Palmatier-Haskell. If there is anything in the old saw that a bright day is a harbinger of joy for a bride, then Miss Inez May Haskell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Haskell, may feel particularly happy over the occasion of her marriage last evening at 6 o'clock to Mr. William Edward Palmatier, at the residence of her parents, 1424 North Eighteenth

There could not have been a more charming wedding than that of last night, its refined simplicity, the beauty and worth of the bride, and the presence of many who have helped to make Omaha what it is, all combining in a perfect ensemble.

The plants were well distributed about the rooms, the cut flowers were in perfect taste with the occasion, and the bride of the lovely girls of North Omaha, was queen of the night, in a gown of satin duchesse, entraine, with high neck, the whole relieved by pearl trimming, a single nd, the gift of the groom, glistening at her throat, being the only jewelry she wore the father's idea that nothing could enhance the sweetness of his only daughter making itself felt in the modest, yet withal beautiful bridal gown.

Promptly at 6 o'clock the wedding party descended the stairs, the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank Haskell, leading the procession, followed by the maid of henor, Mis Lena Byrne, and the bridesmaid, Miss Min nie Collett, life-long friends of the Lride. Then came the bride, on the arm of her father, and lastly Paul Haskell, the young rother of the bride, bearing the ring. ing position in the embowered window in the parlor, Dean Gardner rend the marriage service, the harpists in the hallway playing an appropriate air throughout the motif. Miss Byrne wore a pretty Nile green moire with chiffon, and carried a bunch of Marechal Neil roses. Miss Collett wore a costume of India silk, trimmed with lace, and carried a boquet of Florida red

At the conclusion of the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room to those invited to be present at the wedding. a reception from 6:30 p. m. to 8:30 following, which was attended by hundreds of the friends of the bride and groom. Upstairs the presents were displayed, and they were beautiful.

At 9 o'clock the bride and groom left for Kansas City, enroute to Denver, and after January 1 they will be at home at 2216 Maple street, in a house being built for them by the bride's father. Mrs. Haskell, the mather of the bride, looking very youthful and very happy, notthe loss of a daughter, were a lovely black silk costume.

Those present at the wedding were, Mr. and Mrs. H. sides the family: Deuel, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Burket, Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Colby, and Mrs. Edwin Haney, Mr. and Mr. Joseph Redman, Mrs. Pinney of Eurlington Ia., Mrs. Tower of Creston, ra., Miss Anna Haskell, Miss Jennie Redfleid. to Hon Warner Miller, chairman of the republican state convention. It is in the main as follows: "RHINE CLIFF, N. Y., Oct. 10, 1894.— Hon. M'KINLEY IN ILLINOIS.

Addressed Great Crowds at Peorla and Springfield.

PEORIA, Oct. 19 .- The genial warmth of a typical lilinois autumn day came in very agreeably in contrast with the asperities of the Lake Superior gales which surrounded McKinleyism in the north with a meteorological chill, and the whole countryside of the Sucker state flocked to the stations along the line of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad to hear Ohio's governor talk about protection

After listening for several hours during the night in the Chicago railroad yards to the oothing lullabies of locomotive whistles Governor McKinley left that city at 6 o'clock on a special train, accompanied by Mr. John R. Tanner, chairman of the republican state committee, Mr. W. W. Tracy, president of the National League of Republican clubs, Mr. Henry Wulff, candidate for secretary of state. Mr. George I. Willetts of Chicago, who is a possible candidate for United States senator, Mr. A. B. Humphrey, secretary of the National League of Republican clubs and several other prominent party men.

