IMPORTANT POINT INVOLVED

Test Case to Be Made of a Suit by Walnut

Hill Property Owners.

As early as the summer of 1889 the residents of Walnut Hill conceived the idea that they wanted the streets in front of their property graded, and in July, 1890, S. D.

Mercer and others petitioned the city council, asking that nine streets be brought to an established grade, the work to be performed under the three-fifths clause of the city charter and without cost to the city. A few weeks later the final ordinance was passed and in December of that year the contract was awarded to Katz & Callahan at the rate of 14% cents per cubic yard. The next year the work was completed and the council passed upon the final estimates from the office of the Board of Public Works, aggre-gating the sum of $29,168. This tax was carried to the books of the city treasurer and an attempt was made to collect the tax. On March 12, 1892, and about the time of the tax becoming delinquent, C. D. Hutchinson and number of the other residents and prop erty owners in Walnut Hill Joined in a peti-tion which was filed in the district court asking that the city be restrained from col-lecting the tax, alleging that the city changed the grade of the streets without first securing the consent of the petitioners who originally signed for the grading. At the time a temporary restraining order was granted and the matter was hung up until

In defending the suit the city contends that on the whole the proceedings were regular; that the property owners all knew of the change of grade and that the work was being performed under the terms of the original ordinance; that they sat back and watched the grading, kicking only when the grading was finished and when they were asked to pay for the same, which was nothing but an honest debt, contracted with their full knowledge and consent. City Attorney Connell in speaking of the matter stated that it was simply a case where some wealthy property owners had got permission to grade the streets in front of their property, and after the work was performed they wanted to sneak out of Ponca Bank Troubles.

When C. W. Davis of this city died, on June 4, 1887, he was the owner of a large block of stock in the First National bank of Ponca, this state. That stock, like the balance of the property, went to the heirs and the legatees in the will. Some months ago the Ponca bank falled and went into the hands of Albert Watkins, who was appointed receiver. Not long ago the comptroller of the treasury of the United States ordered an assessment of $100 per share upon all of the stock of the bank.

The result of this was the asking the heirs of the Davis estate to contribute the sum of $5,000 toward helping out the creditors of the bank. Yesterday the matter was called up in the county court, where the receiver asked for the privilege of filing the claim. This was grauted, but it means a legal fight, as the heirs claim that the estate is not liable to the creditors of the bank. The attorneys will hear proof upon the subject and John Steel, G. W. Holbrook and J. H. Parrotte Ordinance Passed Designating Jefferson Square as Site for Market House.

ANOTHER APPOINTMENT KNOCKED OUT

Council Does Not Want Dick Smith for Building Inspector - Fire Limits Ordinance Considerably Modified Central Labor Union's Protest.

The market house is to be erected on Jefferson square, for the council last evening passed the ordinance designating it a site for that purpose. Hascall renewed his opposition to it and alleged legal obstacles, but the ordinance was passed by the following vote: Ayes-Bechel, Bruner, Burkley, Cahn, Elsasser, Holmes, Jacobsen, McAndrews, Saunders Specht, Thomas, Mr. President-12. Nays-Back, Hascall Jemly, Parker-4.

The mayor vetoed a portion of the repair bill of the Barber Asphalt company because It was sought to pay it from the general fund, when there was still sufficient in the curbing, clearing and guttering fund . The Comptroller Olsen presented a letter from the Board of Public Works refusing to en dorse the bill of Mr. Woodburn, forme assistant secretary of the board, for $150 for services from November 20, 1893, to January 20, 1894, for the reason that Mr. Woodburn tioned. Elsasser then secured the passage of another amendment cutting out the territory bounded by Pierce, Eighteenth, Twenty-fourth and a line 132 feet south of Leaven-worth. This was opposed by Hascall, and when the amendment carried he declared that it would invalidate the whole ordinance and moved that it be recommitted to the committee on judiciary. It was so ordered. ORDINANCES DISPOSED OF

The following ordinances were read a first and second time and referred or laid over under the rules:

