Several Saloons Too Near Churches to Conform to the New Law.

MUST MOVE OR CLOSE THEIR DOORS

City Attorney Hazleton Put in the Day Making Measurements and Has the Job About Completed-Only Twelve More to Measure.

City Engineer Etnyre was busy a good part of yesterady making measurements of the distances of saloons from all adjacent churches or school houses, to ascertain if any of them were barred by the 300-foot limit. He was instructed to do this by the city council some time ago, but he postponed taking any action until he could receive a report from the city attorney on the question of how the measurements were to be taken, as there seemed to be doubt as to whether the line should be run from entrance to entrance, along the sidewalk, or in an air line such as a man would be apt to follow if he wanted a drink in a hurry.

Yesterday morning City Attorney Hazelton reported that the line should be run from the saloon to the nearest point on the church or school, and Etnyre commenced his investigations. During the day he measured about fifty saloons, so that he now has about a dozen to look after. Of the fifty he only found five that were within the prescribed limit. Claus Thompson is right across the street from the Broadway Methodist church, so that he is about 200 feet too close. The saloon of Hahn & Zim-merlis, near the corner of Broadway and Sixth streets, is 250 feet from the First Baptist church, and the Omaha, Tremont house, and Metropolitan hotel are considerably too near the German Lutheran church at the corner of Ninth street and Avenue A. All of these will have to be ruled out by the council in accordance with the provisions of the new law.

S. Y. B. Reception An entertainment was given by the young nen of the S. Y. B. Friday evening at the residence of E. E. Hart on Willow avenue. The lawn in front and in the rear of the house was gally decorated with Chinese lanterns and presented a beautiful appearance. A large number of the young friends, and older ones as well, of the boys dropped in and spent a delightful social evening. A pleasing program was rendered in the house, among the performers being Glen Wood of Sedalia, Mo.; Mrs. W. W. Sherman, Mrs. F. H. Evans, Miss Irene Test, Miss Sadie Farnsworth, the mandolin club, and the S. Y. B. quartet: Misses Schoentgen, Baldwin and Pinney looked after the candy booth, and the boys, dressed in white aprons, served refreshments on the back lawn.

Raided a Gambling House Late Friday night the city marshal's department got out after the proprietors of the upstairs department of the Mint saloon on Middle Broadway, on the supposition that they were engaged in keeping a gambling house. The officers entered both front and back doors simultaneously and surprised about fifty men in the act of betting on the red. There was a hasty exodus but out of the crowd the officers managed to secure John Scheffler, the proprietor, and his employes, J. C. Hanford, better known as "Suspender Jack," W. H. Morton, J. O'Neal, J. O. Davis and Frank Wells. They gave bonds for their appearance and were discharged for the rest of the night. In police court yesterday morning they were given a hearing. It seemed that they had been given some reason prior to the last city election to hope that they might be allowed to run if they did it quietly. During the races a gambling house was run at the driving park under the protection of the police and marshal's department, and Scheffler and his men inferred from this that they could run without fear of molestation. The fact that a crap joint was being operated each night in a saloon less than two blocks from the police station was another straw that showed which way the wind blew. The court thought their offence was not a very serious one under the circumstances, and so he only fined Scheffler $14.60 and discharged the rest on their promise future good behavior.

"Put His Foot in It."

One of Council Bluffs' society young men while walking down Main street dropped into a well known men's furnishing establish-ment and asked to be shown something "right up to date" in men's shoes. The dealer handed down several pairs of the giddiest things he had in stock, and the young man after carefully inspecting them selected a pair and inquired the price. Upon being told that he could have his choice for $3.50 he lost no time in putting his foot Just such things happen every day nt 919 Main street, and it only goes to show that T. B. Hughes is selling men's furnishings and shoes cheaper than any one in the city. Call and be convinced.

Sentenced Two Prisoners Charles Foster, who pounded Constable Baker last winter while the latter was trying to arrest him, was found guilty of assault in the district court yesterday and sentenced to sixty days in the county jail or to pay a fine of $200.

