

ROBBED OF HER FORTUNE

Miserable failure of a Nebraska Woman's Matrimonial Ventures. DESERTED BY HER SECOND HUSBAND

Home and Money Disappear at the Same Time—Pathetic Story of Mrs. Charles McCormack—Left penniless with Two Children.

Lincoln, Aug. 14.—(Special to The Bee.)—A case of kleptomania by a designing husband and an unsuspecting wife's despair was reported to the police today and is exciting general comment in Lincoln.

The woman, who today realized that she had been deceived by her husband, is Mrs. Charles McCormack, and the man in the case is a traveling representative for the Chicago Mill company, or rather he was at the time of their marriage, but he is not recognized by that company now.

Mrs. McCormack was formerly the wife of a man named Gellay, an employe of the Burlington company. Gellay was some time ago severely injured by an accident in the yards, and after considerable litigation received from the company the sum of $3,000 as damages.

Her husband, who was already owned the home in which they lived and they would have undoubtedly lived happily together had not an unfortunate quarrel stepped in between them.

The four children of Rev. S. D. Roberts, who committed suicide at Crab Orchard Saturday afternoon, went to Beatrice this morning to attend the funeral, which was held in that city yesterday.

Chief Justice Maxwell has gone to Chicago for a two weeks visit among the wonders of Jackson park.

Interested attorneys are notified by the clerk of the supreme court that the time for filing cases for the next term's docket will expire on August 22.

The local lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows have taken the initiative in a movement which may end in a monster Old Fellows excursion to the World's fair.

George Soule, the Omaha convict at the state penitentiary who is still lingering between life and death, was taken from his cell this forenoon to Tabitha home in this city, where he may die a free man.

The Board of Public Lands and Buildings has concluded to dispense with the electric lamps which, from their lofty eminence on the dome of the capitol, light the way for belated pedestrians.

Superintendent Gouley is in Daws and Keya Paha counties this week. Last week he visited institutions in five different counties.

Excursion trains will be run from surrounding towns and a large crowd is expected.

SEMPATORS HAVE AN INNING

The silver debate was then resumed. Mr. Hoar, democrat of Louisiana, was in the chair, and he opened from the silver standpoint and charged that the advocates of the Wilson bill—the gold men of the democratic party and of the republican party—were responsible for the excitement, which had created the destruction of public confidence and which had caused the runs upon banking institutions.

Mr. Warner, democrat of New York, said the democratic members had intended to carry out the pledge.

Mr. Hoar was delighted to hear this statement. The speaker then proceeded to repeat a cowardly makeshift, and no more. He declared that the democratic party had pledged itself to bimetalism, and that they will give the gambling houses no quarter.

Mr. Lanyon, democrat of Ohio, would vote for the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman bill. He said he had, however, relying upon the good faith of the administration and the democratic congress that in the coming regular session permanent legislation would be enacted that would give all our people some suitable money worth $1.00 all the world around.

Mr. Patterson, populist of Kansas, read a speech made by the gentleman from Tennessee during the first session of the Fifty-second congress, in which that gentleman advocated the repeal of the gold standard.

FOUND A CAPTAIN'S CORPSE

Ghastly Discovery of Three Boys Who Rowing on the River. MYSTERIOUS DROWNING OF H. V. RUSSELL

The dead body of a man about 50 years of age was discovered floating in the Missouri river at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, near the foot of Harney street. The discovery was made by three boys named Gus Powell, Frank Koeber and Charles Kubat.

A gold watch, chain and charm, the latter consisting of an English sovereign, identified the unfortunate seaman as Captain H. Vernon Russell, an Englishman who had been stopping at the Brunswick hotel since last December with occupation of the last six weeks, during which time he has been living at the Bachelors' quarters on Farnam street, waiting for a surgical operation to be performed upon one of his feet.

Identified by His Relatives. Inquiry at the Brunswick hotel elicited the fact that the captain, H. V. Russell and wife, were boarding at that hostelry.