To repeal the ordinance ordering the opening of Twenty-Fourth street from Cass to Twentieth to Twenty-first; to open Locust from Twentieth to Twenty-fourth; to open Thirty-seventh from Ames avenue to Sprague; to open Thirteenth from the center line of section 15 to Ohio street; to open Seven teenth from Castellar to Vinton; to open Phelps from Thirteenth to Fourteenth; to open Sprague from Thirty-sixth to Forty-second; to open Twenty-sixth south from Hickory; to open Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth from Boyd to Sprague; to open Twenty-zeventh avenue from Burdette to the north line of Latey's sub; to open Newton, from Davenport's sub, to Thirtleth; to open Fort, from Twentyfourth to the north boulevard; to widen the alley between Leavenworth and Marcy from Thirty-first to Thirty-second; to open an alley between Jones and Leavenworth from Twenty-second to Twenty-fourth; to open and extend Thirty-sixth street from Center to the south city limits; to grade the alloy between Maple and Corby from Thirtysecond to Thirty-third.

The following ordinances were read third time and passed: Widening Twenty fifth street from Cuming to Indiana avenue; creating sewer district No. 198 in Millard Place; changing grade of Thirty-until street from Grand to Fowler avenue; desig nating Jefferson square as a site for a mar ket house; to grade alley between Burt an Cuming from Thirty-first to Thirty-third street; to repave South Tenth street from Mason to Williams; to change grade of Hickory street from Second to Sixth street; regulating the dumping of ashes inside the

Made a Novel Escape.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.-Details have reached iere of the escape from the Chester, Ill., prison of Joseph S. Hardin, the Centralia III., train robber, sent up for twenty years. It seems that Hardin, from the time he stepped into the penitentiary at Chester, began to cultivate friendship with the trusty convicts who were employed as cart drivers. He became a fast friend of one of these, and yesterday the cart driver permitted him to jump late the vehicle and, lying down on the bottom of the bed, the trusty driver loaded the cart with clay, completely cover-ing the form of the train robber. When the cart was loaded the trusty drove out of the gates of the penitentiary and, arriving at the gates of the pententary and, arriving at the river bank, where a dump had been established for the purpose of strengthening the levee, Hardin was dumped with the clay down the embankment and into the river, and it is thought that by prearrangement there was a skiff near at hand into which he tumped and was rowed beyond the reach and jumped and was rowed beyond the reach and sight of the authorities. Overpowered the Guard. LOCKHART, Tex., Feb. 20.-The prisoners in the county fail overpowered the guard

GIRLS PASSED BAD MONEY. Phought to Be Connected with a Counterfeiting Gang and Were Locked Up. In the past two weeks the police have had complaints that two girls were in the busiiess of passing counterfelt money and that they were in some way connected with a gang which has been making it for a year r more, but where it was located could not be learned, nor has the plant as yet been unearthed.

A woman named Green, who keeps a bakery at 616 South Thirteenth street, was the immediate cause of the arrest of the girls. She has suffered a loss on several occasions by having counterfeit money passed on her and as far as she could learn it was the same party in each case. She in some way learned that the young woman who passed the money lived near the shot tower and she notified the police. Nothing was done about the matter at the time, but last place and pubreased goods to the value of 15 cents and tendered in payment $1. received 85 cents in change and left. Green then notified the police and said she they who lived near the shot tower. The police visited the house indicated by Mrs. Green and arrested Carrie Hart on the charge of passing counterfeit money. The mother of Carrie was not going to submit to the arrest of her daughter and showed fight. The girl was taken and locked up. She absolutely refused to talk beyond say ing that the money was passed on her by some woman whom she did not know.

After her arrest, Mr. Harrison, who keeps a cigar store at 702 South Thirteenth, said she was the one who went to his place very frequently, purchased 10 cents tobacco, gave him a dollar in exchange and went out leaving the tobacco on the counter. This money was also found to be counterher on several of the expeditions, was not arrested as no one could be found who could
