AT THE LONG SCHOOL

At THE LONG SCHOOL. Washington's birthday was celebrated at the Long school with appropriate exercises. In every room there were pairiotic speeches and songs. The fifth grade had quite an elaborate program, consisting of recitations, dialogues and songs. The exercises closed by beautiful days defil in which the children a beautiful flag drill, in which the children were very proficient, and evidenced painstak training. This room is in charge of Miss is Morrell, and well might her bright face wear that gratified smile when the day was over. Her pupils were an honor to her. The kindergarten in this school also gave an entertainment. To see those little tots walk up to the platform and recite some of the maxims and sayings of the illustrious warrior showed how early patriotic sentiments are taught in the public school.
