Clan Stewart will give a Halloween party tomorrow evening at the old Knights of Pythias hall. Refreshments will be served and the old fashioned games will be played. A genuine good time of the Scottish variety will be had, and all friends of the clan are invited to be present and enjoy it.

The jury in the Bradshaw case returned a verdict at midnight last night, and the probability is almost a certainty that they would disagree and would ask to be discharged this morning. The jury received were incriminated as to how they stood. The one most generally credited and that seemed to leak out through the windows and key holes during the trial, was that they stood two to two for a verdict of $5,000 for Miss Bryant.

The two old men named Woodward who were charged with contempt of court in arousing the hopes of a crowd by shouting and smashing them by putting in two watches that were worth considerably less than he had bid, were taken to the county jail yesterday. Judge Macy yesterday turned loose by Judge Macy yesterday. The watches they had, which they swore were all they had, were turned over to the referee, G. S. Wright, to be sold and the proceeds given to O. C. Gaston.

An old lady with torn garments and bruised and bleeding face appeared at the public auction last evening and filed a complaint against her son. She was Mrs. Webster, of 1400 South Ninth street, and the son was the somewhat notorious Dick Webster, who has had frequent dealings with the police. The son is a hunky, worthless rascal, 24 years old, and the mother is a frail old lady of 60. Last evening she did something that did not suit her son and he assaulted and beat her in a shameful manner. The police arrested him and locked him up, and he will have a serious difficulty with Judge McGee this morning.

Halloween pranks were numerous and exasperating last night. Among the meanest things that were done was the stretching of wires across the sidewalks in several places, causing a number of painful falls. No arrests were made, but some of the victims threaten to make trouble for somebody today. At 11 o'clock a young man named Bradly will find his big taxy chair on the top of C. R. Hannan's barn.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Judge Macy Lists the Liquors Among the Nonpareil's Assets.

IN MR. HART'S CARE FOR THE PRESENT

Will Be Sold with the Other Property of the Company on the 12th of November in Case a Purchaser Shows Up.

The case in which William Arnd, receiver, and the Carpenter Paper company, creditors, of the Nonpareil Printing company, were quarreling over the possession of about a dozen cases of wine and whisky, was brought up before Judge Macy yesterday. It will be remembered that owing to the fact that it was necessary for any one who wanted to sell liquor to take out a license, Receiver Arnd did not reckon the liquor among the assets, but allowed E. E. Hart, the mortgagee, to take it to his home for safe keeping, in order that the employees of the paper might not get drunk. The circumstances under which the removal took place were all recited before the court yesterday afternoon. At the conclusion the judge decided that inasmuch as Mr. Hart was not a democrat, but a republican and a total abstainer, the liquor might be safely allowed to remain at his house until it was sold. But in spite of the fact that liquor was not strictly a salable commodity except by one who had a license, the receiver was instructed to count it in among the assets. The paper will be sold at auction November 12, in case any one wants it, and the liquor will be sold along with the rest of the property.

THE BANNER MONTH. The Council Bluffs Insurance Company's Wonderful Record for October.

Secretary J. Q. Anderson of the Council Bluffs Insurance company was devoting the closing hours of the month yesterday to the work of figuring up the company's business for the first ten months of the year. The result was sufficient to make him smile. It showed that the receipts since January 1 had been $50,000, and of this amount the company had been called upon to pay out $20,000 for losses. The total losses for the month of October will scarcely exceed $50, making the smallest loss record in the history of the company. This extraordinary good luck is rapidly making up for the fearful losses of June, July and August when the bulk of the year's losses were inflicted. Such a record is a matter of pride to the company and the people of Council Bluffs, and gives new solidity to the strong and prosperous home company.

It has been indignantly settled that there will be no joint debates between Congressman Heger and Candidate Weaver, as was requested by the Union Protective Labor association. The following letter explains the situation, doubtless to the satisfaction of all concerned.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Oct. 31.-R. N. Whittaker, Chairman, Union Protective Labor Association Central Committee: Dear Sir - I am in receipt of yours of October 29 in regard to the proposed joint debate between Congressman Heger and Candidate Weaver. I have read your proposition and am glad to see that there has been some correspondence between the committee and the candidates. I will advise you, in view of the appointments which have failed to arrange any joint meeting, that the course, be guided by the arrangements of committees directly connected with the congressional campaign, and for that reason, if for no other, I shall have no objection to making any of the arrangements you propose.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday: L. A. W. Fenton, Montgomery county, Ia., to Nettie M. Pinkney, Mills county, Ia.; 29 Harlan D. Sawyer, Council Bluffs, Ia., to Mayme E. Henn, Council Bluffs, Ia.; 20 Millie E. Rivers, Phillips county, Kansas, to H. A. Cox, 37 1/2 Main street. Telephone 48.

