"The Indians would stand in front of the tepecs and watch the train go by. Thousands of ponies we saw along the reservation, while cattle were seen in large numbers. The government has built for its wards a number of houses on the reservation, which are called shacks in that ountry, but the superstitious nature of the Indian will not permit him to live in these houses, instead he erects his tepee, while he houses his ponies in the shacks. Towards the western end there are extensive gravel pits, which are being utilized for ballast on that portion of the track. When the line is completely ballasted, which will be accomplished before any great amount of inuling is done, it will be possible for a pasmiles an hour, and when the Burlington's fast train is put on it will bring Montana into our front yards. Stock shipments from Gil-ette, Edgement, Girard and other places are ery heavy just now, more cattle being hipped out of Montana and Wyoming this year than ever before. The road is building irgo stock yards at Billings, and there is an appearance about Billings, Sheridan and Edgement which betokens bright things in the future for these three towns." Mr. Beans paid off two divisions on his last

Thinks Other Lines Have Violated the

Agreement to Maintain Rates. CHICAGO, Oct. 19.- The western roads ome time since induced the Missouri, Kansas & Texas line to join in an agreement in which it was stipulated the passenger rates to the south and the southwest should be rigidly maintained. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas, after a short experience with the agreement, gave notice that it intended to thdraw, as it had doubts of the good faith of the other roads. The western lines are now using all possible effort to get the southern road to withdraw its notice of pulling out of the agreement, but it is not likely their against Debs and the officers of the A. R. U., and a large number of persons charged with participation in violence and the obstruction of the mails and commerce on the different roads last summer. In all sixty-nine persons are included in the blanket indictment. The grand jury of last summer, called to investigate the strike, brought in a large number of indictments, one for that raise to the south and southwest will each road, in which Debs and the other be in a chaotic condition before long, and it

The feeling among the western roads which ne of some doubt as to its practicability. At mes the lines of the Western Freight assointion have tried to put in force this same plan and it was upset by the refusal of the Atchison to withdraw all the annual passes which it had already issued, although the road agreed that it would issue no more if the other roads which were seeking to drag it into the agreement would agree to do the same. At the very time the other lines were abusing the Atchison for its stand on the pass question, at least one of them had any number of passes out, both annual and trop, which they made not the slightest effort to pull in. This experience of the Atchison has made it rather skeptical as to the successful issue of any pass agreement of any kind, although it is willing to give the plan a trial. Other roads which were not represented at the meeting in St. Louis are still to be heard from. As the agreement depends upon the absolute good faith of all parties interested there is some doubt as parties interested there is some doubt as to the outcome
