A fine horse belonging to B. F. Clayton of Macedonia, was stolen Monday morning at 4 o'clock. A party of searchers arrived in the city during the day, but up to last accounts had not succeeded in running down either the rig or the thief awarded the medal at the World's fair, goes at 90 cents. either the rig or the thief.

St. Andrew's saciety will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at the new Knights of Pythias hall, in the Merriam block, instead of over 102 Main street, as heretofore. It will also be noticed that the time has been changed from Friday night Io Wednesday of each week

A. N. Lund left his horse and buggy tied in the rear of his store on Main street yesterday afternoon, and when he went for it to go home to dinner, found it missing. It is supposed to have been taken by some one who did not know how cheap horseflesh is just now.

The Odd Fellows are talking of trading off their property where the Mint saloon now stands for other property on the other side of the street, and erecting their much talked of building there. There is not much likeli-hood of their getting into their new temple much inside of two years.

"A Cold Day" and "A Chip of the Old formation. Crofton, Neb., Sept. 29.—Wheeler & Her-eld, Council Bluffs: Please send me by freight eight cases Copps Cheer to Yankton, S. D. The goods give very good satisfaction. I would like to have exclusive sale. J. Block" will be the double bill at Dohany's this evening. Both these plays are highly spoken of as specimens of the farce comedy line, and with the added attraction of Ed F. Cogley in the cast there is little doubt that the opera house will be well filled.

The Presbyterian Synod of Iowa will meet fully examined the sample of Copps Cheer and the sample of Herb Tonic, and beg to reat Independence tomorrow and will continue over Sunday. Rev. Stephen Phelps, D. D. port the finding of less than 1 per cent of alcohol in either. A. D. Fostar, Chemist. of this city, will attend, and during his ab-sence there will be no services at the Firat Presbyterian church unless an announcement is made through the papers to the contrary.

At the last meeting of Encampment No. 8, U. V. L., and Ladies Auxiliary 17, appropriate resolutions of respect were passed, relative to the death of Pennsylvania's and lowed hereafter at the company's electric power house on Third avenue. In the past Iowa's war governors, A. G. Curtin and Samuel G. Kirkwood, and copies of the resolutions sent to the families of the deceased.

during the evenings for the purpose of seeing the wheels go 'round, and incidentally taking a shock. Mr. T. J. Carruthers, who until now has been chief electrician, was very obliging to his visitors and showed them the mysteries of the machinery to their heart's content. The recent accident, in which one of the workmen lost his life, has resulted in the issuance of the new order. William Johnson, a tailor, became afflicted with jagomania yesterday afternoon and lay down in the rear of the Baldwin block to enjoy himself. A crowd of 100 people gath-ered around him, under the supposition that he had died, or at least had failen in a fit. The patrol wagon landed him at the city jail, was charged with being an unvarnished drunkard.

The committee which has been soliciting funds for the aid of the Y. M. C. A. has succeeded in raising about $1,500, most of which will go toward paying the indebtedness of last year. It is announced that as much more will have to be fortheoming before the trustees will feel warranted in hiring a secretary and putting the association into active existence again. Joe Buschal was given a trial in police court yesterday morning, on the charge of stealing a gun from Charles Frost. The value of the weapon turned out to be less than $20, so that petit larceny was all that could be proven. He was accordingly given thirty days in the county jall, but on ac-count of his previous good reputation this was suspended for the present. hair mattresses go to the Council Bluffs Car-pet company. He says the manufacturing industries are prac-tically at a standstill, although some little activity is developing. Business generally is depressed and the New Englanders at-tribute it to the democratic laws. "This condition," says Senator Harsh. " is making republican votes very fast, and during my entire trip I met only two democrats, and they were not very enthusiastic." glar. It now appears that when Bird went through the various houses at Oakland, he did so with the purpose of providing funds for buying a wedding trousseau.
