

FURNISHED A QUORUM

Democrats at Last Succeed in Taking Up the Contested Election Cases.

NEEDED THE SPEAKER'S VOTE, HOWEVER

Republicans Make Another Attempt to Defer Consideration.

JOY'S PLACE IN CONGRESS UNCERTAIN

His Democratic Opponent Will in All Probability Be Seated.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RULES

Two Hours Allowed for Discussing the Merits of the Cases Now Before the House.—Mr. Reed's Argument for Further Time.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—When the speaker's gavel fell today there were less than eighty members on the floor. The house proceeded with some routine business, pending a report expected from the rules committee for the disposition of the contested election cases of O'Neill against Joy and English against Hibborn.

Letters from the secretary of the treasury and attorney general were transmitted, asking for additional appropriations for the secret service and the United States courts. Mr. Outwate of Ohio, from the committee on rules, reported a rule limiting debate to two hours each on the two election cases, the final vote then to be taken. Mr. Outwate demanded the previous question on the adoption of the rule.

Mr. Reed made the point of no quorum. The vote resulted 170 yeas and 1 nay, one more than a quorum. The speaker voted in the affirmative. The result was greeted with applause. This is the first time for a week the democrats have had a quorum.

Mr. Reed criticized the disposition made through these cases without discussion. He said the purpose of the republicans had been to call attention to the action of the house and the country being in the habit of paying little attention to election cases.

Mr. Outwate replied by saying that more time for discussion had been granted than had been offered. He also reviewed the action of the Fifty-first congress on election cases and pointed out the quick manner in which cases were disposed of.

Mr. Reed moved to commit the rule, with instructions to report a rule allowing further time. The speaker was inclined to think this the better course.

Mr. Reed argued the case on technical grounds. He contended the motion to recommit was equivalent to a proposition to amend. Amendments were not in order after the previous question had been asked.

Mr. Outwate moved to recommit the rule and argued that the republicans had secured a majority in the house. He contended that the republicans had secured a majority in the house.

Mr. Denon of Alabama argued for the contestant and the majority report, while Mr. Burrows of Michigan argued against the majority report. A request for unanimous consent to extend his remarks was refused.

He asserted that he would decline to vote to disfranchise any class of voters on account of a failure of the election officers to put their initials on the ballot, the intent of the voting plain.

Mr. Joy of Missouri, whose seat was at issue, argued the account of the ballots had built up his majority. The grounds of the contest, he claimed, were entirely new.

Mr. Call of Massachusetts closed for the minority report. Mr. Brown of Indiana consumed the balance of the time for the majority report. He claimed that they were bound to observe the statute of Missouri, which gave power to election judges to disfranchise voters or not.

The vote then returned on the substitute for the report of the majority of the committee recommended by the minority, declaring Mr. Joy entitled to his seat. The vote resulted: Yeas, 102; nays, 146. The substitute was rejected.

Mr. Burrows of Michigan moved to reconsider, and Mr. Springer of Illinois moved to lay the motion on the table. The republicans then presented a motion for a quorum on the division and the roll call was taken, the republicans refraining from voting. The vote was: Yeas, 127; nays, 8. The house then, at 5:45 p. m., adjourned.

IN THE SENATE. Dolph's Resolution Regarding the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty.—WASHINGTON, March 28.—In the senate today Mr. Dolph introduced a joint resolution declaring the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, regarding the construction of a ship canal at Nicaragua, commonly known as the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, no longer in force.

MEN STILL HOLD TOGETHER

Gold Weather and Short Rations Have Not Made the Army of Peace Afraid.

MARCHING ON WITHOUT THEIR LEADER

Though Coxy Has Deserted His Hosts and Gone Off on a Private Trip to Chicago the Army Tramps Forward to Washington.

ALLIANCE, O., March 28.—It was the intention of the leaders of the Commonwealth army to break camp about 8 o'clock today, but the start was delayed until nearly 9 o'clock.

The soldiers passed a comparatively comfortable night, with plenty of fresh straw for bedding, and when the reveille sounded appeared cheerful and encouraged. Fires were kept burning and the fragrant smell of boiling coffee and frying ham filled the air. Pork and bacon fried and sizzled over the hot embers, and men with great chunks of bread stood by to eat it in the grays as they passed by.

The march was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army. The march was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

MEN STILL HOLD TOGETHER

Gold Weather and Short Rations Have Not Made the Army of Peace Afraid.

