COUNCIL BLUFFS DERBY DAY

Opening of the Running Session at Union Park Affords Good Sport.

famous old course at Union Park has a racing session opened up under such favorable auspices as that under the management of Colonel L. S. Hatch, which had its indrop of the flag.

The blue and white polka dots of the auguration yesterday afternoon. It was the first day of a nine days' meeting, and mauger the many drawbacks which have beset the colonel's path, it was the most successful and most enthusiastic first day of any meeting held in this section of the country for years. The track was in excellent condition and the racing superb, while the crowd in attendance was of such character and dimensions as gladdened the heart of every lover of thoroughbred horse-The day was an ideal one for racing, with the summer sky mottled with big, lazy masses of vapor, and the breeze, coming in in fitful gusts from the west, of that re comfort and enjoyment in both man and beast. Good music was on hand, and all 'round the conditions couldn't have been

It was Derby day, the first one ever held here, and the throng on hand to witness this premier event was greater than any the two cities ever turned out before. The grassy lawn from the paddock to the field was a perfect sea of gay turnouts while the big grand stands were Jammed with handsome men and airily attired ladies The betting sheds, under the supervision of Heffner & Oter, were a confused mass of humanity, and at times men fairly climbed over each other for the privilege of laying their money. It was a maddened, eager throng, all in pursuit of that phantom known as the "long green." The wagering, too, was contagious, and the belles and beaux in stylish victoria, drag or landau were kept busy selecting winners and losers. In fact, the whole scene was the liveliest and most interesting ever seen here on similar occasions, and the prospects for a crush today could not be better. Everybody seems to have caught the racing fever on the spur of the moment, and while the bulk of yesterday's attendance came from the city over the river, it is safe to say she will lose her identity in the masses that will pour across big bridge from the metropolis this afternoon

JUDGES AND STARTERS. The official roster of the day was: Harry Loper of Wellington, Kan., probably without a peer today as a trotting horse starter, as presiding judge; Otto Bluhm, assistant and official timer; J. W. Lay, clerk of the scales, and Colonel Hatch, starter, with William Murray as assistant. The starting of Colonel Hatch was as pretty a piece of work as has been seen on any course this season. In the first two events the horses got away evenly on the first break; the Derby occupied but fifteen minutes in starting and the two last races were off at pistol that start. There was not a bad send off on the afternoon's

The first event, selling, four and one-half furlongs, weight for age, was on promptly at 2:30, the schedule time. the day, the Council Bluffs Derby, elevensixteenths, and cheers went up when the bugle's blast summoned the jumpers to the post, and again when the horses came through the quarter stretch. The absentees were Yankee Ban, Buck Walker and Mollie Penny, while those that lined up were Frolicksome Lass on the rail, Ed Connolly, Maple Leaf, Idle Boy, Ballardine, Necus, Penny, while those that lined Nehawka Girl and Champagne, ranging out in the order named. In the betting Froi-icksome Lass had the call, and that she justified the faith of those who invested in her was demonstrated in the finish.

HOW THE DERBY WAS WON. There was something of a wait before the bunch could be sent away. Starter Hatch patiently plugged away, however, endeavor-ing to get the line abreast. Scattering breaks followed the first false start, but the excited crowd were not kept waiting so very long, for before they could hardly realize it the journey was begun, a spon-taneous cry, "they're off," arising from the big chestnut gelding, Champagne, was the first to shoot out of the crowd and away, Nehawka Girl, Maple Leaf and Necus heads apart, and the balance lapped save the un-lucky pair, Ballardine and Idle Boy, who were straining nerve and fiber in the rear. The exultation of Champagne's friends—and they be legion-was but short lived, as the wiry shape of the stender sorrel favorite, in a jiffy almost, showed clear from all company. Her jock picked a place close to the rail, and came on like a ghost. Rounding with a rush into the stretch Ed mund Connolly moved up to second place, but never became dangerous, while Nehawka Girl, pulling out of the ruck, put a cinch in on third. The Lass was straightened out a bit on nearing home, as both Con-nelly and the Girl were striving savagely beneath lash and rowel. Both gained a triffe, but too late, and Mr. Hausen's im ported mare ran in with the laurels of the first Derby by a scant length.

