Phillip Shoh, who has been at the Woman's Christian association hospital for several days, a sufferer from cerebral meningitis, had to submit to a surgical operation a day or two ago. The operation was successful and he is now recovering.

Jacob Sims commenced a suit in the district court yesterday to recover $250 from the firm of Stout, Ames & Co., as attorney fees in the case of J. C. Smith against M. S. Stout. A writ of attachment was issued on the ground of the nonresidence of the defendant. The case referred to is one in which the ownership of the Ogden house is at issue.

Judge Lewis spent some time yesterday afternoon hearing the arguments of the attorneys in the case of Mrs. M. M. Robinson against Captain O. M. Brown. The plaintiff secured a writ of injunction restraining the defendant from taking measures to eject her from her residence on First avenue. The arguments yesterday were upon the question of dissolving the injunction.

Two women whose names are Ostrum and Barker, have found themselves unable to agree on the location of their homes. Justice Veen will arbitrate their differences next Tuesday. Mrs. Barker had the fence next to her property removed by Ostrum, and replaced it with a picket fence. The charge preferred against her is malicious mischief.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Lumber Yard Fire at Early Hour Yesterday Morning.

M'CONNELL & GREEN'S SHEDS BURNED

Attempt to Burglarize the House of Mr. McConnell During the Conflagration

Made Unsuccessful by the Screams of a Woman.

Before the fire department had fairly finished its work at the blue barn yesterday morning it had to respond to an alarm that came in at 3 o'clock from the corner of First avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The lumber sheds of McConnell & Green were on fire, and the extreme dryness of the material of which they were made caused them to burn with terrific rapidity. When the firemen arrived nothing but the skeleton remained, and they were unable to do any good. For about two years the sheds had been empty and the owners had neglected to make any arrangements for preserving their insurance policies by means of a vacancy permit. They carried policies to the amount of $2,500, but these are invalidated by the neglect, which makes the loss total. The sheds were insured in the city, and their value is estimated at not less than $4,000.

The cause of the fire is not known positively, but it is thought to have originated, either by accident or purposely, from a gang of horse traders which has been in camp in the vicinity for some time past. About half an hour before the first alarm was turned in a burglar made an attempt to break into Mr. McConnell's house on Third avenue near the corner of Ninth street. The burglar was away from his wife and the two servants were the only occupants of the house. The lady was awakened by a sound of whistling near the house and a few minutes later she heard some one creeping stealthily up stairs. At the head of the stairs she stopped and lit a match, and a second later entered Mrs. McConnell's room on hands and knees. She uttered a cry for help which sent the burglar out of the room on a mad chase for an open air.

She had taken the precaution to light the gas down stairs and, as he departed by the same window by which he had entered, he had unlocked the window from the outside by the use of a knife blade slipped up between the sashes.

As he left the house he ran past Mahlon Brown and E. D. Patton, who were sitting on the steps of the house. He was sitting on the steps of the house. He was sitting on the steps of the house.

He did not get very far, however, as he was overtaken by the police. He was taken to the police station and is now in custody.

The people of that part of Council Bluffs have been very nervous for several days past over the midnight prowlers who have apparently been looking for a place to get in.

Some of these prowlers were seen this morning some one attempted to break into the residence of E. A. Troutman, in the same neighborhood, but was frightened away just as he was about to enter the house.

POPULISTS NAME DELEGATES.

They Go Through the Motions of Preparing.

The populists of Pottawattamie county met yesterday forenoon at Liberty hall for the purpose of selecting delegates to the state and judicial conventions. L. Kinnehan called the meeting to order, and A. M. Hutchinson of Council Bluffs and G. N. Remington of Neola were chosen chairman and secretary. Committees on credentials, names of delegates and resolutions were appointed, and the convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

At the afternoon session the report of the committee on credentials was read and considered. The resolutions presented were on the pattern of those usually adopted at such gatherings. They denounced the republicans as monopolists, which they claimed was shown by the fact of the republicans selecting a corporation attorney as chairman of the county convention.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Fatal Accident on the Railroad Tracks Near Albright.

Missouri Pacific Express from the South

Did the Work—Labor Daily Monday Night—Other Magie

City News.

A fatal accident occurred at the railroad crossing in Albright at 7:15 o'clock yesterday, the victim being Mrs. M. Wagner, a child only 10 years of age. Frederick W. Wagner, father of the child, was also painfully bruised and given a severe shock.

Mr. Wagner and his daughter were in a light wagon and were on their way to South Omaha. Mr. Wagner did not see the approaching train until it was almost upon him. He whipped up the horse, hoping to get across, but the engine struck the rear end of the wagon and rattled it. The father and daughter were hurled from their seats and sent into the air. The child never regained consciousness. She was carried into a neighboring building and attended by Dr. Berry and Dr. Slaughter, but in forty-five minutes she expired.

The remains of the child were taken to the home of her mother, Mrs. M. Wagner, and will be buried there this afternoon. Her father is now in the hospital, and is expected to recover.
