Announcement.

The wholesale bankrupt dry goods stock of J. H. Walker & Co. of Chicago has been selling at auction during the past three days. Our Mr. Joseph Hayden has been on the ground, and has purchased the pick of the stock at surprisingly low prices. The ready cash has commanded the situation, and we will be enabled to place before Omaha people this elegant stock of high class dry goods at prices that will be a revelation to economical buyers,

The goods are coming in on every train and will be placed on sale as fast as they are unpacked

First installment goes on sale tomorrow morning.

Watch for the prices that will be quoted on these goods.

in the stock, and we have the cream of it.

READY FOR BUSINESS IN THER ENLARGED DEPTS.

The wash Dress Goods stock has been moved and double the space given to this department on account of the increasing trade. We were com-peiled to add more space and carry larger stock. We are informed by men who travel all over this country that our stock of wash dress goods is States. We are told by ladies in this city who have been shopping around that our stock is larger than all the rest combined in Omaha. These assertions seem broad, but hearing them repeated so often there must be some truth at tached to them.

We invite every lady in this city and state to inspect our stock, look over our display and then judge for themselves.

We are the first to display the imported novelties in Brochet Crepe, Figured Crepe in plain colors, Cotton Bengaline in light or dark ground work, Brocaded and Fancy Printed novelties in French, English and Domestic Satin, French, Scotch and Domestic Zephyrs in light shades, satine stripes and lace work, new printed designs in India Linon, Irish Lawn, Dimities, etc.

We are the only house in Omaha where you find the "Japanette," an English fabric. Duck Suiting, new styles in crinkled effects, Pongees, Cambrics, Percales, Gingham and Prints. In fact, you will admit this to be the most complete assortment you ever had the pleasure of looking over, and prices you will find lower than any previous season.
