Trunk Talk.

We received the following letter in regard to the Marhoff's Trunks.

"James A. Howard, Successor to H. H. Marhoff, Omaha, March 21, 1894,-Hayden Bres., City: Gentlemen - I beg to inform you that you have not bought the "Mar-hoff" trunk store of factory. I bought it, and have a clear bill of sale for the same. including the trade mark, "Marhoff," which is copyrighted. I sold trunk and bags to P. S. Clinton on March 6, 1884, and most of them were made under my direction, and if you still use the name "Marhoff" in and it you still use the name 'Markoff' in your advertising I shall bring suit against you for damages, for there will still be manufactured in this city, and sold here, trunks and bags, also sample cases bearing this trade mark. Please take notice and save further trouble. Yours truly,

JAMES A. HOWARD.

Referring to the above letter wewish to state that we have no desire to injure Mr. Howard or any one else. We purchased the entire "Marhoff" trunk and bag business and will guarantee to sell any or all of them at one-half of Marhoff's prices.

Note the following bill of sale: F. S. Clinton sold to Hayden Bros, all the trunks and traveling bags in the Marhoff trunk store, 1510 Dodge street. Received payment March 19, 1894. F. S. CLINTON.

Mr, Clinton further stated he owned the factory and had some material which he would make up at once for us, and why Mr. Howard should complrin is something we cannot understand. HAVDEN BROS.

Pathetic Circumstances Surrounding the Death of a Child at Lincoln.

DRANK PART OF A BOTTLE OF GASOLINE

It Resulted Fatally in Fifteen Minutes-Divorce Granted a Woman Who Was Married Against Her Will in Ireland.

LINCOLN, March 28 .- (Special to The Bee.)-A sad fatality occurred in the suburbs of Lincoln last night, which resulted in the death of the little 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Forger, living at Twenty-fourth and K streets. A little after 7 o'clock the child, which was playing around the sitting room, reached up to the table and found a small bottle of gasoline which its mother had been using in cleaning some goods. The cork was out of the bottle and the child swallowed a portion of the contents. It began to cry for its mother and when she picked it up a moment later a red froth was issuing from the little one's lips. A physician was bastily summoned, but the child was dead in fifteen minutes. The parents are nearly distracted over the sudden death of their child. Mr. Forger is a coat maker in the employ of the Miller Tailoring company.

MARRIED AGAINST HER WILL. The clerk of the district court today entered a decree giving Elizabeth Young an unconditional divorce from her husband George Young. The case presents some unusual features. Both parties were named Young and both removed to this county from Dublin. While in the metropous of Ireland they were engaged to be married, much against the opposition of her parents. She did not care particularly about marrying anyhow, but one day he induced her to accompany him to the registrar's office where she went through the formality of a marriage without her knowledge. She asserts that she did not understand that she was parricipating in a marriage ceremony and did not realize that she was Mrs. Young and not Miss Young until her tushend at-tempted to avail himself of privileges usually denied by unmarried ladies. Since her dis-covery that she was really married to the man she refused to live with him and has never cohabited with him or acknowledged that she was his wife. She was given a