In the mile dash five ran. Asben, the favorite, broke in the lead, but was almost immediately passed by Long Tom, who made the running all the way, Belle M second, followed by Sight Draft and John J I, the favorite taking a tail hold. The finish was a rattling one and very close, the judges, how-ever, agreeing that Belle M came in first by nose the best of Long Tom, Sight Draft

The final event of the afternoon's card was a selling race, four furlengs, in which but four ran, Nellie Miller and Sam Jones being alternate favorites, the former quitting un placed and Jones carting away third money Lillie Lochiel, a long shot in the betting won by a neck from Dick Tiger, after a tremendous finish, and amidst the wild huzzas of the excited crowd. LAZZARONE WINS LATONIA DERBY. Frack a Sea of Mud and Card a Poor One but the Talent Does Business. CINCINNATI, May 24.—The Latonia spring meeting opened 'very auspiciously before a crowd of 8,000 spectators under a The track was deep with mud and full of puddles. Fast time was impossible. The card was a poor one, but nevertheless proved very satisfactory to the talent, as four strong favorites, one second and one third choice proved equal to the mud and won. The Derby, worth to the mud and won. The Derby, worth $7,500, of which $6,555 went to the winner, was taken by Lazzarone in easy style. There were originally six horses entered, but Sigurd and Noah were scratched, leaving only four horses to face the flag. After ten minutes fiddling about the post, Starter Pettingill dropped the flag to a stragkling start, Lazzarone leading by a length, Pearl Song second, two lengths before Tupto, half a length before Selika. Before the first quarter was passed all four horses were abreast, hardly a half length separating the last horse from the leader. Passing the stand Pearl Song led the bunch by a neck, followed by Lazzarone, with his mouth wide open under a double wrap. Entering the third quarter Lazzarone darted into the lead and headed the group to the mile, where Williams on Pearl Song rode desperately to catch the leader. But Lazzarone showed no signs of exhaustion and swept into the stretch two lengths in front of Pearl Song. The other horses were manifestly out of the race-and staggering through the mire a dozen lengths behind. Lazzarone galloped under the wire two open lengths ahead of Pearl Song. Selika, two lengths behind, took third money. Results:

First race, one mile: Charity (5 to 2) won, J. P. E. (even) second, Sigurd (8 to 2) third. Time: 1:48%.

Second race, six furlongs: Domingo (7 to 10) won, Helen N. (5 to 2) second. Say On (12) $7,500, of which $6,555 went to the winner, Dobbins Wins the Brooklyn Derby.

NEW YORK, May 24.—For five days the Gravesend track has been a sea of mud and the 3,000 persons who were there today were thoroughly uncomfortable in the driving rain. It was a most dispiriting day, and even the attraction of the Brooklyn Derby could not induce a large attendance. The chief event was the Derby, and of the six colors on the card, St. Maxim and Horanipe declined the issue. There was a wild plunge on Sir Excess and he was quickly made the favirite, with Assignee second choice. Dobbins was neglected except by those who 'hought he was not up to his proper form in his other races, and at the class Assignee and Sir Excess were about equally favored. The start was prompt and good and Assignee took the lead, with Dobbins beside him. Sir Excess was getting the mud behind and was completely out of it. As the turn into the stretch was reached Sir Excess gave it up and then Dobbins took a few long strides and was soon in the lead. From that time on it was a procession and Dobbins won in a common canter from Assignee, with Sir Excess heaten off. In the Clover stakes, for filling, Richeule jumped off into the lead at once and the race was never in danger. Results:

First race, mile: Trevelyn (7 to 1) won, Dutch Stater (5 to 1) second, Despot (5 to 3) third. Time: 1:164.

Outsider Wins the Straitway.

ST. LOUIS, May 24.—Decidedly warmer weather and a fast track drew a first-class attendance to the fair grounds to see the second stake race of the meeting, the Straitway, decided. The guaranteed $2,000 went to an $ to 1 outsider, Service, who won in a drive. Ethel Gray and Maid Marian were the contenders at a rattling pace from the start to the turn into the stretch, but at that point Service, with Jordan up, and Ray S, moved into line and took up the running. In the last sixteenth Service drew away from the field, finishing a half length before Ray S, Ethel Gray giving to Soundmore third money. The steeplechase, another feature, furnished more amusement than excitement. The talent broke fairly even, three favorites and three outsiders taking the coin. Results:

Blair's Motion to Quash Proceedings Overruled and Another Motion Substituted. ST. PAUL, May 24.-The Maney trial was resumed today, Attorney Blair continuing his argument in favor of his motion to strike out all matters relating to the killing of Captain Hedberg, for which Lieutenant Maney has already been tried and ac-

Maney has already been tried and acquitted. The sessions of the court are held from 11 to 3 o'clock and an hour taken for lunch, so that the speedy termination of the trial is unlikely.

At the close of Mr. Blair's argument Colonel Barr briefly spoke against the motion, maintaining that there was no law or right to prevent the present proceedings. After recess the court sat behind closed doors to consider the motion of the defendant's attorney. The motion of Attorney Blair was overruled and the trial ordered to proceed.

Mr. Blair then asked an adjournment for Mr. Blair then asked an adjournment for the day, that he might have time to decide whether to proceed or to apply to the civil courts for a writ of prohibition against the continuance of the trial. The court, in accordance with Mr. Blair's request, adjourned for the day.