Josie Hulbert, who shot at David Long was given sixty days and a fine of $200, which will run her jail term term up to about five months. Her attorney, Colonel Dailey, asked the court to reconsider the sentence on the ground that she was crazy, having come from a stock that was not al-together clear-brained. Judge Thornell thought about it, but after an hour or so of thinking concluded not to change his Judge Thornell left for home last evening and will not return any more this term. Tomorrow morning Judge Lewis will arrive in the city and hold his first session of court in this city, commencing on the Melzer blackmailing case.

The grand jury will begin another short session in the morning, and it is likely that some of the indictments they bring in will be tried in court before the close of the present term. Frank Jones, charged with burglaring the shoe store of William Asmussen, was acquitted by the jury.

Lawyers Versus Officials. The game of base ball at the driving park yesterday between the attorneys and the city and county officials was a very interesting affair. There was a great many things about it that would have been objectionable to a base ball artist, and the that the diamond became too much crowded at times for comfort. But for unadulter-ated fun it was just what the public had ated fun it was just what the public had been waiting for, and the by-plays and misplays were applauded with as much enjoyment as though it had been Anson's colts that were getting pounded into the earth in their well known way. The game only lasted five innings, though why it was the city and county officials could not exactly determine, further than that the announcement of the umpire was made after a short discussion between the umpire and some of the members of the legal nine. The work the members of the legal nine. The work of Etnyre and Askwith in the pitcher's box and of Thomas and Canning of the officials and Schury of the attorneys behind the bat was highly artistic. At the end of the fifth inning game was called, the attorneys win-ning by a score of 9 to 5. Grand Plaza, Lake Manawa. Grand Plaza will be open to free admission every day up to noon. From noon until midnight an admission fee of 10 cents will be charged, which will admit to grounds and to concerts and all entertainments.

Supervisors Adjourned. The board of supervisors has adjourned without acting on the resolution granting the right of way to the Council Bluffs & Lake Manawa Electric Motor company. The county attorney has not yet rendered his opinion as to the legal right of the board to do what the company wants, and there do what the company wants, and there seems to be some uncertainty as to when he will. From what can be gathered from the guarded remarks of the parties on the inside, it appears that there is little anxiety on the part of the board to grant the right of way, and the present intention is to let the matter go by default.

Libeary Party. Tuesday evening Mrs. Chamberlain, at her come on Bluff atreet, entertained in an informal manner the Bluff street M. I. L. C. and several other guests with a library party. It was a fitting thing that the M. I L. C., after their long and arduous struggle for knowledge should at last resolve themselves into books, with their titles cunningly arranged for one to guess, and bound in colors, sober, grave or gay as seemed good to each. After the guessing came the library chat, in which each book gave the sum and substance of its contents. A table covered with various articles arranged to represent the titles of books and a humorot eading were also features of the evening Elegant refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. Then came games and then good night and the books fluttered away into the dark. The first to go was the "Golden Butterfly," guarded by "Innocence Abroad," carrying "Golden Rod." "The Tax on Tea" came slowly down with "The Light of Other Days." "The Light That Failed" went out. "Fern Leaves" folded her ferny form and took "Dora" home. "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" sailed away with "Abrigation and "The Chain Bearer." night and the books fluttered away into the Leagues Under the Sea sailed away with "Alvininnim" and "The Chain Bearer," "Oliver Goldsmith," "Lace," "Rose in June," "World's Fair Views," "Rose in Bloom," "Bow of Orange Ribbon" and "Not Like Other Girls" swiftly followed. "Pickwick Papers" and "Called Back" were the last to say goodnight. Then "Middlemarch," "Little Bed say goodnight. Then "Middlemarch,"

Thousands of Dollars Loaned on Western

DUBUQUE, June 9 .- (Special Telegram to The Bec.)-A bill was filed in the United States court here today in which the eastern stockholders ask that a receiver be apponited for the American Investment company of Emmetsburg, Ia. Subsequently John Stewart & Co. of Manchester, England, who hold over $1,000,000 of the defendant's obligations, filed a bill of intervention, asking for a joint receivership.

