BIDDING THEM FAREWELL

How Visiting Congregationalists Spent Their Last Day in Omaha.

EXCURSION AND CARRIAGE DRIVE

Largely Attended and Cordial Reception at the Commercial Club Rooms Last Night—Some of the Features of the Convention.

For sixty-seven years the Home Missionary society of the Congregational church has been holding annual meetings in the state of New York or the immediate vicinity and at each meeting reports were heard from the various secretaries and plans were made for the future.

At the sixty-seventh annual convention, held in Saratoga last year, somebody suggested that it might be advisable for the society to hold its sixty-eighth annual convention in Omaha, where the contributors would come in contact with the men and women benefited by their donations.

The suggestion was adopted and as a consequence the convention has been held in Omaha during the past week. It was the first convention of the society ever held in the state of New York and many of the delegates in attendance for the first time saw what they had always considered the great American desert. What they thought of the country and city into which they came may be gathered from the expressions of a few.

Dr. Herrick of Boston, who is considered the greatest speaker in the church, said: "I am amazed at the number and beauty of the business blocks and public buildings as much as I am at the breadth and clearness of the streets. Since I have the evidence of my own eyes I do not wonder at the many enthusiastic remarks made by strangers when they visit our 'hub.' Omaha is a remarkable city and the convention held here has been one of the most successful ever held by the society, and I have attended many of them."

Dr. Clark, the senior secretary, says: "The convention has been one of the most successful ever held by the society, and I have attended many of them."

MAUD RUBEL'S DEATH.

Preliminary Hearing of Dr. Brown Commenced in the Police Court.

The preliminary trial of Dr. W. P. Brown, charged with the murder of Maud Rubel, was called in police court yesterday.

The court room was crowded. Assistant County Attorney H. L. Day conducted the prosecution. Dr. Brown was represented by George Jeffrey.

Dr. Brown entered the court room in charge of Captain Mostyn and took a seat directly behind his attorney. The prisoner was neatly dressed in a dark Prince Albert suit, and wore a gold watch chain and a silk hat. During the hearing the doctor appeared perfectly composed and took very little interest in the testimony.

George Mahoney, an intimate friend of the Rubel family, testified to viewing the remains of Maud Rubel, and identified the hair, forehead and lips. He said that the body shown him was that of Maud Rubel. Neither the hair nor the lips were especially large, and his hair was long and a very dark red. On cross examination witness admitted that he did not make a very careful examination of the remains, but felt sure that the body shown him was that of Maud Rubel.

Arthur Pelham of South Omaha said that he had known the Rubels about four years. He said that the remains at the morgue and in the morgue were especially large, and his hair was long and a very dark red. On cross examination witness admitted that he did not make a very careful examination of the remains, but felt sure that the body shown him was that of Maud Rubel.

George H. Brewer, South Omaha, testified that he had known Maud Rubel for a couple of years. He said that the remains at the morgue and in the morgue were especially large, and his hair was long and a very dark red. On cross examination witness admitted that he did not make a very careful examination of the remains, but felt sure that the body shown him was that of Maud Rubel.

John Stelling, who lives near the Nebraska Indian agency, identified the body of Maud Rubel as that of the girl who had been killed by the doctor. He said that the remains at the morgue and in the morgue were especially large, and his hair was long and a very dark red. On cross examination witness admitted that he did not make a very careful examination of the remains, but felt sure that the body shown him was that of Maud Rubel.

Charles Jackson, a resident of Valentine, who was charged with unlawfully selling liquor, was indicted before Judge Dundy yesterday and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

A United States deputy marshal arrived in Omaha last night with John Thomas of Sheridan county in custody on an indictment charging him with giving White Owl, a Sioux Indian, a drink of whisky. Stelling was indicted on two counts, but as he pleaded guilty to one of the counts he was dismissed. Judge Dundy fined the man $1 and costs and sentenced him to serve ten days in jail.

Justice Brewer is expected to arrive in Omaha some time during the coming week in order to sit in the hearing on the maximum freight rate case, which will come up for a hearing in the federal court.

MR. OLSEN'S DISCLAIMER.

OMAHA, June 9.—To the Editor of The Bee: In regard to the column in The Bee about Mr. Rheem's salary as acting city electrician and as far as my connection with the same is concerned, I will simply say that I never expressed an opinion whether Mr. Rheem's warrant could be legally paid or not if not signed by the mayor; further, I have during my term of office given at least 100 such certificates as the article refers to and the treasurer, as a rule, has paid them. He has simply done as he was directed to do, and I have never asked him to pay either in the case of Mr. Rheem or any one else, and in fact I never inquired or cared. Such certificates of which I think the treasurer has any number on file, are not addressed to him or any one else; sometimes he has advanced the money and sometimes other parties. I never asked the treasurer to do anything of the kind, and he has never done it. That covers all I have to do with it, but I think the treasurer, if he saw fit, could just as well have paid this; it is his private business and had nothing to do with the injunction. The city would not have been paying Mr. Rheem until the warrant was delivered, and the warrant is and was always in my office, not even detached from the stub. News must be very scarce.
