COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE - NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONES—Business office, No. 42; night editor, No. 24.

MINOR MENTION.

The firm of Shea & Galvin has dissolved partnership.

The Young Men's Temperance club has postponed its meeting until one week from tonight, July 1.

Ernest Steinman, St. Joseph and Jane E. Walker of this city were married by Justice Veen yesterday afternoon.

A special meeting of Bluff City lodge, No. 71, A. F. & A. M., will be held this evening for work in the third degree and a banquet.

Members of Pottawattamie tribe, No. 21, Improved Order of Red Men, are requested to be present on Wednesday's sleep. Business of importance.

A special meeting of the city council has been called for this morning at 9 o'clock to open bids for paving and sewer and to let contracts for work.

The Little Dulce society of St. John's English Lutheran church will give a lawn social at the residence of J. N. Swanson, 220 Franklin avenue.

J. Alvin Huster, the well known violinist of this city, and Miss Louise H. A. Mehlis of Bloomington, Ill., are to be married tomorrow evening at Neumayer's hotel.

Etta, wife of Warren Wicks, died last Tuesday at her home in Palestine, Tex., very suddenly. She had many friends here who will be shocked to hear of her death.

Woodward Bros., architects, have awarded contracts for an elegant residence for John M. Galvin. It is an architectural beauty. They have also awarded contracts for a school house in Garner township.

A popular rally is announced for next Friday evening at Bayliss park, and James B. Weaver will speak at 7 o'clock.

Local poets are making preparations for a big time generally, and may possibly have a street parade.

The case of Frank Jones, charged with burglarizing the shoe shop of H. Adams and C. Peterson, is on trial before Judge Lewis.

All of yesterday was occupied with the hearing of evidence, and the trial will be resumed this morning.

Elmer R., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schultz, aged 11 months, died at 11:40 o'clock yesterday morning, after a two weeks' illness. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, 323 Tenth avenue, and the remains will be buried in Fairview cemetery.

The members of the various lodges of Odd Fellows in the city united in a memorial service at the Christian tabernacle Sunday evening in honor of their dead comrades.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills, E. W. Allen appropriate to the occasion, and the services throughout were very impressive.

J. F. Peterson was arrested last evening on the charge of highway robbery. A man named Hansen with whom he had been drinking the afternoon, was the complaining witness.

He claimed that Peterson took the money from his pocket while he was drunk, while Peterson claimed Hansen gave it to him to pay for a hack.

Mrs. Horace Everett, Mrs. R. S. Lyman, Mrs. Samuel Haas and E. W. Hart, all entertained the members of the boat club and their ladies at the club house at Manawa last evening.

The guests were magnificently entertained with music, dancing and other amusements, and the boats of the club were used by those who preferred out of door pleasures. Dainty refreshments were served.

During the afternoon company will run all trains from 1 p. m. to 3:30 p. m. to the gate, where passengers will be transferred to a train inside the gate bound for the grand stand. After 3:30 o'clock stub trains will be run from the grand stand to avenue A as often as desired.

After the races passengers will be carried direct to either Omaha or Council Bluffs without change.

One of the inmates of Stella Long's place came home with a wildly hilarious jag last evening and was carried to the street by the landlady. She ploved up the earth in the back yard for awhile, and made so much noise in the operation that she attracted the attention of Officer Easton, who arrested her. It took four men to carry her from the patrol wagon to her boudoir in the sky parlor.

The report circulated by certain saloon keepers that they had been given permission by Deputy Marshal Fowler to run their saloons on Sunday in violation of the mayor's order, provided they did so quietly, was denied with considerable emphasis yesterday by Mr. Fowler. Both the mayor and the marshal were so worked up over the report that it is probable that redoubled efforts will be put forth next Sunday to see that the law is obeyed.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Arrangements Rapidly Being Completed for the Fourth of July Celebration.

HAVE THE FIREWORKS ALREADY ON HAND

Will Use Those that Have Been Prevented Being Burned on the Occasion of the Grand Army Reunion—Guards and Cadets Will Touch Them Off.

The committees on Fourth of July celebration held a joint meeting last evening in the hall of the Woodmen of the World and made a start toward the grand celebration which it is their intention to prepare. Vacancies were filled on the various committees and general plans were talked over. The details will be left in the hands of the various subcommittees. One thing that has filled the hearts of the celebrators with a feeling of heavenly rest is that the committee that is planning entertainment for the Army of the Tennessee, which meets here in September, has decided to give up its claim to the fireworks which were left over from the Grand Army encampment. It has been decided to turn them over to the High School cadets and the Dodge Light guards. These two organizations will be asked to fire them off on the Fourth, and there is a good prospect that they will comply with the request.

A nice, cool swim at Manhattan beach, Lake Manawa, is the proper thing to take these hot days.

Washerwomen use Domestic soap. Hurt in a Runaway. Mrs. F. S. Thomas was out riding last evening on Eighth street, accompanied by her two daughters and Miss Myrtle Parks, when the front axle of the buggy broke.

The horse, which is ordinarily sedate enough for anybody, took fright and started to run. The girls jumped out and escaped unharmed.

Just as the buggy crossed the Indian creek bridge on North Eighth street Mrs. Thomas was thrown over the dash board and fell between the horse and the buggy. The buggy was almost demolished before the horse divided to stop. Mrs. Thomas was picked up and carried to her home on South Eighth street, where it was found that she was not seriously injured, but had sustained a number of severe and painful bruises.

Accred to Go Home. Constable Jackson returned from Missouri Valley yesterday with Willard James, Bert Luke, Mattie Cole and Cora Hoffman in tow, having found them all at the Valley. They had spent two nights at a road house. The whole outfit was arrested in Pleasant Field court yesterday morning and James and Luke had their cases continued until this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The story they tell is that they ran across the girls accidentally in Missouri Valley.

The two girls were brought to Justice Field's office during the morning for the purpose of having them sent to the reform school. Both have been very much inclined to waywardness, but Mrs. Hoffman did not want to prosecute her daughter. The venerable judge pulled his face down to the requisite length and gave the girls a talk, which was received by them with sundry giggles and backs. They finally decided to go home, although nothing was said about their being good, and the justice had to dismiss the case.

Domestic soap outlasts cheap soap.

Arrested for Burglary. The burglarizing of the residence of S. S. Wynore, adjoining the School for the Deaf, Sunday afternoon, gave rise to the report that the School for the Deaf had been broken into. George Johnson and a companion, William Van Scoy, went to the house during the afternoon to get some clothing they had worn while working at the school. After getting the clothing they left the house, but returned an hour later, when all the members of the family had gone away, and were seen loitering about the premises. Information was filed against them both yesterday morning, and during the day Johnson was arrested and locked up in the jail with the charge of burglary.
