

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, Editor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily (without Sunday), One Year, $3.00...

THE IDLE CURRENCY.

The people who are demanding more currency, on the ground that an increase of the circulation would stimulate enterprise and revitalize business activity, ignore the fact, if they are aware of it, that never before was there so much idle currency in the country as at present, and never were the rates of interest at the financial centers lower than now.

The system of speed premiums, then, has brought out a wonderful capacity of our ship builders to excel in the construction of fast war vessels and to exceed even the former stringent speed requirements of our naval engineers.

have ventured to ask if all the improvements of the past year have been more than counterbalanced by the shrinkage in values. This of course is a matter of opinion upon which people may properly differ, but it does not affect the question of assessing property at its real value, as the law requires.

THE RACE FOR GOVERNOR.

Lincoln News: Ross Hammond shows some signs of revival against the established order of things. He is trying to boom Henry D. Estabrook for governor, when everybody knows that the republicans propose to nominate Tom Majors or Jack McColl to that position.

DEMOCRATIC DISASTER.

Norfolk News: Nebraska farmers are growing weary waiting for dollar wheat. Perhaps Mr. Bryan will explain the delay when his circuit opens in Omaha next Thursday.

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Perhaps Croker went abroad to arrange a trial of steeds with Rosebery. Portland, Ore., presents unrivaled claims to the title, "The Venice of America."

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes Daily (without Sunday), One Year, $3.00; Daily (with Sunday), One Year, $3.50; Three Months, $1.00; Six Months, $1.50; Sunday, One Year, $1.50; Weekly, One Year, $1.50.

No important legislation is to be expected from the lower house of congress this week. Bryan will not be there.

The senate has advanced from wool to silk. In the meantime the people are receding from cloth to rags.

Premier Crisp keeps his head in moments of emergency, although he has been officially decapitated on more than one occasion.

Ballet-proof coats are the latest European fad. They will soon constitute an indispensable garment in every gentleman's wardrobe.

The question soon to be once more decided is: Do the janitors run the school board or does the school board run the janitors?

Boss Croker insists that the object of his European trip is to witness some of the turf events on the other side of the Atlantic. Mr. Croker knows enough now to keep off the grass.

Two more senators implicated in the sugar certificate speculation, one through purchase by his son, the other directly through his own dealings. No federal legislation has been more stepped in corruption than the sugar schedule of the new tariff bill.

Silver coin will be accepted in Omaha this week in liquidation of all debts that may be contracted by the delegates to the conference of free silver democrats. This is one of the special inducements upon which the promoters of the meeting rely to secure a large crowd.

The deputy United States marshals have made a big haul on the first day of their outing, but the marshal himself will reap a regular golden harvest. These million bills at 10 cents a mile for the army of deputies traveling deadhead will yield enough revenue to enable him to stand the brunt of the whole democratic campaign.

Is it not about time to have the Douglas county republican central committee convened for the purpose of issuing its call for the primaries to elect delegates to the state convention? Calls have already been issued in several counties, and there is no reason why Douglas county should defer its primaries to the very last day.

Reorganizing the police force cannot be accomplished by dismissing incompetents and mischief makers alone. The vacancies must be filled by men whose reputations are unimpaired and who give promise of improving both the discipline and the efficiency of the department. Too much care cannot be exercised in completing the corps of officers in command of the force. Past experience ought to teach a useful lesson on this subject.

After all the squabbling and mutual recrimination it looks as if New York were going to hold on to the Indian supply depot, Chicago, in the interval, however, remains a branch depot. But it is not likely that she will cease her efforts now, particularly after having given New York so hard a fight to retain it. When the main depot finally comes west Omaha ought to see to it that a branch warehouse is established here. It is bound to come west before many years elapse.

Senator Vest explained on the floor of the senate that one of the purposes of putting wool on the free list was to discourage the manufacture of shoddy. How does this comport with the democratic position that excused for purposes of revenue only? If it is unconstitutional to encourage industries by means of tariff duties it is equally unconstitutional to discourage industries by discriminating in favor of foreign importations. We have levied a tax on oleomargarine in order to discourage its manufacture, and similar treatment of other articles might possibly be defended if they are considered detrimental to the public welfare. A democratic senator, however, ought to be the last person to propose such a thing. It only goes to show how untenable the tariff for revenue only idea is.

