WILL PROTECT KARMINSKI

His Possession of St. Paul's Church Not at Present to Be Disturbed.

COURT'S ORDERS TO THE SHERIFF

Not Thought Any More Violence Will Be Attempted-Arrested Parties Released on Bond-Further Statements from Each Side.

Judge Ambrose, who heard the St. Paul's Polish church case, and who rendered a decision last Saturday, is holding court in Papillion. As soon as he read the accounts in the papers yesterday of the riot of Tuesday he immediately telegraphed Judge Duffie to order the sheriff to protect Priest Karminski in his possession of the premises Judge Duffle, against the protest of Attorney C. J. Smyth, gave the necessary order, and in the afternoon Deputy Mahoney went to the scene of the trouble. His instructions were to notify all parties concerned that if all the force in Douglas county was required, Karminski must not be disturbed.

He found everything quiet around the church. Nobody responded to his knocks at every door of the edifice. According to his instructions from Judge Duffle, Mr. Mahoney called upon all of the Dargaczewski sympathizers whom he could find, and among them was the brother of Priest Karminski's victim. Feeling runs high among them, but they evidenced no disposition to renew hostilities. They are rather disposed now to await the expiration of the time allowed for the filing of the superseders' bond on appeal, when they hope to be able to take peaceable possession of the church.
"I am simply following the instructions of Judge Ambrose in this matter," said Judge "I know nothing about the case and do not care to go into it. I will preserve the statu quo of affairs until Judge Ambrose returns; he can then act as he sees Attorney Smyth is the legal adviser of the bishop's party. On last Saturday afternoon some of them visited his office for advice. He told them that they had a right under Judge Ambrose's decision of last week to the posses sion of the church if they could get it; for, while their opponents had been granted leave to file a supersedeas bond on appeal within twenty days, this order did not act as a supersedeas, or in other words, did not legalize Karminski's possession of the premises until the bord was filed. Therefore, if they could find the church in the possession of no one and they could enter it, they had a perfect right to do so. On Monday they told Mr. Smyth that they would await the departure of the special watchman on the following morning, and then, after the priest started for breakfast, they would go in and take their long coveted possession, Karminski was there with an arsenal to defend his claims. Mr. Smyth warned his clients to avoid a breach of the peace, but assured them of their right to the property. even in the face of Judge Ambrose's order granting the priest's party the privilege of filing a bond on appeal.

MAKING ARRESTS. Yesterday morning Court Officer Boyle went to Sheeley to serve the warrants that were issued yesterday and returned with two prisoners. There was little trouble in getting the men, as they were willing to appear before the court. Four of them came in and gave themselves up. Their names are Nick Cherak, Jacob Netzel, Adam Przanowski and Frank Kobeila. They were immediately aron three charges: First, assault on Priest Karminski intent to do great bodily second, assault with the intent to raigned injury; second, assault with the intent to kill, and third, assault with intent to wound.

The preliminary hearing of the case was set for next Friday morning at 10 o'clock. It is the intention of the defendants to issue warrants for the arrest of those who are now in possession of the church. If this is done they will have a hearing at the same time that the members of the other faction have theirs. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Priest Karminski, and he was served this morning. The complaint charges him with assault upon Xaver Dargaczewski with intent to kill. Dargaczewski is the mar who was shot in the legs by the priest.

John Kowalewski, who is the secretary of St. Paul's church, was in police court yes terday and spoke about the trouble. "The Scannell faction that made the attack of the church yesterday," he said, "has no legal right whatever to possession of the property. Judge Ambrose's decree was deproperty. Judge Ambrose's decree was de-livered a week ago last Wednesday, and at the same time he gave us twenty days to file a supersedeas bond for the purpose of taking an appeal. During those twenty days the injunction granted by Judge Scott, prohibiting the other faction from taking posendeavor yesterday places them in contemp of court. As soon as this matter is settled in the police court they will be brought before the district court to answer to the charge of contempt. I did not take any part in the trouble yesterday because I was at

DEBT OF THE CHURCH. We have good reasons to object to Bishop Scannell taking possession of the property. We purchased, for $2,800, the tand on which the church stands. We were charged $6,500 for the church itself, which was built by the officials of the Roman Catholic church, which amount, I am sure, is considerably more than such a building would cost. This makes a total expense of $9,300. This property was deeded to Vicar General Choka in trust, and he appointed a priest. The records of this priest show that we paid to him $12,090, which had been collected from our people. Since that time more has been collected, the total amount being fully $18,000. Although the church property and the building only cost $9,300, we still have a debt of $9,000.