Judge Shiras issued an order to the defendant to show cause why the receivership should not be granted. This order is re-turnable June 19. Complainant's bill charges the American Investment company with in-solvency or its officers with mismanagement. A. L. Ormsby of Emmetsburg is president and W. L. Tillford of Emmetsburg secretary The authorized capital is $1,000,000, of which $800,000 is paid up. The company has loaned between $7,000,000 and $5,000,000 on farms in South Dakota, western Kansas and Nebraska, Wyoming, Colorado, Washington Oregon and Texas. It has outstanding about $3,000,000 of guaranteed loans and $2,000,000 of debenture bonds, and of these $5,000,000 of mortgages 40 per cent have been defaulted and defendant company is unable to make its guarantee good. Many tracts of land on which the com pany's eastern investors hold first mortgages have been allowed to go to sale for the taxes of 1892 without the knowledge of the eastern investors. It is further alleged that large sume of money collected by the company for eastern investors in its loan and bonds have been spent by the corporation without these investors' knowledge or consent. July 1 next $100,000 will be due on these degentures in principal and $60,000 in interest, and the ompany will be unable to make the pay-Two hundred thousand dollars of deber ture bonds issued by the company were based on second mortgages and stocks in defunct institutions. The company holds 400 mortgages, representing $400,000 on land in Holt county, Neb., so poor that purchasers for it could not be found even at tax sale, and it reverted to the county for unpaid taxes. Men took up homesteads on this worthless soil, and by collusion with the company's local agents, who reported false appraisements to the home office, secured loans of $890 to $1,000, then abandoned the farms as their only purpose in taking up the claims was to secure the loans.

In South Dakota also the company holds mortgages on 1,600 tracts of worthless land, many of the farmers having abandoned their farms after securing the loans. The ease and enormity with which this imposition was practiced on the company is attrib-uted to the careless and reckless management of the company, particularly in em ploying incompetent inspectors or field agents, who were supposed to examine the lands and pass on their value. The company's New York office has been closed and it is believed the application for a receivership will not be resisted.

RAIN IN IOWA. Drouth of a Month's Duration Broken in Several Places. CRESTON, Ia., June 9 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-The drouth of over a month's duration in the blue grass region was broken here today by coplous rains. Hail accompanied the rain, but not of sufficient quan-tity to do any danger. The oat crop will be a partial failure and the hay crop will be exceedingly light for this section as a result of the drouth. Corn will be a full crop.

Omaha Wealers at Burlington. BURLINGTON, Ia., June 9 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-Burlington today received Omaha's contingent of Coxeyites. "General" Kelsey and army arrived at 3 this afternoon, and were immediately compelled to board a boat and were taken to Shoquon landing, six miles down the Mis-sissippi on the Illinois side. The general and an Omaha newspaper reporter, who seemed to be acting in the capacity of "un known" made a vigorous kick against leav ing Burlington so suddenly, but one or two leaders, including the Omaha reporter, were placed under arrest and were taken aboard, when the rest meekly followed, and the boat pulled out amid cheers. Will Take His Medicine. DES MOINES, June 9 .- (Special Telegram to The Mee.)-The motion for a new trial for George Barnes was overruled in the federal court, and, realizing the doubtful result of a hearing in the appellate court and not caring to incur added costs and heavy attorney fees in the event of defeat, Barnes has concluded to abide by the finding of the district court and submit to the sertence of four years' imprisonment at Fort Madison and pay a fine of $1,800. He was given ten days in which to arrange his business affairs. His offense was the purchase of $1,400 of stolen postage stamps and acting as a "fence" for stolen property. Creston Jail Birds Escape. CRESTON, Ia., June 9 .- (Special to The Bee.)-B. A. McKinney and John Huffman, two prisoners confined in the county jail, made their escape by removing a large stone from the foundation. Another prisoner gave the alarm and the sheriff and a posse are now out scouring the country for the fugitives. McKinney was sentenced for five months for assaulting Dr. S. L. Groves with attempt to commit murder, and Huffman was awaiting the action of the grand jury for robbing a store at Apton.

