings That Are Being Pulled.

At the present time the city hall is the Mecca of city politicians. The office of Mayor Bemis is the most frequented corner The magnet that draws the politician there is a strong one and its force is irresistible. More frequently it is personal interests to be served that directs the footsteps of the manipulator of wires to his honor's quarters, but occasionally it is curiosity that prompts the visit. No matter what the circumstances, the politician drifts in and out during the day. This has been going on lively for a week, and before the eventful first Tuesday in July rolls around it will become a mad scramble for an audience with the mayor. Omaha's chief executive permits the latch string to dangle from the outside, and all string to dangle from the outside, and all comers are treated with courtesy and their words given due weight. Simmered down, it is a procession of appeals for the appointment of friends of those in line as members of the Board of Public Works.

The first Tuesday of July of each year brings with it a charter provision for a reorganization of the board. The mayor is the appointing power and the council the the appointing power and the council the confirming. Already there have been filed with Mayor Bemis nearly a score of ap-plications. The mayor listens to all, keeps his own counsel and when the proper comes his views on the matter will be made known in the shape of appointment. Where the Solution Lies.

There are two keys to the situation. is in the possession of the mayor, while the courts hold the second. There exists a question as to how many members shall be appointed. A case in court, which will be reached within the next week, will probably the matter when a decision is. This is a suit brought by Major Balcombe to recover increased salary as a member of the board. When the new char-ter became a law it was found that under its provisions the mayor should appoint one member each year subsequent to 1887. When the charter was sent to Lincoln it provided that three new members should be appointed in 1893, one for one, one for two and one for three years, and one mem-ber annually thereafter. A sleight of hand performance was successful in eliminating the figures 1893 and substituting 1887. One member was to be chairman at a salary of $2,500, another sewer commissioner and the third street commissioner at a salary of $2,000 each per year. This left the charter provision in a badly mixed state and many constructions have been placed upon it. City Attorney Connell took the position that the mayor should im-mediately designate the members to serve as sewer and street commissioners. Acting upon the attorney's surgestion the mayor made the designations to the council. Not a member of the council favored standing by the mayor, and that body refused to recognize Major Furay as sewer commissioner and Major Balcombe as street commis-sioner with an increased salary of $2,000 per year. The judiciary committee looked into the matter and reported that the designations should not be made until July, at which time the three majors would have to step down and out, as they were legislated out of the office. The majors went ahead and served according to Major Bemis' desig nation. When the pay roll came in and their names were there with the increased salary opposite the council promptly knocked the item out. This caused Major Balcombe to bring his suit, and as he expressed it, "not so much to secure the small amount in additional salary, but to establish the fact that the mayor's designation was proper, and that my tenure of office does not end in July of this year."

Waiting on the Court.

As, Mr. Connell had assumed an entirely different position than the members of the council, Judge Wakeley has been employed to appear and show that Major Balcombe should not have been designated at the time he was and that three new members of the board must be appointed the first Tuesday in July.

When the courts pass upon the matter

Mayor Bemis will then know without doubt whether one or three members are to be appointed. He is desirous of having the point at issue settled immediately. So are the numerous candidates.

The applicants represent men of all classes and conditions. Among the names mentioned in connection with the appointment are the following: J. H. Wiaspear, Charles Unitt, Dick Smith, W. J. Kennedy, ex-Councilman Bailey, George W. Tillson, Henry Cleburne, George M. Cooper, John G. Willis, William Mack, W. N. Nason and Curtiss Turner. Maior Birkhauser is also men-Turner. Major Birkhauser is also men-tioned to succeed himself. The name of Plumbing Inspector Duncan is also spoken of, but Mr. Duncan gives it out that he is not a candidate and is not seeking the position. The claims of each are being vigorously pushed all along the line. Mayor Bemis says he has nearly a score of names before him, but he maintains silence and does not give them out.

'Brace Up"
is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all treed out, weak, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's

Our silk trade for the past six months as been enormous. We have already sold more silks than we sold all of last year. Anticipating this great demand for silks we bought heavily, too heavily in fact, for we find our silk stock the heaviest in the house. Saturday we will commence a sale of silks that will eclipse in every way any silk sale that has ever taken place in the world. Not a piece of silk, satin or velvet in our entire stock will escape a reduction. Just what the reduction will be we have not decided upon yet. We are going through the stock now; today we will print full particulars. Wait for this sale and watch tomorrow's papers. N. B. FALCONER.

NICE SUMMER JOB.

Commissioners Giving Employment to Clerks Copying Some Outlawed Records. The county commissioners have just hit upon a scheme by which they will succeed in removing several thousand dollars from the treasury without replacing a corresponding amount or any portion thereof. In other words the commissioners have laid the plans for providing places for six or seven additional clerks. At the last session of the board a resolution was adopted, instructing the county clerk to purchase books, hire a force of clerks and at once out them at work, mak-ing a copy of the delinquent tax list from 1850 to 1991, inclusive. In addition to this, the resolution instructed him to order duplicate tax lists for the year 1893, that he may have an exact copy of the books in the office of the county treasurer, showing all of the lands and lots in the county, as well as all of the personal tax. These duplicate books are to be in the custody of the auditor, who has been instructed to have the vault in the office formerly occupied by the county surveyor renovated and put in shape for the safe keeping of the books.

