There was not a school district or a township in the state which was not visited by at least one prominent republican speaker. In the large towns of the state special trains were run to the places where speakers of more prominence had been engaged in order to insure big crowds, and to thus impress the result of the state that a republican available. inaire big crowds, and to thus impress the people of the state that a republican avalanche was sweeping the state, and that Majors would be elected by from 25,000 to 30,000 plurality. forder to run the trains to suit the convenience of speakers and the crowds that were gathered to listen to them.

That such an army, generaled by the ablest political tacticians, supplied with abundant means and backed by the coercive power of all the corporations in the state, should be defeated by the people will always be pointed to as one of the greatest events in the political history of Nebraska.

The result shows the monumental folly of choosing for a standard bearer a candidate whose reputation is tainted and whose record is assailable. It shows that the republican party cannot successfully conduct a defensive campaign even when backed by the strength of the most powerful corporations in the country. It shows, too, that the people of Nebraska are able to successfully cope with the allied hosts of monopoly and to defeat them, even when handicapped by the lack of everything necessary for effective campaign work. campaign work.

WILL BE A POPULAR AFFAIR.

Wyoming Republican Officials Arranging for Inaugural Ceremonies at Cheyenne CHEYENNE, Nov. 16 .- (Special.) -- It is proposed to make the inauguration of Governor William A. Richards and the other republican state officials. January 7, a sort of popular affair to which prominent people from all sections of the state will be invited. The republicans in this city did not attempt to celebrate the great victory won at the polls, the intention being to allow the inauguration to take its place.

The affair will be in charge of a general committee, composed of representative men from every part of the state. Arrangements will be made for excursion rates on all the railroads. The plan is to have a parade, the inauguration ceremonics during the day and a grand inaugural ball in the evening.

INSURING INFANTS.

The Latest Popular Fad Among New York Mothers.

The latest thing in New York is that babies may have their lives insured, so that should they succumb to the ravages of measles, chicken pox or whooping cough, their poor mothers will be pledged some substantial

This may seem a ruthless way of stating the fact, but it is nevertheless true. For where parents are poor, which is generally the case when there are a number of chil-dren, the insurance policy paid on the death of an infant becomes an item of gruesome

To give an idea how general has becomthis practice is is necessary simply to mention the fact that one New York company insures every week the lives of 6,000 infants. Other companies there are which engage largely in this business, while others refuse

The first thing an agent does when insuring an infant is to ascertain as near as possible the condition of its health. Should it look robust and hearty, attempt to scratch his eyes, pull his whiskers, or otherwise indicate tenacity of life, the agent immediately puts it down as "first class." On the contrary, should the baby take very little notice of him, he concludes that the infant's physical barometer is much depressed and enters it in the second, or "doubtful" class. Any infant relegated to the third or "bad" class has poor chances of getting a policy. The has poor chances of getting a policy. The expert agent knows when a case is sure to go against the company, and he immediately no reports to the superintendent, who sends physician. On him then falls the responsibility of certifying for the child's health. Negro children are accepted only after a cateful examination by a physician, no mat-ter what their condition of health may be. The reason seems to be that owing to the ebony hue of the colored child the usual symptoms of infant atrophy escape the unkilled eye of an agent. Moreover, facial andmarks with a dark background are so hard to distinguish that there is constant danger of imposition, which a physical ex-amination frequently prevents. To illustrate this, a short time ago a woman with twin babies had one of them insured. At the time of granting the policy both babies were very healthy and there was no examination. At the end of five months one of them died. As it was impossible to tell one from the other, the policy had to be paid over. Later the company found out that they had been swindled. Should the infant pass muster the mother is required to fill out answers to a number of questions and agree to accept the conditions laid down. To secure a she makes a weekly payment of 5 In the event of the child dying within three months after the policy is granted the mother receives no return. After that period and before the first year is out she receives $15. Should it die before the second year after the policy is granted she receives $20, before the third year $24, etc., with a gradual increase up to the 11th year, when she receives $115. Here it remains. Should the child grow into manhood there is no further increase. The mother has the privilege of increase. The mother has the privilege of making her payments 10 cents a week instead of 5, in which case the policy is doubled. Should the payments at any time be discontinued there is no return whatever. The system seems very fair. It is evident, at least, that the mother has the advantage until the child is grown up. Should the mortality be very great the insurance companies are

'Tis hardly worth mentioning, because none of these people are very old, for Maine, has been noticed this week that Sewall Emery of Biddeford, aged 88 years, sawed a cord of hard wood, three cuts to the stick, in four hours, one day recently; an 50-year-old lady in Temple walks to church every Sunday; Mrs. Isaac Caswell of West Rockport, 83 years old, does all her own housework and does it well, too; Mrs. Eliza Ward of Troy, aged 83 years, spins skeins of yarn each day; Mrs. Amy Addition of Portland, aged 90 years, has just finished a crazy quilt, doing the work unassisted by spectacles; Mrs. Clarissa Manwell of North Hartford, 76 years old, lives alone on a farm and does all her work herself, and 73-year-old Mrs. Cynthia E. ECRET MEETING BEING HELD IN CHICAGO

Declares in New York that the Plan is Impracticable-Other League

CHICAGO, Nov. 16 .- The circuit commit ee of the new American Base Ball association met today and the meeting will probably extend through neveral days. The associa-Washington and Pittsburg. The two latter liam Barnie, Brooklyn; F. Richter and W. S. James, Philadelphia, and H. D. Quinn, Milwaukee. There are four applicants for the vacant franchise, so the committee reports-St. Louis, Detroit, Buffalo and Boston. NEW YORK, Nov. 16 .- The embryotic American association was discussed by the have ball league magnates this forencon. President Young told the reporters that there was little probability of the organization of association clubs in cities where there is already a league club. Mr. Young also said that the meeting was considering the contracts of some players which would soon run out where the players had signified an intention of joining the new association should it be formed. Mr. Young said that these players would be disciplined. A committee composed of Messrs. Byrn, Von der Horst, Hart and Brush was appointed to draw up an address with regard to the new American association.

