Uncertainty Regarding the Bond Issue Prevented Marked Changes.

WHEAT SPECULATORS WERE NERVOU

They Appeared to Consider at the Opening the Closing Prices of Wednesday as a Fraction Too High.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.-Uncertainty regarding the expected bond issue prevented marked changes in prices on the Board of Trade today. In wheat there were more sellers than buyers and May closed %c oats 4c lower and provisions at declines. The wheat speculators at the opening of the market appeared to consider yester-day's closing price for May %e too high and knocked off the obnoxious fraction. Liverpool was higher for futures and Berlin I mark better than it closed yesterday, with Paris a little lower for spot wheat and a shade higher for next month's delivery.

Minneapolis and Duluth tegether received only 153 carloads, compared with 167 cars on last Thursday and 223 cars on the corresponding day of the year before. The selling in the first half hour was by the local crowd, while New York and St. Louis at the same time sent liberal orders to buy. The expectation of an early issue of bonds was regarded as in favor of the bulls, but the conflicting news from Washington prevented radical changes either way. The opening price of May wheat was from 53%c to 53%c, as compared with 53%c sellers at the close yesterday. The general tendency was downward for about an hour and a half, or until the returns of the day's receipts and shipments at the primary markets had all come to hand. The total primary market receipts were only 138,505 bu. Some buying by previous sellers was the result of a short contemplation of the figures referred to, and the price, which had been hugging 53c for May for about an hour, let go and it rose temporarily for the second time to 53%c. There was renewed selling at the advance, however, and May finished at 53c.

Corn was weak and lower. The principal feature was the fact that many of the buyers of yesterday were seliers today, while the demand was light. Bartlett-Frazier and Baldwin-Farnum led the selling among the big operators and the small fry soon tailed on. While some of the early transactions were at yesterday's close there was a gradual drop. May sold early at 44c and fell steadily to from 43%c to 43%c. There was a quiet business during the closing hour, May closing at 43%c.

Oats were also slow and inclined to be easy, following in the wake of corn. May sold early at 29c, fell to 28%c, and at noon was 28%c. The market was quiet and featureless during the last hour, May declining with corn and closing at 28%c.

Provisions started with a show of strength, helped by hog receipts under the estimate and better prices resulted. There was some recovery, but at the close May pork was 12%c and May ribs 7%c lower, and May lard unchanged.

Estimated receipts for Friday: Wheat, 25 cars; corn, 175 cars; oats, 150 cars; hogs. responding day of the year before. The selling in the first half hour was by the unchanged.

Steady Prices.

THURSDAY, Jan. 31.

The receipts today were 1,034 cattle, 4,306
hogs and 250 sheep, as against 1,425 cattle, 9,059 hogs and 364 sheep yesterday and 1,191 cattle, 4,276 hogs and 222 sheep on Thursday of last week. There have been received during January 49,670 cattle, 151,297 hogs, 12,433 sheep and 386 horses and mules.

CATTLE—With only thirty-six fresh loads of cattle in the yards there were not enough to make much of a test of the market.
There were a few loads of beef steers, but no choice heavy corn fed cattle. The packers evidently wanted a few cattle, and the offerings being so light they got out and bought up everything desirable in short order. It was the most active, and, to that extent, most satisfactory market experiorder. It was the most active, and, to that extent, most satisfactory market experiorder in some days. The prices paid ranged from steady to strong.