The gathering of a mob to force the jail and the subsequent revelation that a large body of colored people had organized to combat any attempt to break Sam Payne by force of arms suggests the imperative necessity of a more rigid enforcement of the laws and ordinances against carrying concealed weapons. The right of citizens to carry arms in their own defense is inviolate, but the prevailing habit of carrying fire arms and other deadly weapons by persons who are disposed to use them on the slightest provocation is a constant menace to public safety. There is no reason why any man not an officer should be permitted to carry concealed weapons about his person unless his life has been threatened or he can show good reason why he is obliged to carry them in self-defense. Here is a field in which the police can make itself useful.

A PERMANENT EXPOSITION.

No western city outside of Chicago is as favorably situated for a permanent interstate exposition as Omaha. Within a radius of 150 miles we reach out into the heart of Iowa and Nebraska and into the most prolific sections of Kansas and South Dakota.

South America is rapidly coming to the fore as a market for our goods. It is not only a market for our goods, but it is a market for our money. It is not only a market for our goods, but it is a market for our money.

Striking Evidence of Reform.

Outside of the convention hall Tuesday the order of the day was to see the globe over the finger of the leader of an opposing faction. While the act of masturbation was successfully progressing the sign of education is fairly launched and issues are set squarely before the people.

Shun the Deadly Staff.

Ice water is a more deadly poison than prussic acid. It is a more deadly poison than prussic acid. It is a more deadly poison than prussic acid.

How About Sugar?

The democratic party is not for sale at any price. It is not for sale at any price. It is not for sale at any price.

A Timely Rebuke.

Governor Crouse of Nebraska rendered an important service yesterday in publicly rebuking the Nebraska bar association professor who had been invited to deliver the commencement oration at the University of Nebraska.

Recollections of Bill Tweed.

Europe may be a haven of safety for Croker, but it is not a haven of safety for Croker. It is not a haven of safety for Croker.

No Maximum Rate Juggle.

It will be well for the people of the state to keep their eyes on the mode of conducting the maximum rate juggle. It will be well for the people of the state to keep their eyes on the mode of conducting the maximum rate juggle.

The West and Sugar.

The republican party made sugar free and reduced the tariff on sugar. It made sugar free and reduced the tariff on sugar.

THE SUGAR PLUM LINE.

Mr. Havemeyer rests boldly upon the proposition that sugar is to be made free by talking with a United States senator.

Infallible Sign of Civilization.

South America is rapidly coming to the fore as a market for our goods. It is not only a market for our goods, but it is a market for our money.

A Legislative Curiosity.

In wool the tariff bill is for free trade; in sugar it is for protection. It is for free trade; in sugar it is for protection.

Striking Evidence of Reform.

THE SUGAR INDEMY.

Courier Journal: Havemeyer as a politician is not much better nor worse than the majority of our professional statesmen who seek to unite business and politics.

Buffalo Express: Supposing that Mr. Havemeyer had told the truth, and the most ardent supporters of the pending bill cannot escape the fact: The sugar schedule was lobbied through by the president of the trust and his friends.

Chicago Herald: Mr. Havemeyer, according to the Washington dispatches, told Mr. Gray...

Chicago Post: One can imagine with surprise the democratic members of the committee reflected that this was the conspiracy and here the man to whom they had been made to crawl on their hands and knees...

Philadelphia Times: Immigration is at a standstill, a natural sequence to the business depression prevailing the past year, and the present season promises to take the place of the year 1898.

Cruel and Discriminable.

Long distance horse racing in the United States was born and has died at Chadron, Neb. It will be remembered that last summer started from that previously unknown little settlement in the northwestern corner of Nebraska there was a good deal of what may fairly be termed "fakery" in connection with the races.

DEMOCRATIC DISASTER.

Norfolk News: Nebraska farmers are growing weary waiting for dollar wheat. Perhaps Mr. Bryan will explain the delay when his circuit opens in Omaha next Thursday.

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Perhaps Croker went abroad to arrange a trial of steeds with Rosebery. Portland, Ore., presents unrivaled claims to the title, "The Venice of America."

BOQUETS OF MIRTH.

Plain Dealer: About the only chance a poor gas consumer has is to burn with indignation.

LABOR NOTES.

Kansas City, Kan., now has a trades assembly for Omaha. The trades assembly for Omaha is now being organized in Kansas City.

LABOR NOTES.

Chicago Tribune: "What do you mean by saying Croker is on the home stretch?"

PROPHCY FULFILLED.

Richmond Dispatch. "The day is not far distant, dear, when we will fly."

OUR NIGHTS ARE COOL.

Nixon Waterman in Chicago Journal. No matter where you choose to go, from Maine clear down to Mexico, we don't know why they tell us so, but it is the same.