LONG BOB GETTING VERY STRONG.

Fitzsimmons Knocks Out His Partner and is Nearly Knocked Out by a Dub. SYRACUSE, N. Y. Nov. 17.—Robert Fitz-simmons knocked out Con Riordan, his round of his usual exhibition which closes the program of his vandeville show. Jacobs' theater was crowded to witness the entertainment, and the audience departed for its homes, little knowing that Riordan was still unconscious. The blow was a right-hander and caught Riordan squarely on the chin, He did not fall to the floor from the force of the blow, but sank slowly until he measured his length on the stage. The accident occurred at 10:39 o'clock, and two physicians have been working over him with applications of electricity for two hours and a half without being able to restore him to consciousness. At 12:39 o'clock he was removed from the theater to the Hotel Cande. It was stated by Manager Glori that Riordan had been drinking hard all day, and that he was infoxicated when he came on the stage for the setto.

Immediately after the Riordan incident James Dunfee, a local sparrer, put on the gloves for a two-round setto with Fitz-simmons. In the second round Dunfee landed a right-hander on Fitz's jaw, securing a clear knock down, the first, Fitz-simmons declares, he ever was given. He was so dazed when he regalized his feet that he could not see Dunfee's hand when it was extended at the call of time. Fitz-simmons was arrested shortly after midulght. The physicians attending Riordan say there is grave doubt of his recovery.

BOSTON, Nov. 16.—Robert Fitzsimmon's advance agent arrived in Boston today, and during a conversation it was gleaned that Fitzsimmons is confident he will face Corbett in the ring. He claims that if the Florida Athletic club cannot bring off the contest Corbett will transfer the affair to one of the New Orleans clubs, as Fitzsimmons has promised Peter Maher a chance if Corbett does not meet him next summer.

Sioux City and St. Paul Added to the Circult-Players Permanently Expelled. ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram.)-The Western Base Ball association concluded the business of its special session at noon today. The action looking to the expulsion of St. Joseph from the association was reconsidered and steps taken towards fixing up the differences between the association in that city and the league. The applications of Denver and Rockford for membership were rejected and Sloux City and St. Paul admitted, and hereafter it will be a ten-club league. The association made a decided and sensational innovation by barring from membership in any of the clubs in the association next season all players against whom charges of intoxication or ungentlemanly conduct on the ball field had been filed. The list of doomed players is: Boyle, Munyan, Thorp, Johnson, Quincy: Langaford, McCann and Boxendale, Omaha; McFadden and Huffman, Des Moines; Johnson and Pedros, Lincoln; Armstrong, Peoria; O'Connor, St. Joseph; Burrell, Rock Island; Strouthera, Jackson 'le; Carroll, Peeria it was reported that Clausen and Fear of Omaha had been previously expelled from the association.

SCHAEFFER GAINS BUT LITTLE.

Ended in Ives' Favor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The big billiard contest between "Wizard" Schaeffer and NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The big billiard contest between "Wizard" Schaeffer and "Napoleon" Ives was resumed tonight. The balls were in good position just inside the line when Ives took his cue. In the course of his play he separated the balls and frequently both balls would be banked and the point would have to be made by a masse. He made several of these shots, for which he was much applauded. His open draw shots were particularly fine. He rain his score up to eighty-eight points, and then fell down on an open draw in the center of the table. The Wizard had himself in good position when he opened play for his first half of the fiftleth inning. In the first half of his play he made two beautiful draw shots to bank. He kept his good work up to 125 points, when he "froze" and missed an open shot. The balls were separated when Ives took hold. One was in the corner and the other in the center of the table. It was a bank shot and was made amidst applause. In a few more shots he got the balls together and by careful nursing managed to put to his credit ill points. Schaeffer folowed with 116. In doing this he made several difficult rail shots. The Napoleon started in again, but he was a triffe nervous, and managed only to score fifteen points, when he fell down on a masse, which he falled to hit hard enough. Schaeffer, who had been playing steadily, ran twenty-seven points and missed on a follow shot. Ives tried to make it and falled. Schaeffer then made two points and stopped, leaving the two balls together near the rail, with his cue ball a foot off. Ives missed it, and the balls again went to the Wizard, who relied off seventy, but falled to get the balls outside the line. This announcement was halled with signs of disgust by the friends of Schaeffer. Ives in the next inning made a run of 125, during which he made a scratch of the most pronounced kind, which caused a perfect wreath of smiles to gather over his face. The Wizard, by careful fursing, for the third time during the evening passed the 106 point. The run nette The