Thirteen speeches were made during the norning at Joliet Morris, Seneca, Ottawa, Utica, La Salle, Peru, Spring Valley, Bureau Junction, Henry, Sparland, Chillicothe, and Peorla, At all of these places were cheering crow and waving flags and respectful audiences. crowd

PROTECTION FOR RAILROAD MEN. At Ottawa Governor McKinley spoke with special reference to the effect of a proective tartif upon the wages of railroad "Every occupation in ployes, saying: "Every occupation in this country is related to every other, and each, for the most part, is dependent upon the other. If the iron and steel workers of the country are employed the iron and miners are employed. If the building trades are employed the lumber men are employed. With thes conditions the products of agricul ture find a steady and profitable home market Nothing is more dependent upon the prosper ous business at home than the railroads The larger the production for which there is a demand, the larger will b the traffic of the railroads, and the that traffic the greater the demand for rail road labor and the better the wages which is vill receive. We cannot get along without each of these. That industrial policy which promotes the prosperity of the greatest num-ber of our people, will bring the best rewards to all of our people in whatever occupation they may be engaged. It used to be said by enemies of the protective tariff system that the railroad labor of the country has protection from our tariff legi-lation, and their work and wages were in no ways effected by the protective policy. The ex-perience of the last two years has demonstrated the fallacy of that argument, for while they have had no direct protection in the form of tariffs upon their particular of oupation, they have shared in prosperity under a protective tariff. cupation has suffered more from the depres-sion of the times occasioned by the reversal of a policy which encouraged and sustained the industries of the country and multiplied the production of the country." At Bureau Junction an excited individual interrupted the governor by complaining of a reduction of his wages as a laborer on the government improvement on the Henne-pin canal, and he was so persistent as to become odious. McKinley replied to him by saying, "I know nothing about your local controversy, but if it is with the government of the United States, you should go to that That is now controlled by the democratic party, and I do not represent that party, no am I in its councils or confidence

SPRINGFIELD BEDECKED SPRINGFIELD, III., Oct. 10.—The capital city of Illinois is in holiday attire in honor of Hon. William McKiniey of Ohio. The state house is well beflagged. Incoming trains have brought in thousands of people who want to see and hear the great exponent of protec ction of officers will probably result as follows: President, C. W. Raymond of Watseka; secretary, John A. Russell of Eigin, and assistant secretary, R. Little of Bloomington. Springfield was reached at 5 o'clock,

There was a big, notsy and rather disorderly growd, which seemingly struggled to sold their throats in yelling at Governor Kirley, and rendered it well nigh impossible for him to make his way to the state capitol, where the state league of clubs was in session. The hall of the house of representa-tives was packed, and as Governor McKinley entered the cheers of welcome given him were deafening. C. W. Raymond, vice president of the league, performed the prefunctory duty of making an introduction, character-izing Governor McKinley as being nearer the hearts of the American people than any man living in America. Renewed cheering continued for several minutes following the introduction, and when it had subsided, three theers for the "next president" were given and when it was suggested by some one to 'let it go again' three more rang out. The governor acknowledged the heartiness of the greeting, and after telling the club what t should do toward securing a great vic-ory in Illinois, added: You have everything to inspire you; few states in the union have such inspiration as the state of Illinois. You have in keepli the shades of Lincoln and America has the shades of Lincoln and America has in keeping his immortal name, and the re-publican party has in keeping the principles for which he contended when alive and these splendid principles still survive. always claimed some share in the nomination of Mr. Lincoln for the presidency. In 1856 in the city of Chicago when the third ballot had been taken Mr. Lincoln lacked one and one-half votes to give him the nomination. At the end of the third ballot there was hushed silence through that great wigwam. D. K. Carter of Canton, O., a near neighbor and friend of mine, who preceded me in congress, rose in his place and transferred three votes from Salmon P. Chase to Mr. Lineble making him the nominee. (Applause Some other state might have done it; som (Applause.) other state would have done it, but the fact remains that Ohio did it and we have treasured that fact with increasing pride and love ever since. (Applause.) You are and love ever since. (Applause.) You are ergaged in a splendid cause. We have no patronage to bestow; our cause rests upon principles, and if these principles are sucessful we will give employment and wages to many thousands more who are now working at starvation wages. We are ready now for a change (cheers), and we want to comnce to bring it about.

