

of the slave trade and the restriction of cer- tain injurious commerce in the independent states of the Congo and in the adjacent parts of Central Africa, the United States and the other signatory powers agreed to adopt appropriate means for the punishment of persons selling arms and ammunition to the inhabitants of these states...

Lesson of the Weeks Affair.

Costa Rica has lately testified its friendliness by surrendering to the United States, in the absence of a convention of extradition but upon duly submitted evidence of criminality, a noted fugitive from justice, a man trusted that the negotiation of a treaty with that country to meet recurring cases of this kind will soon be accomplished.

Relations with European Powers.

Our relations with the French republic continue to be intimate and cordial. I sincerely hope that the extradition treaty with that country, as amended by the senate, will be speedily ratified.

Samoa's Bad Precedent.

Led by a desire to compose differences and contribute to the restoration of order in Samoa, the United States has been the scene of conflicting foreign pretensions and native strife, the United States, in a century of observation, entered four years ago into the treaty of Berlin, thereby becoming jointly bound with England and Germany in respect to Samoa.

Changes in Diplomatic Service.

Since the passage of the act of March 3, 1883, authorizing the president to raise the grade of our envoys to correspond with the rank in which foreign countries accord their agents, the United States has conferred upon its representatives in this capital the title of ambassador and I have responded by accepting the title of ambassador.

Receipts and Expenditures.

The secretary of the treasury reports that the receipts of the government from all sources during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1893, amounted to $450,374,674.39. There was collected from customs $205,355,916.74 and from internal revenue $197,252,758.71.

Cost of Silver Purchase.

The purchase of silver under the law of July 14, 1890, during the last fiscal year, aggregated 54,008,102.50 fine ounces which cost $45,881,574.53. The total amount of silver purchased in the United States since the passage of the act of July 14, 1890, is $1,124,494,347.

Bank Crashes of the Year.

One hundred and nineteen national banks were organized during the year ending October 31, 1893, with a capital of $119,000,000. Forty-six went into voluntary liquidation and 159 suspended. Sixty-five of the suspended banks were insolvent, eighty-six were liquidated and twenty-one were reorganized.

Results of Silver Report.

The recent repeal of the provision of law requiring the purchase of silver bullion by the government as a feature of our monetary scheme has made an entire change in the complexion of the currency market. I do not doubt that the ultimate result of this action will be most salutary and far-reaching.

that had done by those representing us, and to restore, as far as practicable, the status quo in the interest of the community. With a view of accomplishing this result within the constitutional limits of executive power, and recognizing all obligations of honor, the president has brought about by his unjustifiable interference, our present minister to Honolulu has received appropriate instructions to that end.
