DENOUNCED THEIR ENEMIES

Omaha Workingmen Resent the Utterances and Acts of Certain Persons.

RESOLUTIONS OF CENTRAL LABOR UNION

Tollers Pay Their Respects to the Legal Managers of the Iowa Railroads-An Omaha Preacher and Judge Also Scored-Other Business.

Fifty-four delegates and several visitors, imong whom was Mr. Michael Nelson, secretary of District assembly No. 126, attended the meeting of the Omaha Central Labor union Wednesday night in Patterson's hall. 1623 Farnam street. President John B. Schupp made a verbal report of what had been done toward assisting the Kelly army with food and other comforts of life, and also what had been done by the mayor, chief of police and other city officers. It was then ordered that a vote of thanks be tendered to the officers of the Central Labor union and the city officers who, by words and actions, had shown their sympathy with the oppressed poor by aiding the members of Kelly's army to secure the necessaries of life while in this community. The committee on arbitration reported that as yet they were unable to settle the trouble of the horse collar makers with their former employs, but were of the opinion that before the next regular meeting of the union they would have all differences adjusted. This committee also reported that the trouble be-tween Tailors union No. 92 and the firms of Frank J. Ramge and J. H. McDonald, merchant tailors, had been satisfactorily set-tled, and that the men were now at work again as usual.

The committee on home industry submitted a report showing that considerable work had been done to further the cause of home in-dustry, and asking the co-operation of all the cople in these trying times to help build up demand for home labor.

prople in these trying times to help build up a demand for home labor.

The following agreement, which explains itself, was appended to their report:

OMAHA, April 13.—We, the undersigned, agree to purchase only union-made cooperage and malt from this date on.

FRED KRUG BREWING COMPANY.

By William Krug, Manager.

The reading of this agreement was the signal for applause, which was given heartily, and one delegate remark d that he would buy a glass of Krug's beer before he went home. The delegates from Coopera' union No. 16 were exceedingly well pleased with the report of the committee, and said to The Bee reporter if this example was followed by all the users of cooperage goods Omaha could keep from 769 to 800 men at work steady making barrels, kegs, tierces, etc. They hoped to see all friends of organized labor show that they appreciate the step taken by the Krug Brewing company, and believed that others would follow.

taken by the Krug Brewing company, and believed that others would follow.

A communication from District Assembly No. 126 announced that a committee of two had been appointed by the district assembly and asked that a like number be named by the Central Labor union to investigate the actions and words of the representatives of the low railreads with a property of the lower of the actions and words of the representatives of the Iowa railroads, with a view of learning whether any unlawful acts had been com-mitted by said representatives of the rail-roads. The request was granted and the chair named John W. Vogan of Typographi-cal Union No. 190 and Frank E. Heacock of Machine Wood Workers Union No. 1 as such committee. Indee Hubbard in particular committee. Judge Hubbard in particular was reasted to a turn by nearly everybody present for his inhuman language. AFTER A PREACHER.

The members then held a general talk upon the labor question and one of the mem-bers read an editorial from the Christian Advocate which was spoken of as an "alleged religious sheet." After some very warm discussion, which, however, was all onesided, the following resolution was passed by

Resolved. That the Central Labor union hereby denounces one Frank Crane, a sensa-tional individual who prostitutes the teachings of Jesus Christ for his personal aggrandizement by using the columns of an alleged religious publication to abuse and de-base the cause of labor, and that we call upon all members of labor organization to use their influence to counteract the loathsome efforts of this miserable being. After passing the above resolution the delegates hardly seemed satisfied to quit at that and without any opposition ,whatever, the following resolution was read and passed which speaks for itself:

Whereas, The Omaha Central Labor union deems it its duty to raise its voice in the interest of humanity and especially that downtrod-den class of unfortunate beings, the unemployed laborers of the land, and, Whereas, The police judge of this city, one Berka by name, has seen fit not only to disgrace himself but the judicial position he now occupies by recently issuing a parole to city and county prisoners, providing such criminals would join General Kelly's Inlustrial army, therefore be it Resolved, That the Central Labor union views this act as an insult to all laboring men, of whatever calling, and be it further Resolved, That the said Judge Berka be and is hereby denounced for this unjustifiable ect, as being unworthy the high official position he now holds and that we call upon all espectable and liberty-loving people to place he stamp of disapproval upon this contempt-kick coming, and it was promptly referred to the committee on home industry with instructions to settle the matter peaceably if possible, but to settle it some way. The trouble arises from the fact that one of the large employers of the city has refused to employ a union forenan, and the main Journeymen think that they are getting the worst of it as long as a nonunion man is employed to criticise and run down their work arbitrarily in favor of nonunion men. It will likely be settled by the next meeting. Letters were received from Senator Charles F. Manderson and Congressman William J. Bryan stating that they would carefully consider the bills introduced by the Sanmen' they considered just. The union will soon publish a list of all the business houses in Omaha that are considered to be nonunion firms. It will be published in vest-pocket form, and copies will be furnished to all members and friends of organized labor.

