Wheat, Corn and Cats Show a Hump and a Slump for the Day.

THREE FOREIGN MARKETS WERE HIGHER

Liverpool, Paris and Berlin Advanced and Held, but the Gain at Chicago Was More Than Lost-Provisions

rather higher than it closed yesterday and Berlin advanced ¼ mark. The receipts here and elsewhere in the west were remarkably light. The Cincinnati Price Cur rent said that interior wheat offerings were exceptionally light. The total recelpts at primary markets were 87,000 bu. compared with 129,000 bu, a week ago and 340,000 bu. last year. New York wired that 246,000 bu. last year. New York wired that there was no demand for export, and the Atlantic port clearances amounted to only 170,000 bu. in wheat and flour, which were the discouraging features of the day's news. A private Liverpool cable said that offers of wheat from Argentine were quite light. The opening for May was at from 51½ to 61½ 65½ c. and before beginning the decline, which finally left it at 55% c. it touched 54% c. Business was not on a heavy scale, although it was by no means a dull day in the pit. The weakness at New York and the light export demand, combined with the drop in corn near the finish, caused the decline.

seale, although it was by no means a dull day in the pit. The weakness at New York and the light expert demand, combined with the drop in corn near the finish, caused the decline.

Corn was up at the start and down at the finish. It was entirely a matter of shorts, who covered freely at the opening, causing the advance. When they seemed to have all the stuff they wanted there was liberal realizing, and the advance was more than lost. May opened $\frac{3}{6}\chi$ higher at 45\frac{3}{6}\chi$, sold from 45\chi$ to 46\chi$ and closed at 45\frac{3}{6}\chi$, sold from 45\chi$ to 46\chi$ and closed at 45\frac{3}{6}\chi$, sold from 45\chi$ to 46\chi$ and closed at 45\frac{3}{6}\chi$, sold from 45\chi$ to 50\chi$ and so passed in oats and a generally good business was transacted. A few shorts covered and some long stuff was closed out. The course of the corn market was followed. May oats selling from 20\frac{3}{6}\chi$ to 29\frac{3}{6}\chi$, and then to 29\frac{3}{6}\chi$ to 29\frac{3}{6}\chi$ and higher prices for live hogs Packers were moderate buyers. May pork closed 20\chi$, May lard 10\chi$ cars; oats, 52\chi$ cars; hogs, 20\hogo head.

Condition of Trade and Quotations on Staple and Fancy Produce. While most lines of produce have not shown much change during the past few days, the egg narket has been steadily advancing. The severe market has been steadily advancing. Cold storage eggs are practically exhausted in most all sections of

More Than Lost—Provisions
Quiet but Firm.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Wheat started with a show of strength today on better cables and light receipts, but weakened, owing to the Right export demand and a late slump in corn, closing %c lower for May. May corn and oats closed ¼c lower, but provisions made a moderate gain.

Wheat opened firm at about ¼c over yesterday's closing price. Liverpool cable-grams quoted ¼d advance at the opening, with an upward tendency, and later reports confirmed the gain in price. VEGETABLES.

The cold weather of the past week or more has put a stop to the traffic in fruits and vegetables. Local dealers are neither able to receive nor ship perishable goods and are waiting for the weather to moderate before trying to do anything. Cars of fruit and vegetables in transit have been run into the roundhouses along the different lines of railroad to await milder weather. Some orders are coming in for goods to be shipped as soon as the weather will permit. Dealers are of the opinion that if the present cold weather continues much longer stocks will be so reduced at all points that there will be a lively demand for goods, POTATOES-Western stock, car lots, 65c; small lots, 70c. STOCKS AND BONDS.

Speculation Devoid of Feature and Prices All Day Were Narrow.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.-All the Wall street markets were stagnant today. On the Stock exchange speculation was absolutely devoid of feature. The trading was sluggish to a degree and the fluctuations in prices were extremely narrow. Less than 70,000 shares were dealt in and the net results of the day's transactions, except in three instances, show merely fractional changes. the market to but a small excent and was on both sides of the account. News from Washington was anxiously looked for, but none came until late in the day, when an Associated press dispatch announced the bond issue would be declared tomorrow, or at the latest Saturday, independent of the action of the house of representatives on the Springer bill. This intelligence did not reach the street early enough to have any effect on the dealings, but the temper of the market is such that nothing but official statements are likely to affect speculation. Rumor and report were idle during the day and there was nothing in the situation to quicken the speculative pulse.

The market opened in an upward direction, the widest fluctuations in the opening trade being a loss of % per cent in Norfolk & Western and a gain of a similar fraction in the market and no settled tone, the closing being dull and steady. Compared with yesterday, the final sales show about an equal number of declines and advances, while several stocks are much changed on the day. On a purchase of 100 shares Louisty willed & New Albany preferred rose 1½ per cent; Laclede Gas was in good demand and advanced 1½ per cent, and Boston houses were good buyers of New England. Notwithstanding the stagnation prevailing in the share speculation, a fair number of transactions were recorded in the bond market. The bulk of the sales, however, brought lower prices. The sales aggregated $884,000.

The Evening Post's London cablegram says: The stock markets were irregular to.

HOGS—There were only seven fresh loads of hogs in the yards when the market opened and later arrivals increased the number to only ten loads. All told there were not enough to make a market, but what there were sold at prices about 10c higher than yesterday. As high as $4.15 was paid for one load, being the highest price reached since January 29. There were no very common light weights and no full loads sold below $2.85. Representative sales:

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK. Receipts Very Much Lessened by the Storm and Prices Rangel Higher.
CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—In cattle holders insisted upon an advance of 5@10c, and buyers reductantly paid it, except in the case of heavy steers. Trains came stragging in until along in the afternoon, protracting business to a later hour than usual, but about everything offered was taker, and the close was firm. The estimated run was 7,000 head, making only 34,000 head since Saturday, and indicating a supply for this week of less than 40,000 head. Dressed beef and shipping steers were quoted at $2.40 to $5.75; cows and bulls, $1.40 to $3.85; stockers and feeders, $3.25 to $3.85; heavy cattle did not sell quotably higher than on the day before, but other descriptions gained 54100.

There were several sales of heavy hogs at $4.50, and sales of assorted light were reported as high as $4.25. Hardly anything weighing over 250 lbs, sold below $4.20, and the bulk of the 150 to 200-lb, hogs brought $4.10 to $4.20. There was an average advance on yesterday's prices of 5c. The danger of a blockade on the eastern roads made shippers hesitate to invest, but there was good buying by local packers, and the market remained firm to the close.

The firmness in cattle and hogs extended to the sheep market. There were light receipts and buyers took those at an advance of 5610c. Common to extra qualities were quoted at $2.75 to $4.35. Lambs were also higher, extra being quoted up to $5.15 to $5.25, and common to choice selling at $3.25 to $5.

Receipts: Cattle, 7,000 head; calves, 300 head; hogs, 23,000 head; sheep, 8,000 head.