"Ohio will do it, don't forget that. We will put six republicans into the national house of representatives who will take the place of six democrats who are now there, to unite with your republican representatives and others from other states to prevent the democratic party from wholly destroying our industries and degrading American labor and American citizenship."

At the conclusion of his speech, Governor McKinley hastened to visit the Lincoln nent, and this evening addressed from a platform erected in the state house grounds. an audience of thousands. As in Peoria, arsion trains have been run into the city and the city is thronged. At 10:45 a spe-cial on the Wabash took the governor to Detroit, where he speaks tomorrow.

ADLAI'S SMALL AUDIENCE. Logan County's Democrats Kept at Home

by Rains and Chilly Weather. LINCOLN, Ill., Oct. 10 .- In point of num-ers the demonstration of democracy of Logan county here today in honor of Vice President Stevenson was a keen disappointment. The day was raw and chilly, a high wind setting in early, growing more violent as the day progressed. The vice president spent the night here as the guest of friends. He was escorted to the leading hotel at 11 m., and held a public reception-until noon. The outdoor meeting was abandoned at noon and a hall resorted to. The city was pro-fusely and suitably decorated by flags, banners and bunting. The vice president was introduced at 2 o'clock by Dr. Ambrose M. Miller, Governor Altgeld's main manager, and delivered a lengthy address.

"In the presidential contest of 1892," he declared, "the battle was fought and won by the democratic party, almost upon the single issue of tariff reform. Upon the issue of reduced tariff taxation, upon the necessaries of life, as against high protectionism, Mr. Cleveland was elected and the democracy restored to power. For the first time within a third of a century the democratic party on March 4, 1893, controlled the presidency and both houses of congress. Under these con-ditions the country had much to expect of the great historic party now restored to power. How has the party kept faith with the people? What steps have been taken along the pathway of tariff reform? Has the democratic party but "kept the word of promise to the ear and broken it to the hope;" or has it made an honest effort to make good every promise made in its plan the hustings? This is the submitted to the peaceful form and upon the hustings? question now submitted to arbitrament of the ballot.

"I shall endeavor to show that the democratic party has kept faith with those who intrusted it with power; that against monopofostered and strengthened by more than a third of a century of republican legislation ong strides have been taken along the line of true tariff reform."

The speaker reviewed the conditions leading up to the panic of 1893 and pictured the financial distress of the country at that time. He then reviewed the work of the democratic ongress and when he came to the tariff bill he said: "From the beginning I have been a firm believer in the doctrine of free raw ma terial. But it must not be forgotten that while the house of representatives contained a democratic majority of nearly 100 our maority was but one in the senate."

The vice president then entered into an exhaustive review of the tariff bill and dethat it marked the turning point in tariff legislation. He made reference to Ulinois campaign, paying a high tribute to Senator John M. Palmer and the democratic nominee for the senatorship, Franklin Mac-The democratic nominations state officers were commended, and speaker closed with an earnest plea for the re-election to congress of W. M. Springer.

WOMEN WAGING WAR.

Crusade Against Tammany Receiving Strong Reinforcements.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.-The great campaign of the women against Tammany and municipal corruption will open on Friday afternoon. Many of New York's most fashional, most influential and richest women have been enlisted in the cause. The first meeting will be held on Friday at 3 p. m. at Association hall, where Dr. Parkhurst will deliver an address. In his address Dr. Parkhurst will tell just what reasons empted him to urge women into the fight. He will say that a debased and rotter nicipality is a menace to the home and honor and virtue of woman.

There will be a council committee of seven, consisting of one from each assembly district. Colonel J. J. Gifford, "Brick" Pomercy and W. H. Shriver were appointed upon committee last night. There will also be a general committee, and it is hoped to secure 160 women from each assembly dis-trict in this city, making at least 3,000 in Mrs. Cynthia Leonard, who is the speech at the meeting. She spoke of relation of the women to the movement. In the Tenderloin precinct women have decided to work for purity in municipal poli-tics. A number of them voted to do so at a meeting of the Young People's Social Culture club held last evening in the home of

HAINER'S SPEECH IN THE AFTERNOON

He Talks | Good Protection, but Falls to Arouse Enthusiasm for Majors-Will Gurley Abuses the Bee and Its Editor at Night.