The county treasurer will be compelled to make his receipts in triplicate instead of in duplicate, as at the present time, sending copies of the receipts, as well as copies of all warrants and lists, to the auditor once each week. The information is given out that this new plan of doing the county business is for the purpose of having and keeping a complete check upon the county treasurer. Some of the officials, however, look upon t as simply a move to put another lot of clerks on the pay roll.

The work of making up the delinquent list will require the hiring of a number of clerks for several months and will leave the books in the same condition as they are now in the treasurer's office, with the exception that the auditor will have a copy of the names of the men who failed to pay their personal tax during the territorial days of the county. All of this old tax is uncollectable and was dropped from the lists some years ago.

East From Chicago via Pennsylvania Lines to Mountain and Ocean Resorts. Advantages peculiar to the Pennsylvania lines make them the desirable thoroughfares from Chicago to Bedford Springs, Altoona, Ebensburg, or any of the delightful summer havens in the cool Allegheny mountains. By no other route can Cresson, the ideal retreat on the crest of that romantic mountain range, be reached, as the Pennsylvania is the only line direct to it, and the only one leading past the Pack Saddle and the Allegrippus, around the famous Horse Shoe curve and along the Blue Juniata, the richest of America's scenic gems. For reaching Atlan-tic City, Cape May, Asbury Park, Long Branch, Ocean Grove, Sea Girt, Elberon, Ocean Beach, Berkeley, Newport, Narragansett Pier, Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket, or any of the numerous watering places that dot the At-lantic seaboard, these lines are particu-larly desirable. For a trip to the Adrondacks, the Catskills and resorts in northeastern New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, exceptional facilities for a delightful journey are offered via this direct route, over which 6 fast through trains run daily to the east from Chicago, as follows: 9:45 a. m., 10:45 a. m., 3:15 p. m., 5 p. m. 7:30 p. m., 11:30 p. m. The ser-vice includes Pullman vestibule sleeping and dining cars. For details address Thos. H. Thorp, Traveling Passenger Agent, Davenport, Ia.

BRIDGE OF SIGHS.

County Commissioners Will Give it Their Attention Today.

The session of the Board of County Commissioners this morning promises to be a most interesting one. The business booked for it is the consideration of the First ward assessor's appraisement of the Union Pacific bridge.

The west one-half of the bridge is assessed in Douglas county at $105,000. The point where the Douglas county valuation begins is at the center of the suspension span and all of the portion west, and including the trestle work, is returned by the assessor.

A. W. Scribner, tax commissioner for the road, has filed a protest against the valuation, alleging that he returned the valuation at $80,000, and that it was raised to $105,000 by the assessor without the knowledge or coasent of any agent or representative of the company.

The county commissioners will hear testimony on the application for a reduction of the valuation and have summoned the witnesses to be present at 10 o'clock this morn-

The society has changed its by-laws so that exhibits can be made by persons from any part of the country, and premiums will be rewarded for all meritorious exhibits. A show creditable of Omaha cannot be made unless all of our merchants, manufacturers and business men interested will unlie in and business men interested will unite in making it a success. The merchants' show and parade of six years ago was a great success, bringing large numbers of people from outside the city, and materially benefit-ing the merchants and business interests of Omaha.

District Court Doings.
In the division of the district court presided over by Judge Hopewell, the case of Henry M. Leonard against the Hammond Packing company is on trial, the plaintiff seeking to recover $1,999.99 to compensate him for a broken rib. A year and a haif ago, the plaintiff was loading smoked meats into a car that was standing on the tracks in the vicinity of the storehouse, and on account of some ice that was on the platform he slipped and fell, sustaining the injuries heretofore mentioned James McGarvey, the man who sued the Omaha and Council Bluffs Bridge and Street $15,000 on account of personal injuries, which he sustained by falling from a moving car, got nothing when the jury returned the verdict yesterday, for the twelve men found for the defendant.

CRITICIZES THE COWBOY RACE. BUFFALO, Wyo., June 22 .- To the Editor of THE BEE: The cowboys' race to the World's fair from Chadron seems to us to be little eise than an advertising scheme for the benefit of Chadron and "Doc" Middleton. When entries were first invited, one of our most skillful and determined race riders, Charlie Simmons, an old-time cowpuncher, who owns and raises some of the best stock in the country, determined to compete. He sent the necessary entry fee, and put both himself and his horses into steady training for the expected race. Simmons is a horseman by birth, taste and training, a very light weight, and a bad man to beat over any course. His horses are well bred from good stock and to our thinking the interests of stock and to our thinking the interests of Wyoming were pretty safe in his hands. Others seem to have thought the same. About three weeks ago he received a letter from one H. Weir, the secretary of the race committee, returning his entry money, and politely regretting that the race would not be started. This was very disappointing, but the letter was then believed to be written in good faith. Just thirty-six hours or so before the race began, he received another polite fore the race began, he received another polite communication from the same Secretary Weir, saying that the race would take place after all and that entries would be accepted at the post. It was hoped that he would find it convenient to take part. The letter was dated June 2 and only reached Buffalo on June 11! Entirely too late for anything without wings to get to the starting place from Johnson county. Meanwhile certain other competitors, who apparently had the inside track, were in constant training and eventually started.

The whole affair, including the dramatic scene at the start, was cut and dried evidently for home consumption. Whether the $1,000 will be forthcoming we know not, but the prizes offered by Colonel Cody and the other premium givers are no doubt genuine. We learn from private sources that a rider from Kansas by the name of Stephens is likely to upset the name of Stephens is him success. Otherwise all respectable cow-punchers are liable to be classed with "Doc" Middleton as their representative.
