PECKHAM is causing a peck of trouble for both his friends and his foes.

NOT even in the ratio of passes to paid admissions will the Midwinter fair yield the palm to its Columbian predecessor.

THE Union Pacific receivers have no reason to find fault with the judicial cut of salaries. They still remain in condition to keep the wolf from the door.

THE proposal of the Bell Telephone company to increase its capital stock to $30,000,000 may be taken as a pretty sure indication that that company proposes to go into politics.

IT REMAINS to be seen whether the income tax sop to the populists will serve to bring the populist support in the senate to the president's policy of making federal appointments.

NO PROPOSALS for the coming issue of bonds seem to have been withdrawn as yet by the threats of injunctive proceedings to restrain the secretary of the treasury from accepting them.

THERE is but little hope for serious competition in the matter of public telephone rates. The Bell company will doubtless control the telephone business in the United States for many years.

WHEN Emperor William proceeds to return the visit just made him by Prince Bismarck we may expect to see the ex-chancellor try, if possible, to outdo the recent lavish hospitality of the emperor.

THIS is the last week of the tariff agony as far as the house is concerned. It is to be hoped that the senate will waste no time in either accepting or rejecting the bill.

EIGHT years seem to have brought about a marked change of sentiment in the mind of Senator Hill. Then he went on record with the statement that the president should be unhampered by senatorial interference in making appointments.

THE loss to the Nebraska Wesleyan university by the fire visitation yesterday morning is to be deplored, even if it will not cripple that institution.

AN OMAHA preacher having answered the question why young men stay away from church satisfactorily to himself proposes now to find out why young women do likewise.

THE Iowa legislature announces that it is ready to tackle the Russian thistle and to proceed to demolish it by means of radical legislation.

THE quick recovery of the Sugar trust from the assault of the stock brokers immediately after the action of the house in placing raw and refined sugar on the free list proves conclusively that that great monopoly is not to be frightened even by the prospect of free sugar.

UTAH'S prospects of early admission to the union are daily brightening, and its years of patient waiting now promise the expected reward.

A SECTIONAL DEMAND.

That veteran democrat, General Sikes of New York, said in the house of representatives a few days ago, referring to the income tax proposition, that he regretted to see a drift in the debate toward the idea that the wealth of the north and east should be subjected to peculiar charges for the support of the government.

The practical men of the National Board of Trade could plainly see these things. They understand that the American agricultural producer, already hard pressed to make ends meet, will be placed at a still greater disadvantage when he encounters unrestricted Canadian competition in his home markets.

NO FEAST AND NO FAMINE. The outbreak of spasmodic charity which has been worked up in this city within the past few days by emotional appeals for "immediate relief" bodes no good to the multitude of destitute people.

IN another week the reaction will set in. The feast will be over and there is danger that many will go hungry. And if a three days blizzard should set in, which is likely to happen any time within the next six weeks, or even in the latter part of March, we may witness some terrible suffering.

THE expiration of the principal telephone patents has raised the expectations of the numerous patrons of the telephone that the monopoly will soon be broken, with beneficial results in the way of improved service and cheaper prices.

AS TO CANADIAN TRADE. The National Board of Trade, in session at Washington last week, adopted a resolution proposing an amendment to the tariff bill with a view to enlarging trade with Canada on reciprocity lines.

THE unexpected opposition of Richard Croker, the Tammany chieftain, to the income feature of the Wilson bill has a sinister significance which the democratic majority in congress will disregard to its sorrow.

INTEREST in the tariff debate this week will be somewhat overshadowed by the projected contest in the United States supreme court over the legality of Secretary Carlisle's proposed bond issue.

IF THE contest between Senator Hill and the president continues much longer it will soon be necessary for Nebraska laborers in the democratic vineyard to forward their petitions for place to the New York senator.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report. Royal Baker's Powder. ABSOLUTELY PURE.

Foreign or Domestic. It makes but little difference to the purchasers, but when the Lewis full fashioned underwear, that sells never for less than $3.50 to $4.50 a piece, goes at a straight $2 a garment; or when Dr. Warner's well known health underwear that retails for $5 and $6 a suit goes for only $1.50 a garment—then it does make a difference. We won't do it long, because we'll be sold out—then we won't buy any more—can't afford to sell such fine goods and sell them at such ruinous prices for any length of time.