WAHOO, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special Telegram.)-This has been one of the greatest republican days in the history of eastern Ne braska. Hickory shirt badges were seen on the streets from early morn until a late hour this evening, but a disinterested person would not know the meaning of them unless told. More than a thousand republicans crowded into the Wahoo opera house long before I o'clock. It was the opening meeting of the campaign in Saunders county and many distinguished republicans were present. The gathering was most enthusiastic. Horace M. Clark was chairman of the meeting. Promptly at 2 o'clock he rapped for order and introduced Hon. E. J. Hainer, present member, and candidate for congress from this district. Mr. Hainer made a good protectionist speech. Free coinage of silver, sald Mr. Hainer, means taking the silver to the mint and having made into money, the same as taking wheat to the mill and having it ground into flour. Continuing, the speaker said: "When you want a theory for any measure must go to a republican, or go without a correct solution." Again he said Thomas Jefferson was more of a republican than a democrat, and far from the doctrine taugh by the democratic party of today. He said that the best definition for 16 to 1 means simply sixteen idle men to one situa-Continuing he said the Coveyite are nothing more than populists, and that populists were Coxeyites. Regarding the state campaign, Mr. Hainer said: "Majors is in a bad row of stumps." The crowd in the audience yelled "Correct you are," and the congressman went on: 'We should all pull together and insure his election. There is a combine to defeat Majors that must be rebuked." He next drifted to capital and labor, and said the man who preaches that doctrine is a nuisance to society and good government, the same as the man who strives to cause trouble between man and wife. With t few pathetic words for the republican state ticket, Mr. Hainer closed his remarks amid great applause. The Arion Glee club of York then sang a song, which enthused the audience to an alarming extent. . The chorus ran as follows;

I had $15 in my inside pocket Saturday,
But I'll give ye all a warning;
Since the democrats got in,
Oh, I've been living mighty thin,
For its a divil a cent I've had on Sunday mornin'.

This closed the afternoon At the evening meeting Will Gurley was introduced, and made a good republican speech, outside of indulging in much abusive anguage concerning The Omaha Bec. pictured The Omaha Bee building as one of the greatest structures in Nebraska, and recognized the mighty influence and power of that paper. He said that the republican party had made Rosewater and The Bee a mighty power in the republican party of Nebraska, but today the refusal of Rose water to support Majors was a treacherous act on the part of The Bee editor. The next and last speaker was Hon. John L. Webster of Omaha, who made the best speech during the rally. It was full of good republican truths, from beginning to end. The meeting proved itself a star occasion ng the republicans of Saunders county and will long be remembered for the came over from Ashland in a body, accompanied by the Ashland band, which furnished the music for the occasion.

Howard County People Entertaineds ST. PAUL, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special Telegram.)-This has been republican day in St. Paul. From early in the morning the business portion of town was decorated in honor of the occasion. At 1 o'clock Hon, John M Thurston drove in from Grand Island, and escorted by the Grand Army veterans and the St. Paul and Elba Republican clubs to the opera house, where he spoke for an hour and a half to a crowded house of all political mixtures. He made an excellent speech, and was often and loudly applauded confining himself mostly to the tariff and silver questions and national issues in general. He got off several telling anecdotes on Bryan, which brought down the house The rally was a grand success.

