The meetings at the Fifth Avenue Methodist church every evening are very interesting, and a large crowd fills the pleasant auditorium nightly. Evangelist Miller, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. J. Indus Farley, is an interesting talker, and good results are anticipated from his labors.

The peanut men made a raid on Bayliss park yesterday. One of them built a beautiful wood colored shanty at the corner of First avenue and Pearl street and several more were preparing to set up rival estab-lishments when the mayor swooped down on them and put a stop to further operations. The first comer had to move his house to another corner remote from the park, and the others were frightened out.

A partial investigation was made by Judge McGes yesterday morning into the difficulty the conductor of the Manawa motor train had with a party of young hoodlums last Sunday night. Jake and Nick Bethers had been summoned as witnesses, but after they had told their story the judge came to the con-clusion that they knew altogeher too much and ordered them both failed on the charge of malicious mischief. It is said there were about a dozen mixed up in the affair, and the city marshal is after them all.

It costs no more to have your fire insurance in old and tried companies, like the Glens Falls and Imperial, than in those which are new and untried. Lougee & Towle, agents, 235 Pearl street.

"Put His Foot in It."

One of Council Bluffs' society young men while walking down Main street dropped into a well known men's furnishing establishment and asked to be shown something "right up to date" in men's shoes. The dealer handed down several pairs of the giddlest things he had in stock, and the young man after carefully inspecting them selected a pair and inquired the price being told that he could have his choice $3.50 he lost no time in putting his foot into it. Just such things happen every day at 919 Main street, and it only goes to show that T. B. Hughes is selling men's furnishings and shoes cheaper than any one in the city. Call and be convinced.

City Attorney McCabe's Substitute for the Manawa Electric Ordinance Discussed.

NO FINAL ACTION TAKEN IN THE MATTER

Sweeping Changes from the Proposition Offered by the Company-Judge Aylesworth Addresses the Council on the Mulet Law's Enforcement.

The city council met yesterday as a committee of the whole and for three long. dreary hours listened to James McCabe's suggestions for the amendment of the ordinance granting the Council Bluffs & Lake Manawa Electric Rallway company a charter to put in a line of track between the city and the lake. He had drawn up an ordinance which he wanted the aldermen to substitute for the one already proposed. His ordinance was radically different from the old one. In that it loaded the company down with a great many responsibilities which the company was decidedly averse to shoulder-

Among other things, he wanted a clause inserted making the charter forfeitable without the order of any court the moment any of the rules laid down by the city council in the charter or that might hereafter be made by resolution or ordinance should be broken. In short, he wanted the council to undertake the running of the line and to have full con-trol of the company, without having any of the responsibility of seeing that the line paid occasional dividend.

When the council met in the evening Mc-Cabe's suggestion that the city assume the right to dictate the policy of the roid was quietly sidetracked, and the ordinance, after nsiderable discussion, was finally passed almost the same shape as it left the hands of the city attorney. Stipulations were added that the company should put in 2,000-candle power electric lights every two blocks from Ninth avenue to the city limits, and that the franchise should not be assigned to any one else without the con-sent of the council. The right of way was granted along the streets proposed at first namely, slong Sixth street from Ninth svenue to Eighteenth avenue, east to Fourth street and south on Fourth street to the city limits. The entire road must be completed by January 1, 1896, although in case of injunctions or other similar causes of delay, the time may be extended not to exceed two years after July 1, 1895. The company must file its acceptance within twenty days of the passage of the ordinance.

Other items of considerable interest came up for consideration. The work which the park commissioners have been trying to induce the council to have done, the grading of Pacific avenue from First to Second avenue, was ordered done, all the property wners having filed their consent The petition of the wholesale liquor dealers to be exempted from the payment of the monthly tax imposed by the city on sellers of intoxicating liquors was opposed on the ground that it would be hard to draw the linel inasmuch as there was hardly a wholesaler in the city who would not sell from a pint up, and not a retailer who would not sell by the case. On motion of Gleason the petition was refused. MORE ABOUT MULCT STORES.

Engineer Etnyre presented the report of another measurement he had made of the distances of certain saloons from neighboring churches by the nearest highway instead of by an air line. By this new measure-ment Hahn & Zimmerli, 545 Broadway; the Pioneer saloon, 923 Main street, and the Metropolitan hotel, 818 Broadway, were found to be more than 300 feet from the nearest church, while Wheeler & Herald, Claus Thompson, Max Burmeister and Fred Fuller were shut out by the nearest high-way route as effectually as by an air line. Judge E. E. Aylesworth appeared before the council in the interest of certain saloonists and proceeded to explain that the council was going out of its way to enforce a law which it had no responsibility about.