MARCHING ON WITHOUT THEIR LEADER

Though Coxy Has Deserted His Hosts and Gone Off on a Private Trip to Chicago the Army Tramps Forward to Washington.

ALLIANCE, O., March 28.—It was the intention of the leaders of the Commonwealth army to break camp about 8 o'clock today, but the start was delayed until nearly 9 o'clock.

The soldiers passed a comparatively comfortable night, with plenty of fresh straw for bedding, and when the reveille sounded appeared cheerful and encouraged. Fires were kept burning and the fragrant smell of boiling coffee and frying ham filled the air. Pork and bacon fried and sizzled over the hot embers, and men with great chunks of bread stood by to eat it in the grays as they passed by.

The march was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army. The march was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

It was plentiful this far, and as long as the men have all they want to eat and fairly comfortable quarters in which to pass the night they will not mind marching. To raid the hen roosts, pig pens and sheep folds of the farmers along the line of march. The start was made with 198 men in line and 100 pack animals, including the horse of the vetted lady who passed as the wife of the unknown assistant marshal of the army.

MURDER ON CROWDED STREETS

Letter Carrier Shot and Killed at the Corner of Madison and Clark Streets.

ST. LOUIS, March 28.—Thirty-four recruits for Coxy's army arrived here tonight on the Wahash road enroute to Pittsburg to join the main body there. After procuring a horse and wagon from a local farmer, they continued their journey on the Vandalla road. James McGrath is in command of this contingent, the members of which are army employes, coal miners from the vicinity of Pittsburg, Kan., and are mostly young men.

MURDER ON CROWDED STREETS

Letter Carrier Shot and Killed at the Corner of Madison and Clark Streets.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

The tragedy was much like that which occurred in Chicago, when a letter carrier was shot and killed at Memphis by Alice Mitchell. Olmstead was in love with his victim and had been jilted. In one of Olmstead's pockets was found a letter addressed to "Whom it may concern," which began: "I have just received your letter of the 27th inst., in which you asked me to marry you. I have never loved you, and I never will. I am sorry that you should have been so foolish as to marry me. I am sure you will find another man who will love you as I do."

The letter carrier was shot and killed at the corner of Madison and Clark streets this afternoon. Hundreds of people gathered around the scene, and the shooting and threatened Olmstead with lynching, but he was soon looked up by the police.

MCKINLEY IN MINNEAPOLIS

Ohio's Governor Enthusiastically Received by a Vast Multitude.

REASONINGS OF PROTECTION'S APOSTLE

What Republican Tariff Legislation Has Done for the Country.—The Wilson Bill and the Senate Substitute Picked to Pieces.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 28.—Governor William McKinley and party reached Minneapolis from Chicago this morning. In St. Paul they were joined by Lieutenant Governor Clough, John Goodnow, president of the Republican State League, and others. Upon arrival here they were met by students of the State university to the number of 600 and the University Republican club. The party was escorted to the West hotel, where 4,000 people had assembled in the spacious lobby.

Along the route to the hotel the hands had been playing "Marching Through Georgia." The refrain of which was, "While we are hounding McKinley," and the famous "Skid-ul-ah!" yell of the university students rent the air.

The governor's reception at the hotel was only such as 4,000 strong northern throats could give. The North Star quartet sang "All Hail," expressing the sentiment, "McKinley leads; we follow," after which the governor ascended the staircase and was introduced by President Goodnow.

He directed his remarks principally to the students, and declared it was to the young men of the country that all parties must look. During his speech he declared that he never wanted to vote in all his history as they did now.

Later the governor was driven to the Exposition building where the State League of Republican clubs was in session. There he gave a short address, in which he nobly told what was going to happen, and nobly knew what the democratic party was doing.

Later in the day he was driven, under the guidance of Bishop Fowler, Governor Goodnow and others, to the Central hall, where the public institutions, and made a splendid address to the people of the northwest to hear the leading address of the day.

The meeting place of the State League of Republican clubs was packed to suffocation. The president of the league called the assembly to order. It was evident from the moment his voice was heard that the gathering was not sufficient to allow the delegates breathing room.

After the meeting had been opened by Bishop Fowler President Goodnow announced the meeting would be adjourned until the next day, when he would be seated in a room where the capacity of over 6,000. Healed by the band, 1,500 of the delegates were in the hall, many famous by the last national republican convention.