1 springer...... 20 00 1 cow and calf... 24 00

HOGS—There were fifty-four fresh loads and about 2,000 head of holdovers in the yards this morning. The buyers started out bidding prices that were steady to 5c higher, but the bids not meeting the views of holders there was little trading. The buyers finally raised their bids and the trade became fairly active at an advance of from 5c to 10c, 5c on the more common and 10c on the more desirable grades. As usual when there is such a heavy break as yesterday, the bids were tather uneven. Hen.e, many of the hogs carried over from yesterday showed a greater advance than that noted above. Some hogs sold today at $3.50, for which only $3.75 was offered yesterday. The bulk of the offerizing were taken quite early and about everything in first hands was cleaned up before the close. One load of hogs brought, $4, but they were not $1,000 as the $4$ hogs yesterday. Hogs weighing 200 ibs, and under sold at $3.75 and down to $3.35. The bulk of all the hogs sold at from $3.55 to $3.80, as against $3.45 to $3.70 yesterday and from $3.70 to $3.95 on Thursday of last week. At the opening of the nextth hogs sold on this market at $4$ and $4.45, with the bulk at from $4.20 to $4.25, which will give an idea of the amount of decline during January. CENSUS OF FARM ANIMALS Winnesta

Tabulated Statement of the Number Now Held in the United States.

REV.EW OF AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY

General Depression Throughout the Country Has Resulted in Reducing the Number of Farm Animals-Figures Which Show the Result.

The aggregate value of all live stock on farms January 1 was $1,922,600,000 against New England..... $2,262,400,000 a year ago, representing a shrinkage of nearly $340,000,000 or 15 per cent. In these figures Orange Judd Farmer presents the results of the most exhaustive census of farm animals ever made under private auspices. The figures are the result of local investigations made by trained observers in every county in the United States. carefully tabulated to present the present status of the live stock industry in the most clear and complete form possible. The general depression of business is shown by a decline in numbers of nearly all classes of animals and emphasized by the unprecedented shrinkage in farm values. This has been going on for two years, the total value January 1, 1893, being $2,483,083,000. The changes in numbers and values of the different classes during the past year are shown as follows (last three figures, 000's omitted): January 1, 1895, Change during year,

SHEEP AND HOGS.

For two years sheep owners have sacrificed their flocks, flooded the market with every-thing fit to sell and much that was not untiprices were forced to an abnormally low level, followed by a slight recovery during the last few weeks. Hostile legislation, low price of wool and general depression have combined to depress the sheep industry. It overy state the past year is marked by a decline in the number of sheep, while for the whole country the destruction of flocks in a single year amounts to 16 per cent. No such record was ever before known in the history of sheep husbandry. The total number now in the country equals only 35,-$19,000 or 6,000,000 less than a year ago. The shrinkage in average value is even greater, amounting to 17 per cent. In a single year the aggregate value of sheep has decreased 30 per cent and the receipts at market centers show that flocks are still rapidly going to the butcher. Shrewd observers among our cor-respondents declare that leaving the value of wool out of the consideration, flocks started now while the panic among owners is still on will pay out in a few years on mutton value alone.

Present returns show a slight increase in the number of hogs in the country. But for the crop failures last year, which forced large numbers of immature hogs to market, the increase would have been much heavier In almost every state an increase is noted, but the heavy decrease in Iowa. Kansas and Nebraska offsets the general improvement elsewhere. The value of hogs is lower by about $1 per head than a year ago, but even at current prices this class of stock is the paying branch of the live stock industry. In the hog surplus states, which furnish general market supplies, there is little change from the situation of a year ago so far as numbers are concerned, but the con-tinued marketing of immature stock indicates increasing present shortage of feed and future shortage of hogs. COWS AND OTHER CATTLE.

The steadily increasing importance and salue of the dairy interest is shown by an ncrease during the year in number of mileb lows of 90,000, the total number now being 17.451.100. In spite of the general depression of the year there is practically no decline in the value of milch cows, the shrinkage of 80 cents per head which the returns show being actually only the decline forced by the crop failure in Kansas, Nebraska and South Da-kota. With these exceptions dairy hards have declined very little in value during a ime when other classes of farm stock show heavy fall.

The tendency toward a decline in the beef cattle industry noted during recent years continues. The total number on farms shows a decrease during the year of 6 per cent, with a shrinkage of 12 per cent in the average value. No state except Oregon and Washington shows any increase in numbers, while the rate of decrease in prominent states ranges from 1 to 16 per cent. This decline in numbers of farm cattle which has been going on for a number of years, dating back by states is presented (last three figures, 000's, being omitted:)

STRUCK HIM WILH A CLEAVER.