OMAHA, April 26 .- To the Editor of The Bee: Dear Sir-I notice in your evening paper a publication of a resolution of the Central Labor union denouncing me "for issuing a parole to all city and county prisoners, providing such criminals would join General Kelly's Industrial army." While it is not my habit to court notoricty in answer-ing articles or reflections in newspapers that may be derogatory to my character, this matter has assumed such a magnitude that it may be proper to place myself in a true light before the people, and then those that wish to criticise me may know whereof they prived at Omaha the police reporters of both lailies, myself and others were discussing the coming of Kelly's army. None of us hen knew anything about the real character f the army, except what had been published n the papers, and among other things we ead that the Board of Health had discussed the propriety of vaccinating the whole army I thought then that it was only talk, the same as our conversation. Some one sug-gested that it would be a good thing to give the vagrants in custody a chance to get out of the city. I said perhaps it would. I d not have any such serious intentions and did not issue parole to either city or county pris-mers, and did not discharge a single pris-mer from the city or county jail for the purose of letting him join Kelly's Industrial ant of the people and that criticism is one of the incidents to my trust, yet I do believe that when a scathing denunciation without just cundation is passed any one that has had a voice in such measure or has any interest in the matter will take time and investigate at the county and city jails and see whether he is doing himself and public servants justice.

LOUIS BERKA.

Police Judge.

OMAHA, April 26.-To the Omaha Central Labor Union: In the newspapers this morning, April 26, there is a statement that you passed a resolution denouncing myself as one "who prostitutes the teachings of Jesus Christ for his personal aggrandizement, using the columns of an alleged publication to abuse and abase the cause of labor." This is π serious charge against a Christian minister whose work lies chiefly among the wageworkers. If it is true, I have no business to be a minister. If it is untrue, you have done me an injustice. I have sufficient confidence in the common sense of the labor-ing people to believe that this unjust act, for I so consider it, was taken because there was presented to you an unfair and Imporfect representation of my attitude toward the working men.

the working men.
You continually assert that you are protesting against the robbery that corporations and others are making upon the wags worker. Will you in turn do all in your power to rob me of all the capital that I have laid up. My capital is my reputation Above what I have used for the support of my family, all the money that I have carned so far in this world has been devoted to works of charity. I have nothing laid up, except, I hope, a good name.

except, I hope, a good parie.

The wage workers are asking for fair play.

Are you willing to give what you ask for?

Will you stigmatize a minister as a hypocrite and a "miserable being" upon an exparte statement of his accusers? I respectively ask to be given an emportunity to telly ask to be given an opportunity to speak in my own defense. Every man ought to have the privilege of defending himself ander circumstances where he can speak to the best advantage. It is in my own pulpit that I am able to express myself with more freedom than anywhere else. I therefore ask you and all of the laboring men of this city whom you represent to hear what I have to say for myself in my own church, corner Iwentieth and Davenport streets, next Sun-

Surely even so good a cause as yours cannot afford to rashly and indiscriminately condemn as a scoundred every one who does not perfectly coincide with all of your views. FRANK CRANE.

COLLECTION OF CITY TAXES.

Problems Which the People Want to Solve for the Assessors.

A well known Omaha attorney, who keeps posted on questions relating to taxation, said to a Bee man yesterday: "The Bee is making the right kind of fight on the question of tax assessments this year. The train of evils following in the wake of our present illegal methods should not be suffered longer to exist. Douglas county should be the first to come out squarely for the enforcement of the law and go into the State Board of Equalization with a showing of full-value assessment and obtain an equalizing rate with other counties in the other cities in the state to solve in the near future. It is orthon not known to many that recent decisions of the sumany that recent decisions of the superme and district courts have made it unsafe to purchase for taxes any preperty on which there is liable to be a city tax or special assessment. Tax purchasers from this on must confine their investments to farm lands, upon which county and state taxes only can be levied. The cities must depend upon volunteer payment of taxes by preserve expects of taxes. ment of taxes by property owners. Judging by universal experience the amount which can thus be collected will not be very large, Special assessments, which form so large a part of our appual taxes, are likely to be the first omitted and thus make public im-provements very uncertain or entirely impracticable. There seems to be no way out of this difficulty, unless purchasers at tax sales shall receive assurance from the city that the city will stand good for its yold assessments, which in time past have been numerous. The city of Omaha, up to the date of a recent decision of the supreme court, has been in the habit of refunding void assessments, when paid by a purchaser at tax sale. Unless there is a positive as-surance that this is to continue city property must remain unsold for want of bidders."

RECEPTION TO SECRETARY BAER

Him Last Night. A union meting of the Christian Endeavorers of Omaha and Council Bluffs was held at the First Congregational church last evening for the purpose of extending a welcome to General Secretary J. Willis Baer of Boston. The program opened with an organ prelude, in which Prof. Howard Packard dis-played his usual excellence.

After a bymn by the congregation and prayer by Rev. W. P. Hellings, an address of welcome on behalf of the Council Bluffs Endeavorers was extended by Rev. E. W. The Mozart Male quartet followed with a vocal selection which was heartily applauded. Rev. S. Wright Butler delivered the adlress of welcome on behalf of the Omaha Endeavorers.

General Secretary Baer received an ovation when he stepped to the front. In substance he reviewed the gratifying growth of the society and stated that he was enroute to San Francisco to arrange for the coming na-tional convention of Christian Endeavorers, to be held in that city. to be held in that city.

BRANCH P.STOFFICE.

Street Old Building Decaying. Work on the new branch postoffice building at Twenty-fourth and Lake streets was commenced yesterday. The building will be rushed rapidly to completion and ready for occupancy by July 1. The branch office at Twenty-minth and Woolworth avenue will be ready for business on the same date. The main office seems to be crumbling in some portions. A large block of granite fell from near the cornice of the building yesterday and narrowly missed making a job for the coroner.