Later in the day he was driven, under the guidance of Bishop Fowler, Governor Goodnow and others, to the Central hall, where the public institutions, and made a splendid address to the people of the northwest to hear the leading address of the day.

The meeting place of the State League of Republican clubs was packed to suffocation. The president of the league called the assembly to order. It was evident from the moment his voice was heard that the gathering was not sufficient to allow the delegates breathing room.

After the meeting had been opened by Bishop Fowler President Goodnow announced the meeting would be adjourned until the next day, when he would be seated in a room where the capacity of over 6,000. Healed by the band, 1,500 of the delegates were in the hall, many famous by the last national republican convention.

Later in the day he was driven, under the guidance of Bishop Fowler, Governor Goodnow and others, to the Central hall, where the public institutions, and made a splendid address to the people of the northwest to hear the leading address of the day.

The meeting place of the State League of Republican clubs was packed to suffocation. The president of the league called the assembly to order. It was evident from the moment his voice was heard that the gathering was not sufficient to allow the delegates breathing room.

After the meeting had been opened by Bishop Fowler President Goodnow announced the meeting would be adjourned until the next day, when he would be seated in a room where the capacity of over 6,000. Healed by the band, 1,500 of the delegates were in the hall, many famous by the last national republican convention.

Later in the day he was driven, under the guidance of Bishop Fowler, Governor Goodnow and others, to the Central hall, where the public institutions, and made a splendid address to the people of the northwest to hear the leading address of the day.

The meeting place of the State League of Republican clubs was packed to suffocation. The president of the league called the assembly to order. It was evident from the moment his voice was heard that the gathering was not sufficient to allow the delegates breathing room.

After the meeting had been opened by Bishop Fowler President Goodnow announced the meeting would be adjourned until the next day, when he would be seated in a room where the capacity of over 6,000. Healed by the band, 1,500 of the delegates were in the hall, many famous by the last national republican convention.

WIPED OUT A

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

WIPED OUT A

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

Sutherland, Neb., Destroyed by Flames

HE DEPRECATES DEBS

Mr. Clark and the President of the American Railway Union.

LATTER'S CONDUCT WHILE IN OMAHA

RECEIVERS SHOULD NOT BE CALLED ON TO NEGOTIATE WITH FOMENTERS OF STRIKES.

STATEMENTS IN THE ARBITER'S REPORT

That Document is Prepared and Will Probably Be Filed in Full Today.

HISTORY OF THE RECENT CONFERENCE

Contest Between Receivers and Employees on Wage Question Will Open in the Courts Today—Basis of Agreement with Telegraphers.

Mr. Receiver Clark's findings in the recent conference between representatives of the several divisions of labor on the Union Pacific system and officials of the Union Pacific company has been prepared, it is understood, and copies presented to the attorneys representing the branches of labor who were present at the conference which convened at headquarters March 15, and which terminated last Friday.

After reviewing the order of the circuit court directing Mr. Clark to specially concur in a conference, it is stated that the preliminary report of the hearing recites the persons who were invited to attend the conference, together with the branches of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railway Conductors, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and grand chief of the Order of Railway Men.

Several of the grand officers, it is known, came to Omaha and remained during the conference, but did not participate in several hearings and with the branches of labor, due, as it was said at the time, to the rules of the orders, which are imperative that grand officers shall not participate in conferences unless employees and railway officials fail to agree.

Mr. Clark, it is reported, gives the history of the order of the telegraphers, stating that it was first known to the Union Pacific. Everybody who is acquainted with the history of this order knows that it was first brought to the attention of the management in the summer of 1892, and there resulted later certain rules and schedules which became operative in August of that year. The telegraphers, however, refused to invite to participation certain other classes of employees for the reason that they would not be affected by the proposed action of the receivers in making the reduction, and for the further reason that it would tend to complicate and prolong the negotiations.

NO LIKING FOR MR. DEBS. The receiver then goes on, so the Debs informant states, to recall the action of Eugene V. Debs as president of the American Railway union, who, in a public meeting, which was attended by representatives of the various trades in conference, advised the employees of the system to withdraw from the conference, and to continue their strike. The receiver then goes on, so the Debs informant states, to recall the action of Eugene V. Debs as president of the American Railway union, who, in a public meeting, which was attended by representatives of the various trades in conference, advised the employees of the system to withdraw from the conference, and to continue their strike.