

THE DAILY BEE.

Published every morning. Terms of subscription: Daily, one year, $5.00; Weekly, one year, $1.00.

Offices: Omaha, The Bee Building, South Omaha, corner 5th and 9th streets.

All communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed to the editor.

Business Letters: All business letters and communications should be addressed to the Bee Publishing Company.

The Bee in Chicago: The Daily and Sunday Bee is on sale in Chicago at the following places.

Sworn Statement of Circulation: Geo. H. Teschler, Secretary of the Bee Publishing Company, does solemnly swear that the actual circulation of the Daily Bee for the week ending June 17, 1893, was as follows.

Table with 2 columns: Date and Circulation. Rows include Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Average Circulation for May, 1893, 24,417.

There is a volume of suggestion in the fact that many of the leading southern newspapers are denouncing the vandalism on the field of Gettysburg.

There is a noticeable falling off in the number of Nebraska democrats who are at the national capital shaking the political plum trees.

Governor Lewelling of Kansas has seen proper to contradict the report that he went to the World's fair in a special car.

The statement that Commissioner Lochran is lopping pensioners from the rolls at the rate of fifty per day at the Topeka agency may be taken with a few grains of allowance.

Congressman Bryan has been in Georgia decanting upon the beauties of an income tax.

The intimation that THE BEE is persistently slandering "the good people of Lancaster county" is false.

According to the showing of the bank clearings of the country as tabulated by Bradstreet's, business generally has undergone a great shrinkage.

Considering the limited compensation attaching to the federal offices in Wyoming it is difficult to understand why there should be so earnest an effort in the attempt to secure them.

Hon. Bartlett Trapp at the United States legation at Vienna has more potent influence with the administration than Senator Kyle and the whole batch of South Dakota democrats.

Irrigation is becoming a matter of interest in every region where artificial moisture may be utilized.

THE AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY.

The controversy now pending between the state auditor of public accounts and one or two of the appointive agents of the state over the matter of adjusting claims against the treasury is exciting more or less interest.

It may be unnecessary to quote the decisions of the supreme court upon a point which ought to be already thoroughly understood.

There is a volume of suggestion in the fact that many of the leading southern newspapers are denouncing the vandalism on the field of Gettysburg.

There is a noticeable falling off in the number of Nebraska democrats who are at the national capital shaking the political plum trees.

Governor Lewelling of Kansas has seen proper to contradict the report that he went to the World's fair in a special car.

The intimation that THE BEE is persistently slandering "the good people of Lancaster county" is false.

According to the showing of the bank clearings of the country as tabulated by Bradstreet's, business generally has undergone a great shrinkage.

Considering the limited compensation attaching to the federal offices in Wyoming it is difficult to understand why there should be so earnest an effort in the attempt to secure them.

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

Apert altogether from the question of the army bill, or from any results to which it may immediately lead, the destruction of the party of which Eugene Richter was the leader by the accession of his supporters to the socialist party of the one hand and to the conservatives on the other is the most disappointing feature of the German political situation.

It is impossible to say what views the present administration may have on this subject or what the next congress may be disposed to do respecting it.

The financial views of Senator Hill of New York are not of very great importance, but his statement as to the position of the senate regarding proposed silver legislation may be.

The illness of President Carnot excited grave apprehension in France. Since the retirement of President Griev in 1887 he has been a conservative force in every ministerial catastrophe and political crisis.

The recent statement of Mrs. Mary Lease, that there is not gold enough in the United States to fill the decayed teeth of the old women within its borders, may be suggestive of the territorial wilds.

Fruits of Republican Policy. In 1883 the total of United States bonds held in Europe was $657,000,000. It is estimated that the amount of bonds sent abroad that $1,500,000 of the national securities are held abroad.

The Turn in the Tide. The Globe-Democrat. Seldom has a more marked improvement in the business situation occurred in a single week than has taken place in the past six or seven days.

Straining a Point. Boston Journal. Assistant Secretary Hamlin's ruling that tin plate is not American tin plate if the black sheets which enter into its composition are imported is an important one.

One Touch of Nature. When the bodies of Prussian soldiers who fell in the war of 1870, just over the French border at Stail, were removed to German soil and buried at Gravelotte, on Saturday, several remnants of French troops were drawn up in a hollow square.

THE CLEARING BUSINESS.

The northwest is in good to prime feeling over a fair crop and prospects for largely improved fall prices.

Shake Off the Leeches. The republican party in Nebraska is just as strong as it ever was and the people believe in its principles just as much as they ever did.

CONTRACTOR.

OMAHA, June 23.—To the Editor of The Bee: Thursday evening's Bee said of the repeal of the Sherman device that it might be followed by a damaging contraction of the circulation.

Hawaii Up to Date. The provisional government of Hawaii has made public what it declares to be a document signed on January 31 by the deposed Queen Liliuokalani, empowering Paul Newman as her agent to treat with the United States.

COMICAL CONFESSIONS. Emira Gazette: Passenger—Is this a fast engine?—Fast! Well, I guess—it smokes, chugs and goes off on a foot.

Chicago Tribune: "What's the matter, old chappie?" exclaimed Tholy. "What's the matter with you, old chappie?" said Tweedly, faintly.

Chicago Tribune: "What's the matter, old chappie?" exclaimed Tholy. "What's the matter with you, old chappie?" said Tweedly, faintly.

Chicago Tribune: "What's the matter, old chappie?" exclaimed Tholy. "What's the matter with you, old chappie?" said Tweedly, faintly.

Chicago Tribune: "What's the matter, old chappie?" exclaimed Tholy. "What's the matter with you, old chappie?" said Tweedly, faintly.

Chicago Tribune: "What's the matter, old chappie?" exclaimed Tholy. "What's the matter with you, old chappie?" said Tweedly, faintly.

Chicago Tribune: "What's the matter, old chappie?" exclaimed Tholy. "What's the matter with you, old chappie?" said Tweedly, faintly.

THE UNROLLING IN PARIS.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

The unrolling in Paris of a statue to the ophrate Renaudot, the founder of the Gazette de France, has directed attention to the history of that journal, which is said to be the oldest newspaper in the world.

THE NICEST AND MOST NATURAL.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

The finest, purest, strongest and best flavors for cakes, puddings, pastry, etc., are Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts.

BROWNING, KING & CO. Largest Manufacturers and Retailers of Clothing in the World. A Good thing in a waist. We're going to sell them. The quickest way to do it is to have a run. If we don't have a run on waists the coming week it will be because the ladies of Omaha don't know values.