Several local sports have been running the town over the last few days, looking for people who would like to bet on Weaver, and offering all kinds of inducements. It is rumored that the rooms were handily looking for too soon, and are now trying to find a graceful way to hedge. They are not like the people who are looking all over town for betting places, but they are down town, furnishing establishments, for when they once see the immense bargains he is giving in the winter light, they are ready to bet. Harlan D. Sawyer and Miss Mayme Henn were married last evening at 116 Vine street, the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Henn. Rev. John Askins, D.D., of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by only a very few intimate friends. The bride and groom were accompanied by Miss Edith Allen and Bernard B. Sawyer as maid of honor and best man. The rooms were handsomely decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. The bride was becomingly gowned in tulle silk and carried a beautiful bouquet of tuberoses. Miss Lillian Shepard played the wedding march. After the marriage a reception was given the happy couple, to which a large number of guests were invited. Among those present from a distance were Mrs. H. W. Sawyer of Trenton, Mo., and Mrs. C. Gross and Miss Ida Henn of Syracuse, N. Y. The wedding party was supervised by H. W. Sawyer, and holds a responsible position in the postoffice. He will live at 116 Vine street, and will be at home to friends after November 15.

Wanted - New Trial. The plaintiff in the case of the Iowa Central Building and Loan association against the Phoenix Insurance company, involving several hundred dollars insurance on the building of H. O. Meade, has filed a motion for a new trial, which was argued and submitted in the district court yesterday afternoon. The motion is based on an affidavit in which it is claimed by W. J. Davenport, one of the directors of the Building and Loan association, that E. H. Odell, the agent of the insurance company, was aware of the property having been transferred before the fire. They claim that Odell himself admitted this in a conversation with Davenport at a time when his heart went out to Davenport with unusual fervor by reason of his having an axe to grind when he was trying to get the franchise for the new motor company to Manawa. Inasmuch as the judgment was given in favor of the defendant at the time of the first trial on the theory that the defendant had no knowledge of the transfer, they claim that this entitled them to another trial.

LEXOW HAS A LIVELY TIME

Commissioner Sheehan's Refusal to Answer a Question Caused a Scene.

GOFF WANTS SPECTATORS EJECTED

Charges Senator Cantor and Commissioner Sheehan with Packing the Room with Their Partisans.

A NEW YORK, Oct. 31.-The statement is made at police headquarters today that the Lexow case has found indications against Police Captain Stevenson and Warden Glennon, Burns and Smith upon evidence brought out before the Lexow committee. The specific charge, it is said, is blackmail.

Chairman Lexow of the senate investigating committee intimated at the opening of today's session that should Commissioner Sheehan show further recalcitrancy Mr. Goff would be likely to take him off the stand and certify him to the grand jury.

Commissioner Sheehan had brought some bank books with him, concerning which he said: "Because I have my bank books I do not mean that I will tell what's in them unless I am accused of depositing money illegally, and then I will produce them."

James W. Boyle, Tammany leader of the New York district, was first placed on the stand today.

"Did you send out a notice," asked Mr. Goff, "calling for a list of people who were under police control?"

"I do not," he replied.

"Now, here is a typewritten slip attached to a circular bearing your name. It is addressed to the election district captains. Will you swear that this slip was not sent out from your headquarters?"

"I swear I don't know anything about it."

"When a saloon keeper wants a license do you not force him to join Tammany hall?"

"You may not force me to join Tammany hall," he replied.

"You go before the excise board in their interests?"

"No, sir, I appoint an excise committee."

The Lexow committee, however, was not satisfied with his admission, but Senator Lexow said sternly: "How could a political organization look after excise matters?"

"Well, the commission consisted of one man who was a member of the liquor dealer's association."

Commissioner Sheehan was called to the stand. He was holding several books and some typewritten papers, but declined to tell Mr. Goff what they were. Mr. Goff read several of the papers, and asked him several questions.

"You had better