HELD A LIVELY MEETING. There were some unusual developments in the Seventh ward republican rally last night. The meeting was called in the interests of all the republican candidates, and the enthusiasm encountered no opposition until Prof. Austin, one of the speakers of the evening, made some remarks somewhat deto the personal integrity of the man who is running for the council in opman who is running for the council in op-position to Henry Meyer, the regular re-publican nominee. Then an opponent of Meyer got up in the meeting and demanded the proof that Spurk— that's the other candidate's name-was a dishonest man. ST. PAUL, Neb., March 28.-(Special Telegram to The Bee.)-The trial of Cuvler Schultz, the Hall county murderer, is now in progress. The defense objected to Mr G. Ryan, county attorney of Hall county, assisting in the prosecution, either as assistant county attorney or as private counsel. Beatrice Crowded with Teachers. BEATRICE, March 28 .- (Special Telegram o The Bee .- Beatrice is full of teachers from all parts of the state today and all incoming trains are bringing in more, the co-casion being the annual session of the Southeastern Nebraska Educational association. The first session was held this afternoon, consisting of round table conferences. President Gates of the Grinnell college delivered a lecture before the teachers at the audiis guilty. Judge Strode gave the insurance torium tenight, and an interesting program hases to the jury this morning, and this has been prepared for tomorrow. The ses-eachers association held its first session here this afternoon. Of those appointed on today's program only Reece of Oakland, Collins of Fremont and Hughes of Schuyler were present, but these and others took part in the discussions. It developed that county superintendents impose a fee of from $1 to $2 upon teachers in attendance. It was the general opinion of those who took part in the discussion that the institutes should be free as possible from examinations. The committee on needed legislation is J. G. Haupt, C. J. Bigelow and Miss C. M. White. The address tonight by Judge W. F. Norris was a splendid plea for the pulpit, the press and the school in upholding the interests of the country and helping to make it a great moral empire. Superintendent Scott made the address of welcome to the teachers, Mr. Haupt replying. A large number of teachers are in the city and the sessions tomorrow and next day, and especially the oratorical contest, will be looked forward to with great Settled Welmer's Shortage.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., March 28.-(Special o The Bee.)-Forty-eight of ex-Treasurer Weimer's bondsmen met the finance committee in this city yesterday to see what arrangements they could make for the payment of the $6,948 deficit. Thirty of the ondsmen were conspicuously absent. For a time the session was quite stormy and strong talk was made against the county poard and its ex-treasurer. The bondsmen finally employed H. M. Sullivan as counsel who in a short time succeeded in allaying the feeling between the finance committee and bondsmen and effected an agreement by which the bondsmen are to pay $4,449.22 of the shortage by June 9, 1894, and submit the question of whether they were legally bound to pay the remaining $2,400. Isaac son-in-law of Weiner, made proposition to the bondsmen to pay by December 1, $2,000 for the equity on the property which Weimer recently deeded him and the proposition was accepted. Should they realize upon the deal, the bondsmen will get off with about $50 each, provided the $2,400 which is in question will not have been paid. The $2,400 is an amount of interest and fees in excess of the $2,000 salary the treasurer turned into the county treas and afterwards got credit for in its settle-ment, in addition to his salary. Judge Holcomb will convene court here today. There are over 700 cases on the docket. The West-Millholland murder case will in all probability be tried this term.

The court will be in session three or four weeks. Drunken Indian Frozen to Death. WILL GRADUATE MINISTERS

Outline of Commencement Exercises of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

FIRST CLASS NOW READY FOR THE PULPIT

Progress of the Institution in the Three Years of Its Existence-Relations to the Church-How it is Officered -Its Hopes. Next week an event of more than ordinary importance and significance occurs in this city, the first commencement exercises of the Presbyterian Theological seminary. At that time six young men graduate into the ministry, thus fulfilling the hope and repaying the labor of three years and prophesying what is possible in the line of ministerial education in the central west. The public examinations of the three classes, junior, middle and senior, commence next Tuesday at 9 a. m., and continue until Thursday afternoon. The board of directors meets Wednesday at 2 p. m., in the First church, and Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the same place the graduating addresses will be given, and afterwards a reception. Each member of the graduating class will speak. Dr. W. W. Harsha of Tecumseh will address the class in behalf of the faculty and Hon. T. E. Clark, Clarinda, Ia., will speak for the board of directors. The choir of the First church will furnish the music and the ladies will serve refreshments cordial invitation is extended to the friends of the institution. The graduates are: Charles H. Bandy, Council Bluffs; E. A. Enders, Omaha; Alexander Litherland, Sidney, Ia.; Hugh McNinch, Danville, Pa.; Bishop C. Swank, Woodbine, Ia., and Ernest W. Symonds, Marne, Ia.