NEBRASKA AND NEBRASKANS.

J. M. Snyder has been elected president of the Sherman County alliance.

TO advertise Butte and Boyd counties the Butte Gazette urges the resurrection of the defunct board of trade.

THE ONLY TRUE TEST. T. W. Blackburn, who has been appointed city prospector by Mayor Bemis, has resided in Omaha almost continuously for nearly eighteen years.

THE town of Maynard has a budding sensation. When the town was started a few months ago, Mrs. Hayt opened a barber shop, and all the male population for miles around flocked to her chair to be shaved.

THE question of irrigation is being brought to the attention of the people of the west with a force never before equaled. In most of the western counties of this state local organizations have been perfected and public agitation of the question has been widespread.

OLD WINE AS A PEACEMAKER.

Boston Globe: Prince Bismarck and Emperor William are to meet and kiss with a smack that will be heard all over Europe.

WASHINGTON Star: The present of a bottle of wine from the emperor of Germany to Bismarck may be merely a ruse to shake his popularity with the German temperance vote.

PHILADELPHIA Times: In their coming fight against Bismarck, the emperor and the emperor: "I bow to the popular will," and Wilhelm will answer: "I Otto say the same."

CHICAGO Journal: Hech: The compliments of the season, and will Prince Bismarck accept the distinguished consideration of Emperor Wilhelm and a bottle of rare old Rhine wine?

CHICAGO Times: Emperor William and Bismarck having kissed and made up, there might be hope for the reconciliation of Cleveland and Hill if the president had the German emperor's sense.

CHICAGO Herald: The effect will be gracious on the national spirit of Germany; and if, as reported, it was Crisp, restored to membership in Rome, who brought it about, the motive will be found in an invigorated domestic policy in the lending of money enough by German bankers to get the measure of a lottery ransy into at least temporary working order.

CINCINNATI Commercial: The reconciliation between the Kaiser and Prince Bismarck does not necessarily mean that the "old man of blood and iron" is again to be intrusted with the reins of government.

CHICAGO Post: William is full of surprises, but he has furnished none that compares in novelty with this. If the founder of the Great Republic had known that the fires of resentment which have flamed fiercely for four years against whom he styled "that presumptuous boy," then his has at last been put to a use which even Neal Dow would not condemn.

THE BEE FITS IN FIGURES.

Just to show its readers how much they are getting the best of it The Bee has again made a comparison of the amount of reading matter in The Bee, the World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal of yesterday. The figures follow:

Table comparing reading matter in The Bee, World-Herald, and Lincoln Journal. Columns include paper name, page count, and word count.

One year ago the Nebraska legislature passed a maximum freight rate measure. While the bill was not all that had been hoped for and was no doubt faulty in some respects, yet it was a move in the right direction and the people in general rejoiced that it had become a law.

THE provisions of the proposed income tax bill, relating to the taxation of the revenues of corporations, would seriously encroach upon the rights of the citizen.

THE OMAHA Bee is walking right along in its usual industrial path and furnishing the people of Nebraska as reliable news as ever. The plague of a fly bothereth not the busy Bee.

POINTED REMARKS. Boston Transcript: The tattoo artist has designs on his customers.

Buffalo Courier: The outcome of a man's courtship nowadays is largely dependent upon his income.

Philadelphia Record: A Maine man smoked a cigar with a slot machine and fell dead. Man-silof-er!

Binghamton Republican: A street car conductor knows what the wild waves are saying when he sees a woman wear her parasol.

Indianapolis Journal: Wants—Do you suppose these men are going to remain in their present positions from some other world?

Pitts—From the way they blaze, I should say that they must come from the next world.

Haver's Wizard: Pat—That be that ye are drinkin' beer yer whisky? Mike—Apollinaris, Pat. Mike—As if me fur wot aselap!

Washington Star: "Does literature pay," asked the tailor. "Husband—Give it up. It seems to be trying to manufacture a word about twenty syllables long." Young Wife—Isn't that lovely! He'll be a great scientist some day!

Indianapolis Journal: "My dear youth," said a woman to a young man, "did you not know that you were playing marbles for keeps was something?" "No, ma'am," replied the young man, "I was only playing the small boy in great astonishment. 'My, I always thought gambling was something wicked.'"