"Throughout this new law," said he in substance, "the city government is ignored entirely, and all the responsibility for seeing that it is enforced is rested with the torney in his opinion that the mayor has the right to yeto resolutions passed by the city council granting permission to sell, and the court is the only power that has the right to determine how the distance shall be meas-ured. The policy of the law is to throw the saloon business into the streets as much as possible, and of course the most natural way to measure the distance would be in the highway, where the public travels."

He also took occasion to hit the mayor and the police a dig under the ribs. 'It is the business of the police," he said, "to preserve peace and protect property, not to snoot around and see if some one is taking a drink behind some screen. The law expressly states that nothing contained in it shall be construed so as to legalize the sale of intoxicating liquors. Consequently, every saloon that runs under the mulct law is run-ning as illegally as it was under the prohibitory law. Why should you make any exceptions and shut out some because it s claimed they are running a little more illegally than others?" Judge Aylosworth's little talk stirred up the animals to a certain extent, and when he had finished, they hardly knew whether they wanted to lose sleep over the way the saloons were running or not. They finally decided, however, to have one more night's rest broken, and postponed the further con-sideration of the questions involved untithis evening, when another council meeting will be held.

Iowa's Institution of Learning Graduates

Class of Ninety-Four. IOWA CITY, Ia ... June 13 .- (Speical Telegram to The Bee.)-The State university graduated ninety-two gentlemen and two ladies from the law school today. Among the number was Rodney Warren Tyrell of Manchester, formerly member of the lowa senate, and over 50 years of age. Frank O Loudin of Chicago made the unnual address, discussing the "Lawyer's Allegiance to the Law." The oration is pronounced one of the finest ever heard here. He held that lawyers as a class are strong in their allegiance to the law. He paid a glowing tribute to the great lawyers of this country, present and past. Referring to topics of the day he said:

Widespread discontent now prevails in the world of capital and labor. and employe are out of sympathy with each other, one charges conspiracy to crush, the other conspires to enslave. The lawyer's position is clear. Though deeply touched by the laborer's condition, he cannot forget that the law of the land does not permit the use of force in preventing him from work ing wherever he can secure employment Peaceable combination of labor is conceded, but used to deprive others of their rights is sedition. Human government is far from perfection. The lawyer concedes any party the right to its personal views, but when i governor talks of 'blood to the bridle' he thinks treason. 'Coxey's army, socialism, patriarcnal laws alarm him little, but armed revolution tells him to invoke the vengeance of outraged law."

Bankers in Convention. DES MOINES, June 13 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee. 1-The Iowa Bankers asso ciation met in eighth annual session here today, with about 100 delegates in attendance. NATIONAL MILLERS ASSOCIATION.

Resolutions Adopted Commending Reciprocity Treaties.
CHICAGO, June 12.—The Millers National association of the United States met at the Grand Pacific hotel. The meeting was called to order by President C. B. Cole of Chester, Ill. A committee was appointed to memorialize congress to amend the laws to memorialize congress to amend the laws so as to impose a tax on patents and thereby prevent the holding of unprofitable patents by people who seek to benefit by infringements.

W. D. Sparks proposed that the convention recommend the passage of the Hatch anti-option bill, but the suggestion was vigorously opposed and finally withdrawn. Resolutions were adopted commending Senator Washburn's amendment to the tariff bill providing for the establishment of reciprocity with foreign countries for the benefit of American agriculture and products. The following officers were elected: President, A. C. Loring, Minnesota; first vice president, R. M. MacGill, Maryland; second vice president, B. F. Isenberg, Pennsylvania.

The following compose the executive committee chosen for the ensuing year:
C. A. Pillsbury, Minnesota; George Urban, ir., New York; S. H. Seamans, Wisconsin; W. A. Combs, Michigan; W. S. Shailibarger, Illinois.
The convention closed with the discussion of a proposition requiring the railroids to furnish open bills of lading or bills of lading agreeing to deliver all goods received for shipment without restrictions or conditions.

At Courtland Beach. Fifty prairie doge have been added to the collection of animals, and this is one of the chief attractions for the little folks. The evenings are beautiful for driving and a large number of fine turnouts, including several family vehicles, visit Courthand nightly. This seemingly, is one of the first places visited by every newly purchased conveyance.

Among the visitors at Courtland beach were: P. P. Kirkendall and wife, Charles B. Hall, Mrs. Woodman, Judge Dundy, Judge Brewer, Elmer Frank and family, J. L. Brandles and wife, Scip Dundy and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brandles, Pierre Garneau and party. Fred Metz. jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cahn, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cahn, Councilman Cahn and family. purchased conveyance. and family.

