

CAMP MORROW'S GREAT DAY

Fifteen Thousand Veterans Entertained at the State Reunion.

CAMP FIRES ATTENDED BY MANY

Iowa's Governor Presents an Interesting Relic to the Hawkeye Association of the Nebraska Department—Dr. Gagnier's Elect Officers.

GRAND ISLAND, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—The sun again rose brightly this morning and shines over one of the fairest Grand Army of the Republic camps ever erected on Nebraska soil.

At 9 o'clock a public flag presentation took place at one of the grand stands. Comrade R. E. Doran of Lincoln, editor of the National Camp Fire, on behalf of Governor Jackson of Iowa, presented in a few well chosen words the flag which ornamented the governor's table at Des Moines on flag day to the Nebraska-Iowa Association of Veterans.

At 10 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 11 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 12 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 1 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 2 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 3 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 4 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 5 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 6 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 7 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 8 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 9 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 10 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 11 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 12 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 1 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 2 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 3 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 4 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 5 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 6 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

At 7 o'clock Church Howe, department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska, received the veterans information, the former of which consisted of names, sons and daughters of veterans, etc., being held yesterday.

curd of in this place last evening resulted in the death of little Ruth McLaughlin this morning. The funeral will take place tomorrow. The mother will recover.

TAYLOR HAD A RAZOR.

Murderer Dunn Preparing a Good Case of Self Defense. HASTINGS, Neb., Aug. 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Cy Dunn, who was accused of the murder of William Taylor at Desoto, was arrested yesterday afternoon just inside the limits of Adams county by Sheriff Harris of Hastings.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Freemont, Aug. 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—About July 1 a broad-shouldered fellow calling himself Harry Clare came to Freemont and engaged in canvassing for a life insurance company of New York, and a short time after another similar individual, whom he introduced as his brother, came in and the two worked and swilled together until the local manager of the company learned that Harry was selling under an assumed name, his real name being Henry Taylor.

Beautiful Souvenirs Free. A Fifteen Dollar Suit For $5. A Nice Child's Suit For 75c.

We Open Saturday Morning, Sept. 1.

They're little, but Oh, my—they're fine—every man will like them. They're in gold—They're in silver—They're scarf pins—They're dandies—They're in the window—They're given with every suit.

A perfect suit—in sacks—straight or round cut—single or double breasted—six different shades—all wool. It's a $15 suit—if there ever was one—but no matter—it will advertise us—get one Saturday.

We will open Saturday one of the finest children's departments in the entire west and will show every style from 75c up—Knee pants 10c up.

The M. H. Cook Clothing Co., Successors to Columbia Clothing Co., 13th and Farnam.

Mail Orders Filled.

Mail Orders Filled.

OTHERS SINGED BEFORE

Vanderbilt Not the First Millionaire—Mention with Nettie's Charms. SAN FRANCISCO REMEMBERS HER WELL

Those Who Know Her Say She is Ample Able to Spend All the Money Her Latest Victim Can Lay His Upon Her.

MILLIONAIRE ON THE STRING. But his request was unheeded, and realizing the situation he applied for a divorce in the California courts and he got it. This was at the close of 1887.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

NETTIE'S CHARM. The heart of the millionaire was captured by the charms of a young girl named Nettie, a native of Eureka, Nev.; was educated at Miles seminary, Alameda county; resided for a number of years in San Francisco, and was frequently figured in escapades that have won her notoriety both in the new and old worlds.

RESOURCES ARE BOUNDLESS

More Men and Women Are What is Needed for Their Bringing Out. WHY SOUTHERN DEVELOPMENT IS SLOW

Convention at Washington to Devise Ways and Means to Boom the South—Suggestion of a Permanent Exhibit of the Entire Country.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The southern development meeting was called to order in Willard's hall, Samuel Blackwell of Alabama in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. B. Bagley the chaplain of the house of representatives. Commissioner John W. Ross of the District of Columbia, made an address of welcome, evoking applause by reference to the new south whose fine atmosphere, fertile lands with coal and iron beneath the surface and abundant timber above it, was only awaiting the touch of capital backed by courage and ability.