American Debenture Company of Chicago Goes Into the Hands of a Receiver. CHICAGO, Oct. 10,-Elias Summerfield was appointed receiver for the American Debenture company today. The action was taken at the request of the stockholders and directors of the concern. The obligations of the company are said to amount to $1.500,-660, and its holdings of stock are considerably larger than that sum. The bill for a receiver were filed by C. D. Turney, J. L. HEAVY MINING SUIT DECIDED. United States Court of Appeals Uphoids

Arbitrators' Awards.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.-In the United States court of appeals today opinions were handed down in two important cases. In the case of Samuel H. Nolan, Stephen W. Kearney and Lewis Rockwell, against the Colorado Central Consolidated Mining company, appealed from Colorado, Judge Thayer delivered the opinion which directed that the order vacating the award of arbitrators be not dis-turbed, but that the judgment dismissing the plaintiffs' suit be reversed and remanded The plaintiffs sued for $100,000 for alleged ntry of a mine by defendant and claimed by plaintiffs. By agreement three arbitrators were appointed, and while the hearing was in progress, the defendant heard that the arbitrators were being influenced against it. The defendant company then served notice of revocation of its agreement to arbitra-tion, but the court would not admit the right to revoke the agreement, and the arbitrators returned a judgment against the defendan The trial court set aside this award and dismissed the plaintiffs' suit

The appellate court affirmed the decree of United States court of Kansas, dismissing the bill of the St. Joseph & Grand Island railroad, brought to restrain the sheriff of Doniphan county, Kansas, from seiling bridge over the Missouri river for taxes.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Tony Farrell, the singing Irish comedian, will present his new comedy-drama of the Emerald Isle entitled "Garry Owen" at the Fifteenth Street theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matines of this week. It deals with stirring events in the Emerald Isle in a sensational and altogether pleasing manner. Tony Farrell is the star and he sustains the part of Garry Owen, the hero, most simirably. The piece is full of exciting episodes which follow each other in such quick succession that the audience hardly has a breathing spell, but then there are a number of bright specialty acts which relieve the play of any suggestion of monotony. With rare skill Mr. Farrell has se lected capable artists for the many marked character parts and is surrounded as a consea clever and well balanced company. The singing and music is excellent and sublime rendering of the Easter service in the chapel scene by the grand church choir is worth the price of admission. The scenery is rich and in good taste.

"Chatterton presents the apotheosis, so to speak, of poetic despair-the bitterness of unrequited toil, the proud man's contumely of the baser sort have quenched his fine aspirations; hunger cold—all manner of hard, cruel privations have broken his physica th. Crushed in spirit, cramped in shattered in body-reason long tottering is at last dethroned. he destroys with caressing hands the children of his imagination-and then poison destroys the remnants of life in weary body. ON THE POWER OF THE PRESS.

Myron W. Henricks Tells the Banker What a Necessity the Newspaper Is. BALTIMORE, Oct. 10 .- The twentieth anmai convention of the American Association of Bankers convened at Ford's opera house at 10:30 this morning. Every section of the union is represented. Secretary Giese of the association says that the crowd's check for $150,000,000 would be cashed. Ad-

'We have grown to accept the newspaper as one of the necessities of life. It enters every department of daily action and its circulation is as indespensable as the circulation of money. It supplies a natural, inherent emphasized for coming generations the condition of a people without a press when he de-clared that 'All the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else but either to tell or to hear some new thing. Imagine a people devoting all their time in obtaining what they can get today for 3 cents or less! The influence of the press must be known and appreciated when t comes directly in conjunction with or in opposition to our business affairs. Last year he attention of this country, and I might say almost of the whole civilized world, turned to the subject of finance. That was all the country wanted to know about. Therefore every newspaper in the land ministered o the wants of its constituents and the peculiar effect of this journalistic attention banks was such as to not soon be forgotton. To say the least, it was a mixed blessing If the policy of many newspapers helped to plunge us into our difficulties the policy of others helped to extricate us. The press was, therefore, like the knight whose lance helped to cure the wounds it made.

