The archdiocese of Baltimore has had but nine Roman Catholic archbishops, and three of them were converts from the Protestant Episcopal church. The people called the "Mennonites" are building a college in Newton, Kan., to cost

$75,000. They are a careful and thrifty peo-ple, and will incur no debt. When they run short of money they stop work until more is raised. Cardinal Gibbons will celebrate his silver jubilee on Sunday. October 14. It is expected that most of the dignitaries of the church in the United States will participate in the elebration. It is stated that 500 persons have been converted and ten Baptist churches and eight Sunday schools established, through the agency of the mission car presented by John D. Rockefeller to the American Baptist Publication society.

The unusual spectacle of three congrega-tions of different creeds holding services in one edifice was presented in Long Island City last Sunday, when the paristioners of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church and the congregations of the Baptist and Second Methodist churches of that town all wor-shiped in the East Avenue Baptist church.

The Presbyterian church has a very important mission in Hangkok, Siam, which the French are about to beleaguer. There are two stations in Bangkok with property valued at about $25,000. There are twenty missionaries in the city connected with the board, of whom twelve are women, and three more are just leaving this country. The first mission in Bangkok was established

He is a tall, broad shouldered man, 69 years old, with a plentiful brown beard, now tinged with white, and is fond of bliards, bowling and tricycling. He has been settled over the Elmira church since 1854, and has made it a power in the com-

He does not resemble President Grover Cleveland. He is of much lighter build and almost spare in figure. An easy, cheery expression and light voice further add to the dissimilarity, which is continued by a short grayish beard and thin dark hair, with a forelock that might be made Napo-leonic if desired. The minister is 4 or 5 years older than the president.

The bishop of New Jersey has forbidden the women of his church choirs to wear vestments. The vestments are worn by several women choirs in New York city, notably St. Bartholomew's and St. George's. The long black cassocks and white cotters are rather impressive, while the wearing of the little cap is, of course, in accordance with the ancient tradition that women must not appear with uncovered heads in the churches.
The strictly correct covering, however, is the band about the forehead, to which is fastened a long black veil to be thrown back over the head.