RUPTURE

can be OUR CURED BOND IN 4 TO 10 WEEKS. A NEW DISCOVERY. NO PAIN OR TRUSS. NO OPERATION OR DANGER. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS. Send for our New Book. NATIONAL RUPTURE CO.

119 S. 14th St. Omaha, Neb.

EUBERSA

THE GREAT Blood Purifier AND Nerve Tonic. A SPECIFIC FOR RHEUMATISM. The Blood Remedy of the Danimonda.

OMAHA, NEB., Aug. 8, 1894.—The Eubersa Company's Gentlemen—After using a number of different medicines and operations, and also prescriptions from some of the best physicians in Omaha, I have been cured of my blood poisoning. I have given me your GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER, and I have got relief that I never had before. As it has commenced, I shall be entirely cured in a few days. C. F. FAITH, 156 Farnam Street. All druggists have Eubersa for sale.

NEW LIFE

Dr. E. C. West's Nerve and Grain Treatment is sold under positive guarantee, by subduing agents only, to cure Weak Memory, Loss of Sleep, Nervousness, Headache, Dizziness, Indigestion, Night Sweats, Evil Disposition, Lack of Confidence, Nervousness, Lassitude, All Drains, Loss of Force of the Nervous System, and all other ailments of the Nervous System. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the above ailments. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the above ailments. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the above ailments.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Good Hope Seltzer. It is given in a cup of coffee, tea, or in hot water, without the knowledge of the patient. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the above ailments. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the above ailments. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the above ailments.

FAIR AND WARMER WEATHER AND VARIABLE WINDS FOR NEBRASKA.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The indications for Friday are: For Nebraska—Fair; warmer; variable winds, becoming south. For Iowa—Fair; warmer; south winds. For Missouri—Fair; south winds. For South Dakota—Fair; warmer in the eastern portion; variable winds, becoming south. For Kansas—Fair; southeast winds.

OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA.

Aug. 30.—Omaha record of temperature and rainfall compared with corresponding day of past four years:

Table with columns: Year, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation.

Statement showing the condition of temperature and precipitation at Omaha for the day and since March 1, 1894:

Table with columns: Date, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation.

Reports from Other Stations at 8 P. M.

Table with columns: Station, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation, State of Weather.

GEORGE E. HUNT, Local Forecaster Official.

FAIR AND WARMER WEATHER AND VARIABLE WINDS FOR NEBRASKA.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The indications for Friday are: For Nebraska—Fair; warmer; variable winds, becoming south. For Iowa—Fair; warmer; south winds. For Missouri—Fair; south winds. For South Dakota—Fair; warmer in the eastern portion; variable winds, becoming south. For Kansas—Fair; southeast winds.

OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA.

Aug. 30.—Omaha record of temperature and rainfall compared with corresponding day of past four years:

Table with columns: Year, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation.

Statement showing the condition of temperature and precipitation at Omaha for the day and since March 1, 1894:

Table with columns: Date, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation.

Reports from Other Stations at 8 P. M.

Table with columns: Station, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation, State of Weather.

GEORGE E. HUNT, Local Forecaster Official.

FAIR AND WARMER WEATHER AND VARIABLE WINDS FOR NEBRASKA.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The indications for Friday are: For Nebraska—Fair; warmer; variable winds, becoming south. For Iowa—Fair; warmer; south winds. For Missouri—Fair; south winds. For South Dakota—Fair; warmer in the eastern portion; variable winds, becoming south. For Kansas—Fair; southeast winds.

OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA.

Aug. 30.—Omaha record of temperature and rainfall compared with corresponding day of past four years:

Table with columns: Year, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation.

Statement showing the condition of temperature and precipitation at Omaha for the day and since March 1, 1894:

Table with columns: Date, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation.

Reports from Other Stations at 8 P. M.

Table with columns: Station, Maximum temperature, Minimum temperature, Average temperature, Precipitation, State of Weather.

GEORGE E. HUNT, Local Forecaster Official.