

AMBROSE AS A SNOW PLOW

Clears Street Railway Tracks Blocked by Sheriff's Attachment.

LEVY MADE TO SATISFY CLAIM'S OF JUDGE

Judge Declares There Was No Necessity for the Action and Orders Cars Held Back—Company Calls it a Revengeful Outrage.

The sheriff and an injunction practically suspended street car traffic upon the lines for several hours yesterday afternoon, and it was not until well into the night that the trains were running upon schedule time.

A lawsuit was the cause of all of the trouble, and the result of the lawsuit was what caused people residing in the north, west and south portions of the city to have to walk home.

On the evening of December 21, 1889, Matthew W. Clair was going along North Fourteenth street and at the intersection of Judge he was caught by the grip of a cable train, knocked down and dragged along the track a distance of something like seventy feet. He was cut and bruised to such an extent that he was confined to his bed for a period of six months.

Armed with this document, the deputy went to the intersection of Sixteenth and Farnam streets, where he waited for the trains and motcars which might happen to pass that way. He had not waited long until he had scooped seven motcars and three trailers into his net.

AMBROSE SEES THEM GOING AGAIN. In the early evening the attorneys for the street railway company appeared before Judge Ambrose at his room in the Paxton hotel, where they engaged in a legal battle. The defendant filed a petition, alleging that the street railway was a common carrier, and that it was not subject to the general laws applying to levy and execution.

Mr. Ransom, one of the attorneys representing the plaintiff, urged that a receiver should be appointed to take charge of the property and see that the debt was paid. If this was not done, he said that the payment of the judgment might be tied up for years.

Judge Ambrose held that there was no need for such a course, as it had not been shown that the company was insolvent, and again he said that the street car lines were operated for the convenience of the public.

Mr. Ransom insisted that it would be impossible to secure any testimony from the street car people. Judge Ambrose was of a different opinion, and declared that a judgment properly entered and solemnly affirmed could be collected without any such testimony.

Secretary Goetz and General Manager Smith of the street car company said last night, in discussing the seizure of the cars, that it was simply a matter of time before their cars would be full of cars and motcars, all of the summer equipment of the road being in these buildings. This property was not being taken into account in the judgment, and could have been levied upon, but the idea, they claimed, was to get hold of the rolling stock while in use and tie up the lines during the heavy winter season.

Never Before So Cheap. The Globe's cash found its way in the coffers of some hard-up man in exchange for some of their most desirable goods. The consequence is, we offer goods, commencing tomorrow, at the most reduced prices.

Examined the Viaduct. A committee from the council consisting of Hascall, Parker and Lemly accompanied by City Engineer Rosewater and Superintendent Smith of the Street railway company Thursday afternoon visited the 18th street viaduct for the purpose of making an inspection of that structure. An hour or more was spent on the ground.

Killed a Mad Dog. A. D. White, the city inspector of weights and measures, did a little condemning that was not exactly in his line Thursday afternoon. While out in the northern part of the city on business he discovered a dog, owned by John Westberg, which was suffering from hydrophobia, and killed the animal.

Armed with this document, the deputy went to the intersection of Sixteenth and Farnam streets, where he waited for the trains and motcars which might happen to pass that way.

TANGIER'S FOUR HUNDRED GUESTS

Present from All Parts of the State at Masonic Hall Last Night—Notable Gathering of the Exalted Craft—List of Lincoln Visitors.

Not since the memorable meeting of the imperial council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in this city in 1882 have there been so many followers of the star and crescent encamped about the palm trees of Tangier temple as last night.

Work was begun at 5 o'clock, and not until 11 were the laborers called from labor to refreshment.

Toward the midnight hour, when a faint light began to show through the shadows from the east, Noble Brad Slaughter, on invitation of the illustrious Potentate L. M. Anderson assumed the chair of toastmaster, and the first of the toasts were responded to by Ed N. Cornish as representative of the class last to be clothed in purple and fine linen.

Some months ago August Meyer bucked the tiger at the Denver gambling house, which was then operated in this city. The tiger got the better of Meyer and pinned him for something like $1,000 in gold and bills.

Mary Hansen has asked the courts to dissolve the matrimonial ties which for ten years have been binding her to her husband Jens. She avers that she has always been a dutiful wife, which building was destroyed by the actions of her husband.

A petition has been filed, asking that an administrator be appointed to look after the property of the estate of Charles H. Woolson, deceased.

E. S. Dundy, jr., has filed a motion for a deficiency judgment in a suit against Ernest Riell. The plaintiff alleges that there is due to him $801 and asks for judgment thereon.

