VEGETATION BURIED UNDER BANKS OF HAIL

Strip of Territory Eight Miles Long and Two Wide Swept Almost Clean of Crops - Farm Buildings Sustain Much Damage.

N. T. Neurological Society. Meeting. April 4, 1983
"A case was presented of locomotor ataxia, which had been treated with hypodermic injections of CEREBRINE. Six years ago the justicest, a man aced forty, had begun to suffer with double vision. This, after several months of treatment, had disappeared, and for a time he had been quite well. The typical symptoms of locomotor ataxia then came on, complete loss of knee-jerks; sharp pains in the legs; ataxia gait well marked; inability in stand with the eyes closed, difficulty in evacuating the bladder and bowels; sexual power lost; a sense of constriction around the waist. Treatment was begun about the weeks ago, and consisted of a daily hypodermic injector of CEREBRINE. Hammond five drops, combined with a like amount of water. Improvement very marked; sexual functions perfectly restored; complete control over bladder and howels, and sharp pains had disappeared; general beauth improved; able to fin in and down stairs, and could stand steady with his eyes closed, No other treatment employed. Improvement gradual and steady." NORDEN, Neb., July 12 .- (Special to The Bee.)-One of the most destructive hall storms ever experienced in this courny occurred Tuesday. The strip of total destruction of creps was about one and a half miles wide and eight miles long. Hall lay six inches on the level, and in many places in ravines there are solid banks six feet high, washed there by the torrents of water that fell. The wind blew a hurricane, overturning all granaries, cribs and outbuildings. W. E. Bassett is the greatest loser, having w. E. Bassett is the greatest loser, having had over forty panes of glass broken, and other damage to the amount of $100, four orthord and being the stripped of bark from every limb from top to the ground. David City Press Not Satisfied with the Executive's Conduct. LINCOLN, July 12 .- (Special to The Beed)

Governor Crounse in pardoning Dave Cook of that city on July 4. Cook was convicted of criminal assault in February, 1893, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. A thousand signers were secured to a petition asking the governor to pardon the boy. This petition was signed by the judge who sentenced him, the prosecuting at torney and most of the members of the jury which convicted him. Governor Crounse Jury which convicted him. Governor Crounse refused to grant the pardon. The Press states that about three weeks ago, Daye's father was in that office looking up the new law on paroles, but found that they did not apply in that case. At that time he remarked to the David City Press man that Mr. James Caldwell of Lincoln would get Cook out of the pen for $100 in time to celebrate the Fourth of July. Governor Crounse explains that the law does not admit of a parole before the minimum time of mit of a parole before the minimum time of the sentence has expired; that after the pe-tition was presented he investigated the case and discovered that it was a meritorious one, and when next called to his attention he signed the pardon. He says that he knows nothing of the Lincoln attorney's connection with it, but did what he considered right in the matter.

Willard Gimm, treasurer of Logan county, came into the auditor's office and settled up his account. He resigned June 22, presumably because somebody discovered that his

President Rowe of the Western Base Ball association met with the stockholders of the Lincoln club last night and as a result of the conference the Sunday game will be played in Omaha. The Lincolnites were somewhat aggrieved that he refused to play two games next Saturday afternoon, but Manager Rowe gave them to distinctly understand that he was in it for the money. derstand that he was in it for the money.

Owing to the funeral of Major Hastings this afternoon the asylum investigation was postponed until tomorrow and the state house was mearly deserted.

Sunday School Jubilee Day.

FREMONT, July 12 .- (Special to The Bee.) -This has been truly a gain day at the Chautauqua grounds and in the form of upon the project of a Sunday school jubilee day. During the morning hours the routine business of the assembly was pursued up to 11 o'clock, when Chancellor Sims began which was entertaining to both old and young, followed by short speeches by T. L. Mathews and others. Then an onslaught was made upon the lunch baskets. At 4 o'clock up in line, two abreast, and to the stirring music of the Normal band marched around the bicycle track and were counted to enable the judges to award the banners, one to the largest country school and one to the largest Fremont school present. This evening Chancellor Sims delivered his last lecture of the season, "Home Making."