.... 2,341 $45.95 $107,574

Fight at the Brunswick flotel Which May Have a Fatal Result. Louis King, a roustabout at the Brunswick hotel, went into the kitchen of that hostelry about onon yesterday with the avowed intention of cleaning out the place because he was given no supper Wednesday night. The first man he ran against was Ed Egan, the cook. He made a swipe at Ed and the latter picked up a meat cleaver, dealin the man a terrific blow on the left side of the head. felling him like an ox.

The police were called and for some time it was thought that King was dead, but he recovered sufficiently to be taken to the station in the police ambulance. King had been drinking heavily all morning and the effects of the blow and liquor made him rave like a maniac. The police surgeon could not dress the wound until he had been subjued by opiates. The man is dan-gerously wounded and the fight may have a fatal termination. The flat side of the cleaver landed on the side of the head and seems to have crushed in the bones over the left ear. An ugly looking gash is on the top of King's head and one behind the ear from which the blood was pouring profusely.

Egan was placed under arrest to await the sheep and hogs is shown by the following statement (last three figures, 000's, being statement (last three figures, 000's, being SHEEP.

He filled up with fighting whisky yesterday and sent word to Egan by the engineer that he was on the war path and proposed cleaning out the ranch. As soon as King got into the kitchen he began hostilities.

> Burglars are reaping a harvest in Omaha just at present, and numerous complaints are being made at police headquarters by residents who have been robbed.

Wednesday night was one of great profit to the thieves. The house of Mrs. Trusky, at 1024 South Nineteenth street was burglarized of $175 worth of diamonds and jewelry. The barn of A. Pardee at 1810 Emmett street was broken into and an $18 robe stolen A. M. broken into and an $18 robe stolen. A. M. Henderson's blacksmith shop at 2212 South Twenty-fourth street was burglarized of a big lot of tools, punches and hammers. De-tective Murphy of Council Bluffs lost a fine beaver overcoat. C. Root of the Hillside hotel was robbed of a fine new overcoat, and Antone Venise was robbed of an overcoat and $1.25 in cash while asleep in the Midway, at Twelfth and Dodge streets. The Gross grocery store at Twenty-fourth and Charles streets was burglarized of a quan-tity of cigars, tobacco and canned goods. Detective Malone of Lincoln reports the losting of a tailor shop in that city by a gang of thieves, who are supposed to have come to this city Wednesday night. The detectives do not seem to be able to cope with this class of criminals just at present.

Martin Murray, who is also known by the name of Crotty, was arrested Wednesday as a vagrant and suspicious character. The fellow had just completed a fifty days sentence in the county jail, being sent up from South Omaha. He was arrested down in the Magic City under suspicion of being a member of the gang of holdups that have been terror-izing that place. He was found hanging around town that night and the officer thought that he would be a good man to have in jail. He pleaded for a chance to get out of town and the police judge gave him a suspended sentence of ninety days, haif on bread and water, and told him that Omaha was not a

His relatives, who did not know where he was, have been notified.

Almor Criminal Happenings.

Julius Koplin, who takes orders for enlarging photographs, filed a complaint against Thomas Henox, agent for the Omaha Art Studio company, yesterday, charging him with having collected and receipted without authority for $1 from one of Julius' patrons.

James Thompson, who is suspected of having been released from the state prison and being implicated in a burglary at Lincoln, was arrested Wednesday by the detectives. He told conflicting stories and was sent to jail for five days in order to give the police jail for five days in order to give the police time to investigate his case.

Charles Williams, a vagrant, and alleged to be one of the gang that has been trying to fix an alibi for William Smith, a highway-man, was given a suspended sentence of ninety days yesterday and was told to get out of town inside of an hour or he would have to serve this sentence and would have to serve this sentence and would have twenty days to subsist on bread and water.