HISTORY OF THE SEMINARY. Three years ago the seminary was organized and in September of the same year opened its doors for instruction. It was thought wise not to admit but one class, the junior, the first year, although there were applicants for the two others. The junio class numbered nine. The next year a mid-dle class was enrolled, with an attendance of six, and this year a senior class with six members. The number of students in at tendance this year is twenty-one. The work done by the students has been painstaking and generally satisfactory.

The faculty consists of the best talent, in the several departments, which is available the several departments, which is available in the entire west. Rev. W. W. Harsha of Tecumseh is professor of theology; Rev. Stephen Phelps, D. D., Council Bluffs, homiletics; Rev. John Gordan, D. D., history; Rev. M. B. Lowry, D. D., New Testament exegesis, and Rev. Charles G. Sterling, Ph. D., Old Testament exegesis. Rev. Samuel B. Fleming, D. D., of Kansas is special lecturer on home missions, and Rev. Thomas Marshall, D. D., of Chicago on foreign missions. Dr. Lowrie is the only salaried prosions. sions. Dr. Lowrie is the only salaried pro-fessor so far and he devotes his entire time to the seminary. The curriculum embraces practically the same course as is pursued at McCormick and Princeton.

The board of directors numbers forty, and s composed generally of leading ministers and laymen in this and contiguous states On the list may be seen the names of J. P. Countermine, D.D., Beatrice; Hon. S. P. Davidson, Tecumseb; W. F. Ringland, D.D., Hastings; Hon. J. B. Larimer, Topeka, Kan.; H. Scott Howell, Keokuk, Ia., and others equally prominent in civil and ecclesi-astical affairs. Stephen Phelphs, D.D., of Council Bluffs s president of the board and Hon. Warren Switzler of this city is chairman of the ex-The seminary was heartily endorsed by the Presbyterian general assembly at De-troit in 1891, and has always sought to stand in the closest relation with that body. This is bound to give it standing before the entire church. An effort is being made before the assembly's committee on theological seminaries to have this institution nerits more widely known. At present the financial burden is borne chiefly by the churches of Nebraska and Iowa, although contributions have come from friends in Ohio, Pensylvania and other states. The expenditures last year amounted to $2,244.97, and this year will exceed $3,500. The seminary is growing in favor with the churches of this entire region, and words of hearty commendation are heard at all ecclesiastical gatherings at which its name is men-tioned. Many of the vacant churches of the surrounding territory have been ministered to by the students, and several of these churches will receive pastors from the HOPE FOR NEW BUILDINGS. The lectures and recitations have been held during the current year in the hotel building at Ninth and Farnam streets, which had been generously tendered by the owners for that purpose. This building has also been used as a dormitory, but this home is only temporary. A permanent location must be provided and permanent dormitories and ecture halls erected. The munificent offer of land at Seymour park was forfeited by lack of maney to fulfill the conditions, but already another offer of land nearer the city has been made in a tentative way. It may be safe to say that any such propositions wil be entertained by the board of directors, nd especially an offer of land sufficient for building up a Presbyterian settlement such as has gathered around McCormick seminary on North Halsted street, Chicago, and it might be said such an offer as would fur-nish ground for the Presbyterian hospital and the collegiate department of Omaha uni versity, now located at Bellevue, but which many think ought to be nearer the city.

These are not idle dreams, but what has already been realized by Westminster university, Denver, and other similar institutions. Should any land owner near the city say that those interested in the movement wish to do a noble thing for Christian education and the moral and educational uplifting of the community, where is a better opportunity? And should any individual or syndi cate wish to enhance a thousand-fold its surrounding property, what better means could it wish? While capitalists and clubs and associations are encouraging manufac-turies to locate here to bring money to the city, this enterprise offers an open field for hem to lend a hand to an institution which already is bringing to this city from $5,000 $8,000 a year.