Lieutenant Maxwell's Case. The general court martial convened by Brigadier General Brooke to try First Lleutenant Marcus Maxwell, company A, Sectenant Marcus Maxwell, company A, Second United States infantry, met at Fort Omaha yesterday forenoon. When Mr. Maxwell was called up for trial some days ago he asked for further time, in order to produce depositions from Chicago.

Maxwell is charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman and of being absent without leave; also of duplicating his pay accounts.

coming an officer and a gentleman and of being absent without leave; also of duplicating his pay accounts.

When the court convened yesterday the prosecution still had the floor, and as only one of the several depositions Maxwell had sent for had arrived, the court adjourned in the afternoon, subject to the call of the president, Colonel Biddle.

Lieutenant Maxwell was transferred to Fort Omaha from the Fifteenth infantry at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and when called back there recently to testify in the Maney murder trial forgot to return to his post. At any rate the prosecution alleges that Maxwell was absent without leave for half a month, and part of the time stopped at an Omaha hotel, where he was on a big drunk. It is supposed that it was during this spree that his pay accounts had been duplicated. Lieutenant Maxwell will, it is understood, set up as a defense that he was crazed by House and the force of the control of the time stopped at an order of the time stopped at an Omaha hotel, where he was on a big drunk.

Lieutenant Van Liew is acting as counsel for the accused. It is understood that when Maxwell was on his big spree he made several efforts to sober up and took great quantities of bromide and other drugs to put him in shape to report for duty. This combination of drugs and whisky, the defense will allege, so unbalanced the mind of the defendant that he was not responsible for his actions. for his actions.

GRAND CHIEF RAMSAY'S REPORT. His Review of the Work of O. R. T.'s for the Past Year. DENVER, May 24.—In the convention of railway telegraphers today Grand Chief Ramsay presented his annual report. He congratulated the order upon having obtained from railroads during the past year thirty-four wage schedules. The membership of the order had decreased, but a critical period in its history had been passed. There was now a revival of interest and the membership was likely to increase rapidly. The grand chief reviewed in detail the grievances adjusted during the year. He reported that he arrested the charter of the Omaha division, No. 2, because of the publication by it of a paper called the Wasp, which belittled the grand officers and injured the order. This matter, he said, was now before the convention and it would have to pass judgment. The grand chief opposed state divisions of the order and favored state organizations. He also favored federation. Changes in the by-laws agreed upon by the grand officers of various railway organizations were recommended for passage. Mr. Ramsay told in full the story of his indictment and acquittal on a charge of having conspired to cut the wires of the Cedar Rapids railroad, with which the order-was having trouble. thirty-four wage schedules. ARMOR PLATE FRAUDS.

Testimony Rendered Showing How Enermons Has Been the Swindle. WASHINGTON, May 24.-The congress sional investigation into frauds and irregularities in naval armor plate began today, with open doors. Representative Dunphy stated his information came from documents sent to the departments, from official papers and from the newspapers. Mr. Dunphy's statement detailed the early discovery of the irregularities and the investigation made by the Navy department which led to the fining of the Carnegie company. Mr. Dunphy said armor plate had been tested at the Indian Head proving grounds and had been found defective. It had then been retreated so as to overcome the defects. "Was this treatment in secret?" asked Chairman Cummings.

Mr. Dunphy answered in the affirmative.
He said that one plate was picked out as a sample of a large number of plates, amounting to 348 tons. When this secret retreatment had been made it served to pass the sample plate, and that in turn passed the entire 348 tons of armor. Mr. Dunphy then spoke of blowholes in the armor of the monitor Terror. Experts had gone to the monitor ferror. Experis had gone to the navy yard and actually had located the blowholes which had been filled up to deceive the government. Similar blowholes existed in the armor of many other ships, but it was impossible for the experts to locate the defects, as the ships were abroad at their stations. The first charges covered 700 defective plates.

In conclusion Mr. Dunphy said: "My in formation is the defective plates will be found on the Oregon, the Machias, the Castine, the Monadnock, the Cincinnati, the Terror, the New York and the Monterey, and that the exact position of the plates on each of these vessels can be located by the parties who made the complaint, and whose names the committee will be able to obtain from evilence on file in the office of the secretary of the navy. My objects in offering the original resolution of inquiry were, first, that the government might save perhaps mil-lions of dollars by the discovery of these great frauds, and, secondly, that if our cruisers and battleships had plastered on their sides and elsewhere armor plates so defective as to lessen their effective iess the government upon discovering it might take proper steps to remedy this evil and provide for the safety of the ves-sels." He added the defective plates located by the government experts had been estimated to be worth from $700,000 to $1,000,000, and on these the committee had asked Captain Sampson of the naval bureau of ordnance to appear tomorrow.