The largest crowd of the season attended Courtland beach last evening, and to say that it was an appreciative audience that witnessed the La Rose brothers in their Chinese act does not half express it. Alberta, the juggler-also received merited applause. In fact the applause, as Superintendent Crane expressed it, was the first genuine applause that has ever been given at Courtland. Manager Griffiths says he's going to increase the attendance and recognizes the fact that while the weather is too cool for bathing, attractions are the only thing that will draw the crowds.

Miners Not Inclined to Acquiesce in the Action of Their Leaders.

WANT TO HEAR SOME EXPLANATIONS

Unless the Officers of the Union Can Give Some Very Good Reasons for the Compromise the Men Will Stand Out.

PITTSBURG, June 13 .- Unless the national officers of the United Mine Workers union, who made the compromise at Columbus, can give a satisfactory reason for so doing the miners in the Pittsburg district will not ac cept the 69-cent rate and the strike will con tinue. Scores of telegrams, letters and delegations have been pouring in on the district officers here from all parts of the district, denouncing the compromise and all declare work shall not be resumed next week. President McBride has been telegraphed for. The miners throughout the district are very decided in their condemnation of the national conference because all the delegates to the out for 79 cents and they think their dele gates were buildezed into giving the members of the executive committee the right of com With forty-three operators in the listricts bolting the compromise the miners claim they have no assurance that the 60-cent rate will hold and that a uniform rate of 79 cents is the only scale they can agree

The train of coal stopped by the strikers at Monongabela yesterday was sent through to Pittsburg during the night. About forty men are working in the mines under guard of the deputies. The company has given no-tice that the works will resume in full or Monday at the Columbus rate and that the old men will be given the preference.

The circular sent out by the officers of the miners union admitted that the agree-ment was not satisfactory, and anticipated much grumbling. The officers, however, urged the men to take what they could get in consideration of the faut that they had already been out for eight weeks. Inci-dentally the circular referred to the law-lessness that had been laid at the door of the strikers and, while it disclaimed on their behalf much of what they had been charged with, it admitted that the danger point had been reached, and explained that for this tion, and the best terms possible had been strike in this section seems to be as far from being settled as ever. They stand almost as one man against the compromise made at Columbus, and say the 69-cent scale will not receive their support. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 13.—State Presi-lent Crawford of the miners union says he has received no official information of the Columbus compromise, but if the report as published in the newspapers is correct the Springfield and southern Illinois miners will not accept it. The only communication President Crawford has received from national headquarters was an order to call a convention of the miners of districts 5 and and he immediately issued a call for the convention to meet here Saturday, the 16th. Charles Redgely, president of the Consoli-dated Coal and Coke company, said he would disregard the settlement and would continue pay what he had paid heretofore COLUMBUS, O., June 13.—John McBride says the miners will accept the situation and

Mass Meeting at Spring Valley Calls Upon the National Officers to Resign. SPRING VALLEY, III., June 13 .- At a delegate meeting of Northern Illinois miners this afternoon, at which at least 1,000 miners were represented, it was unanimously resolved to never dig a ton of coal until the operators restore the last year's price. From now on the operators will have not only the foreigners to combat, but the English speak-ing miners as well.

Resolutions were adopted expressive of the feelings of the districts. The resolutions declare: We, the miners of Spring Valley, Ill., in mass meeting assembled, believe such action on the part of the national officers to be a cowardly surrender of the principle for which we were standing, to-wit, last year's prices; therefor, be it Resolved. That we reprobate the action of our national officers in accepting the scale. Resolved. That we call upon our national officers and the members of the executive board who signed the aforesaid scale to re sign from the positions which they have dis-

WATCH BABY'S FOOD.

June Starts the Deaths Among the Thin and Pale Ones-Repeated Assurance of Physicians That Lactated Food is the Best

A mother's instinct the holiest thing alive At a jump she reaches conclusions that physicians arrive at only by long experience. Every mother feels that baby's span of life is measured by the summers safely ed. She speaks of her infant as a child of so nany summers. Thousands of infants are every season safely carried through the trying summer, kept well, and steadily gain in weight and size by the use of lactated food. Mrs. L. L. Bardett, 568 W.Sanborn street, Winons, Minn., writes: "I Nursed our baby until he was four months old, and my health was in such a terrible state that it through him into inflamation of the bowels of a se-vere type. His life was dispaired of I had heard about lactated food, and by the adome. The baby liked it from the first and it agreed with him. He got well and began to grow fat at once. At six months of age he weighed twenty five pounds. He never had the slightest trouble with teething, his teeth coming without knowledge, until we could piest, sweetest babies one would care to see No family should be without lactated food