Before Judge Hopewell yesterday the motion for a new trial was overruled in the case of Duke against Lobeck. The plaintiff secured a judgment at an early date during the present term of court.

Judge Ambrose returned from the South Dakota hot springs Thursday night, much improved in health. Today the judge will go upon the bench in court room 2, where he will hear the motions for new trials and also pass up ex-parte matters which may be brought before him for consideration.

In the court presided over by Judge Scott, the creditors of the firm of Ackermann Brothers & Heintze are having their claims today, proving up and establishing their claims in the hands of W. C. Maxwell against the firm, the referee has found that the action should be dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff, and has so reported to the court.

Among the numerous suits against the firm of Ackermann Brothers & Heintze, there is one by J. M. Wolfe, who, yesterday, asked leave to intervene. His petition Wolfe alleges that he has been used by the creditors of the firm upon some notes which he guaranteed for the firm, and he declares that they were without consideration, so far as he was concerned, and were guaranteed merely as an accommodation.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., is a most perfect example in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of women's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this vast and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect specific for women's peculiar ailments.

The following words, in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, are fair samples of the spontaneous expressions with which thousands give utterance to their sense of gratitude for the inestimable boon of health which has been restored to them by the use of this world-famed medicine.

Mrs. ALICE V. DUNGAN, of Rice Tannery, Mineral County, W. Va., writes: "I believe I owe my life to Dr. Pierce's remedies. Six or seven years ago, my health began to gradually fail; some of my friends as well as myself thought I was going into consumption. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and his 'Pellegrini,' and was greatly benefited; took half a dozen bottles at that time, did not take any more for several years, when I began to go down again. I was married November, 1889. The next September had a miscarriage. The summer following my health was very bad; I then got one dozen bottles and took as directed. My health was much improved and am now the proud mother of a healthy boy twenty-two months old. My health is now much better than I thought it ever would be."

Mrs. ANNA ULRICH, of Elm Creek, Buffalo Co., Neb., writes: "I enjoy good health thanks to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I was under the doctor's care for two years with womb disease, and gradually wasting in strength all the time. I was weak, and I could not do any work, which I have not done for almost two years; I do my own washing and all of my house work; I have gained about six pounds taking your remedy. You cannot know how glad I am that I tried your 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Mrs. FRANK CAMPFIELD, of East Dickinson, Franklin County, N. Y., writes: "I have my duty to express my deep heart-felt gratitude to you for having been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to health. For I have been by spells unable to walk. My troubles were of the womb inflammation kind, and bearing down sensations, and the doctors all said they could not cure me. Twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's wonderful Favorite Prescription has cured me."

WOMB DISEASE. Inflammation and "Falling of Womb."

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all one symptom caused by some womb disorder. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages his practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine, like Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery.

OVERWORKED WOMEN. For "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated school teachers, milliners, dress-makers, seamstresses, general housekeepers, and overworked and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best of all restorative tonics. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a "Cure-all," but admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most potent specific for all those Chronic Weaknesses and Diseases peculiar to women. It is a powerful, general as well as a uterine, tonic and nervine, and imparts vigor and strength to the whole system. It cures weakness of the stomach, indigestion, bloating, nervous prostration, hysteria, inability and sleeplessness. Price $1.00 per bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.00, by all dealers in medicines. A TREATISE (100 pages) on "WOMAN AND HER DISEASES," sent sealed in plain envelope, on receipt of 10 cents for postage. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, BUFFALO, N. Y.

Here is from a flash of brains of a 12 year old American youngster as overheard by the writer of this, while discussing Kelly and his army question—"A century ago Washington bound the people by congress"—Today—"The people are bound for Washington against congress"—and the youngster received what he deserved a Nebraska suit— Boy's will be boy's—some brighter—some more mischievous—some playful—but all born to wear pants. And to keep them neat—we imagine—requires a good purse and sound motherly judgement—unless you keep him in a Nebraska—tough—made—suit— Now and then we are complimented by utterances of a competitor, about having equally as good made, large assortment, or as low prices as the Nebraska—but it has no foundation— We carry the produce of every big manufacturer of the land—but but not their ideas—we have our own way about that part. We carry out our own program regarding material and workmanship, to fit and suit our well deserving reputation. In other words a boy's suit branded "Nebraska," must be perfect and serviceable, and cheaper in price or else it shall find place in other establishments—not here— A Dollar for a dollar and half suit, Two Fifty for a first rate four dollar suit, Three and Quarter for a daisy five dollar suit—is a record we are proud of—give you better satisfaction at that—Finer grades are about as near half as other quote them, as this is to your eye— Can you find a more comfortable or better lighted department than ours?