The press is the mystic camera which puts before you daily a photograph of the world with all its good and bad; the magic power which fills every house with the sweet life and presence of Phillips Brooks and at the same time makes that other equally famous Bostonian, John L. Sullivan, the occasional guest at every breakfast table. It presents the interesting details of the convention of the world's parliament of religions; also the report of another day of the Breckinridge-Pollard trial. In a touch-and go style administers to the vanity of one man, and at the same time in an illusive, wanton way throws suspicion on the character of another. It brings to you the details of the war n Corea; the courageous utterances of the young German emperor; in short, it presents all that is good or bad in the history of the human race for one day written in one day. What almost superhuman difficulties must be surmounted to write this history even ap roximately correct!

Mayor Latrobe's address of welcome was responded to by President White, who in turn was followed by Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland. His subject was "The News-Cleveland. saper Press and Its Influence on Finance

Did Not Give the City a Fair Divide on the Nation Revenue.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 10.—A special com mittee of the Kansas City, Kan., council, which has been investigating the cause of the falling off of the salcon revenues of the police department and consequent reduc-tion of the city's general fund, in its report submitted late tonight, makes startli closures. It was shown that while $150; was received from the monthly received from the different "joints" but $1,390 of the amount was turned into the city treasury. The committee recommended the abolition of the metropolitan police law, under which the steals were made, as being totally inadequate. The law was inaugurated by the present Kansas state government, and was much commented upon when first put into force. Under it, it is claimed, none of the present offenders can be reached by law. view park was resulfected and discussed

FORTY VETERANS MURDERED

Pensioners of the General Government Slaughtered for Paltry Sums.

STARTLING DISCOVERY AT DAYTON HOME

Wholesale Crimes by Thugs that Have Been Overlooked by the Authorities-Old Soldiers Killed and Robbed-Grand Army Investigating.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 10 .- Police search for the perpetrators of the two recent murders of veterans of the soldiers home on pension day develops a situation more horrible than the atrocious Binder crimes in the west. Forty of the old soldiers have been robbed . and murdered at the national home and only a passing notice has been taken of the crimes. The Grand Army is taking hold of the matter and much feeling exists. The government is being urged to place detectives here to collect evidence against the muiderers, who have grown rich by robbing the veterans. Local police authorities can go no further than to give points that will surely lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty ones.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S LUNCH.

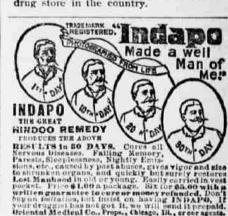

Hard Work and Indigestion go Hand in Hand.

Concentrated thought, continued in robe the stomach of necessary blood, and this is also true of hard physical labor. When a five horse power engine is made to do ten horse power work something is going to break. Very often the hard-worked man coming from the field or the office will "bolt" his food in a few minoffice will "bolt" his food in a few min-utes which will take hours to digest. Then too, many foods are about as useful in the stomach as a keg of nails would be in a fire under a boiler. The ill-used stomach refuses to do its work without the proper stimulus which it gets from the blood and nerves. The nerves are weak and "ready to break," because they do not get the nourishment they require from the blood, finally the ill-used brain is morbidly wide awake when the overworked man at-awake when the overworked man attempts to find rest in bed.

The application of common sense in the treatment of the stomach and the system brings to the busy man the full enoyment of life and healthy digestion when he takes Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to relieve a biltons stomach or after a too hearty meal, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify, enrich and vitalize the blood. The "Pellets" are tiny sugar coated pills made of highly concen-trated vegetable ingredients which relieve the stomach of all offending matters easily and thoroughly. They need only be taken for a short time to cure the biliousness, constipation and slothfulness or torpor of the liver; then the "Medical Discovery" should be taken in teaspoonful doses to increase the blood and enrich it. It has a erease the blood and enrich it. It has a peculiar effect upon the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, towing up and strengthening them for all time. The whole system feels the effect of the pure blood coursing through the body and the nerves are vitalized and strengthened, not deadened, or put to sleep, as the so-called celery compounds and nerve mixtures do—but refreshed and fed on the food they need for health. If you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness, and any of the ills which come from impure blood and disordered stomach, you can curre yourself with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which can be obtained at any drug store in the country.
