Reunion at Fremont One of the Most Enthusiastic of the Season.

ALLEN AND THURSTON THE SPEAKERS

Other Orators Entertain the Visitors in the Evening-Ex-Confederate in Hard Lines Kindly Assisted by Some of the Boys.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 28 .- (Special Telegram.)-The reunion held by the Dodge County Veterans association in this city today has been a decided success, notwithstanding the terrific gale which has kept the air full of sand and dirt. The city has been full of old soldiers, their families and friends all day. This morning the association elected officers and decided to hold next year's re-

Love's opera house was crowded to the doors during the afternoon. The principal speakers were John M. Thurston and Senator Allen. Both made eloquent speeches which were listened to with close attention and warmly appleuded. There was also special singing and band music. There was a camp fire in the City park this evening addresses were made by Revs. F. M. Sossion, J. W. Robinson and Maupin Colpatrick of Washington county, Prof. Clemmons of the normal and Senator Allen all talked upor patriotic subjects and many amusing and pathetic incidents of the war were related. Several hundred were in attendance.

VETERANS AT HAYES CENTER.

Ex-Union Soldiers Contribute to the Comfort of an Ex-Confederate.

HAYES CENTER, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)-The sixth annual reunion of soldiers and sailors of Hayes county closed today amid much enthusiasm at Paxton grove. It was one of the most successful reunions ever held here, the grave being alive with people from this and adjoining counties.

Among the speakers were Colonel A. C. Russell and Hon. J. W. Cole, who entertained the crowd satisfactorily for hours. One of the beautiful incidents of yesterday was the making of a collection by the comrades for James McCash, an old confederate soldier who has fallen into hard lines. He is the only one needing aid in this part of the country, and the way the old boys came to his rescue warmed every heart and dimmed many an eye.

Arrested for His Brother's Cr me. WILSONVILLE, Neb., Sept. 28 .- (Special Telegram.)-Jake Krea, living about six miles north of here, was arrested today upon a complaint filed by Adolph Fitzgerald, in which he alleged that young Krea yesterday afternoon made an assault upon his 13-year-old daughter. The defendant claims that his brother acknowledged to him that he was the brother acknowledged to him that he was the guilty party and that he had left for parts unknown. The girl was quite badly bruised in the struggle, but not seriously, as she was able to appear at the trial. After hearing the testimony the justice decided that as the girl was not positive as to which one of the Krea boys was the assailant, there being four of them and all bearing striking resemblance to each other, that it was a case of mistaken identity; consequently the prisoner was given his liberty.

The heaviest rainfall ever known here commenced this afternoon and continues tonight. The streets and cellars are flooded. Numerous washouts will undoubtedly be re-

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Sept. 28 .- (Special. -The district reunion closed last night with a rousing comp fire, lasting to nearly 12 o'clock. Yesterday the attendance was large. The weather was exceptionally fine for the occasion. The greatest speech of the session was delivered yesterday by H. M. Sullivan, candidate for the state genute from the Fifteenth senatorial district. His sent ments of patriotism were as grand as were ever uttered. By his oratory he captured the audience and was frequently applauded. At the business session J. L. Grimes was elected president; W. W. Cowles, vice president, and W. H. Russell, adjutant. The council of administration elected was P. H. Wymore of Callaway, L. J. Goudy of Broken Bow and H. W. Albert of Weisert.

Lincoln County's Agricultural Display. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Sept. 28.—(Special Telegram.)-Lincoln county has a very good exhibit of agricultural products at the county fair, now in session. The main interest today at the fair was the bicycle races. The two mile handleap was won by Henry Fred-rickson of Frement, who also won the one mile open. The North Platte Wheel club offered several valuable prizes, attracting riders from various parts of the state. Tomorrow's race will be the five mile handicap.

Demented Man Held at Neligh. NELIGH, Neb., Sept. 28 .- (Special.) -- An insane man was arrested a short distance east of town by Deputy Sheriff Clark this moraing. Little information could be obtained regarding him. As near as can be ascertained South Dakota. Yesterday he was seen to fall from a wagon while driving in a south-erly direction, and was assisted to start on way. He had a good outfit. The wagot was sold by a firm at Ellis, S. D.

Sheridan's Fair Closed.

GORDON, Neb., Sept. 28 .- (Special Tele gram.)-The Sheridan County Agricultural society closed its session last night. It was one of the most successful fairs ever held since the association was organized. There was a large attendance from all over the county. The races were good. D. T. Taycounty. The races were good. D. T. Tay-lor's horse of Hay Springs won first money in the trotting race. Time: 2:25. The agri-cultural display was excellent.

SANTA FE ABANDONED ITS POSITION

General Manager Holdrege Reports Favorably on Work of Extension to Billings -Nature of Traffic Arrangements -Other Railroad News.

The anticipated reduction in fare from the Missouri river to Chicago, on account of the action of the Santa Fe in making a cut on rates from Kansas City to Chicago, was not forthcoming, the Santa Fe withdrawing its cut rate, thereby restoring the equilibrium. Thursday Loncoln enjoyed a low rate to Chicago, and it was the intention of the Chicago lines to make the reduced rate effective from Omaha, selling tickets at this point for $7, and from Council Bluffs at $6.75, but the Santa Fe backed down from its pps'tion, and normal conditions once more