Rained Three Hours at Malvern. MALVERN, Ia., June 9 .- (Special to The Bee.)-The drouth of the past four weeks was broken this morning by a fine rain, lasting about three hours. The rain was greatly needed. The hay crop and wheat and oats is practically ruined, but the corn will be greatly benefited. The fruit, espe-cially apples, need much more rain to insure a good crop. The small fruit will be only about half a crop, owing to the late frost.

We ther Prophet Honored. PERSIA, Ia., June 9.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)-The drouth was broken here last night by a refreshing rain. This rain was predicted some three weeks ago by L. I. North of this city. He was presented, in behalf of the citizens, with a $7 hat, but declined. Was Imprisoned in an Unhealthy Jail.

SIOUX CITY, June 9 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-Walter H. Brooks, who was confined in the county fail after it was condemned by the grand jury as unhealthy and contracted consumption, has commenced suit against the county for $10,000 damages. Glenwood's Drouth Broken.

GLENWOOD, Ia., June 9.-(Special The Bee.)-Eighty-seven one hundredths of an inch of rain fell here last night. Re-ports from other parts of Mills county indi-cate that the spring drouth is generally broken.

FOREMAN C. F. BROSIUS.

"I have been trying Dr. Shepard's treatment and find that it cures long standing catarrh. When I went to him I was in bad shape every way. I was always out of sorts. My head felt stuffed and feyerish, with sore pains through the nose and eyes. I had a wretched headache that seldom left me. There was a feeling, hurd to describe, of bodily depression, a sickly sensition all through me, as if my whole machinery was out of gear.

"I always had a yellow coating of the tongue and a taste of sour poisons in the mouth and rising from the stomach. All relish for food left me and my stomach lost its power. Bloating and distress always came after my meals.

"My sleep was bad. At night I was unable to procure any real rest. It began to wear me out, for every day the whole system seemed to be getting farther from a natural, healthy state."

SUMMER ADVANTAGES

In all troubles of a catarrhal or bronchist nature, one month's treatment in the summer is, as a rule, worth two in the winter, It is in the summer that nature lends her ald to the work of the physician. The even temperature makes conditions specially favorable for a speedy cure. The liability to catching cold is reduced to the minimum. Time and again have Drs. Copeland & Shepard urged patients in desperate stages of catarrh to wait until summer for treatment, and they have never failed to urge all who have any traces of this insiduous disease to emigrace the opportunity which summer offers, and rid themselves of it then, even when its symptoms are 1288 distressing and annoying then usual.

HERE'S A CASE.

Plain Words from a Plain Man-A Western Cattleman Sees No Harm in Giving a Bit of Personal Experience.

Mr. W. B. Richards, Whitewood, S. D., & drover and shipper well known among stockmen in Omaha and throughout the west, took time the other day, although a busy man, to go on record as follows: "My life has been an active one, and full "My life has been an active one, and full of exposure; still, for a man of 59, I am hearty and rugged. About two years a.o. I began having pains in my head-duil at times—then shooting and darting in every direction. So severe were they, by spells, that they prostrated me. I had to go to hed, keep absolutely quiet and exclude all noise and light.

led, keep absolutely quiet and exclude all noise and light.

I noticed my mose gradually closing up until it was scaled tight. A bad discharge was constant, which became fetid and terribly offensive. The nostrils were sore and raw. At night the phiegm and matter from my nose and throat almost drowned me. I had to get up out of bed to hawk and spit it out to keep from choking.

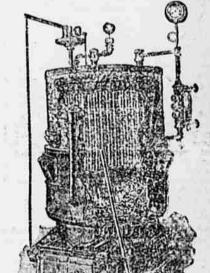

"This was a wretched state. I long d to breathe through my nose and get rid of the ulcerous discharge that was abominable to myself and friends. With this object I came to Omaha to be cured. My discase was pronounced catarrh, with soft tumors, or polypi, of the nose. These Dr. Shepard removed at once and without pain, making my nose clear and open. This is a wonderful relief. All oder has disappeared and I am feeling like a new man. Under the mail or home treatment my catarrhal disease has easily yielded. Let me say that I highly appreciate the work of the physicians in my case."