"When the St. Paul's Polish church was incorporated, I thought that the articles of incorporation were amendments to the articles of the St. Paul's church. This new corporation made the mortgage, over which the case in the district court arose. I was at that time treasurer of the corporation and the articles provided that all such papers should be signed by the president and secretary of the corporation. I did not understand where all the money we had collected had gone and consequently refused to sign the mortgage. If we had collected $18,000 I did not see how a mortgage was needed. Bishop Scannell, who was president of the corporation, did no sign either. It was consequently illegal, for it was signed by two men who were not officers and who did not even know how to sign their own names. If I understand Judge Ambrose's decision, he said that the instrument was not legal, but that in equity the parties who lossed the money were entitled to their pay. But we did not give the mortgage and consequently we ought not to be Dargaczewski, the man who was shot by Priest Karminski, is at St. Joseph's hospital. He is badly wounded. At a consultation of the physicians yesterday it was decided that it was necessary to amputate the limb, but Dargaezewski positively refused to allow this to be done. It will be ultimately necessary, however, in order to preserve the man's life. The ball went directly through the bone The ball went directly through the bone

An inquiry is in progress in Judge Scott's court regarding the sanity of W. E. Dinkle. Dinkle is under indictment by the grand jury for entering the barn of Jerome Allen and carrying off $95 worth of harness and tools on December 9, 1894. He had pre-viously been held by Justice of the Peace George J. Smith for the same offense in $500 bonds. He set up a plea of insanity and three times has been declared to be of perfectly sound mind by the sanity board. From the last decision of this body he has appealed to a jury in the district court. Drs. W. C. Upjohn and Detweiler consider him insane and not responsible for his acts.

Omiha Teachers Making Ready to Go to

Superintendent C. G. Pearse of Beatrice will be present at the Omaha teachers' meeting Friday afternoon in the interest of the annual meeting of the National Educational association, which will be held at Denver July 5 to 12. An unusual effort is being made to secure the attendance of as many as possible of the Nebraska teachers and Super-intendent Marble is particularly desirous that the majority of the Omaha teachers should avail themselves of the opportunities thus offered for acquiring new ideas and an interchange of views with the best instructors of the United States.

The annual meetings of the association are considered by superintendents as one of the most valuable means of profit available for the teachers and arrangements have been made by which the expenses of the trip are reduced to a minimum. As most of the teachers take their vacation at that time, it is expected that most of them may be induced to combine profit with pleasure and join the Nebraska excursion. The Nebraska head-quarters will be at the Albany hotel in Denver, where accommodations have been reserved at $2 per day and the railroads will make a rate of one fare for the round trip. A vast number of excursions from Denyer to Colorado points of interest have been arranged at low rates.

With the Woman's Cinb.

The parliamentary practice department of the Woman's club held its regular meeting on Monday afternoon, with Mrs. Henderson in the chair. The regular secretary being absent, Mrs. Hering was appointed to fill the vacancy. At the previous meeting there had been a motion put before the house for the establishing of an organization for the pre-vention of cruelty to children. Mrs. Henderson was the originator of the motion. It provoked considerable discussion, some think-ing that the parliamentary practice department was going out of its way in taking reformatory work. Others thought that was unconstitutional, and that there could not be an organization within an organiza-

Mrs. Henderson said that it was not so much to form an organization as it was to practice the line of study and at the same time give some definite aim. While mem bers were perfecting themselves in the dry bers were perfecting themselves in the dry, hard technicalities of parliamentary practice they would be doing some good to others. Although there is little business east bound being tickets are still scalped Chairman Caldwell's attention and has been called to the demoralization that is said to exist. After investigation, the chairman of the Western Lines Passenger assonation has sent out a telegram to all lines in interest, stating that he found little disturbance of the existing rates, and that, generally speaking, the street was quiet in San Francisco. But Mr. Caldwell seems to have used vari-colored spectacles, for one or two of the roads make specific charges that both east and west bound rates have been and are being manipulated to an extent which is liable to produce a rate war of the livelies proportions if the wholesale scalping of tickts is not discontinued. It is a fact that San Francisco is the most uncertain gateway in the country so far as the ticket business is concerned. There are so many roads bidding for business and it is so far removed from the headquarters of so far removed from the headquarters of eastern trunk lines that agents do pretty much as they please in order to secure patronage, and a scalp results. For years San Francisco has been the seat of an irresponsible cabal and it has been impossible to check its demoralizing practices, but Gen-eral Passenger Agent Lemax of the Union Pacific has about decided to put a stop to the wholesale scalping going on by demand-ing from the chairman of the Western Lines Passenger association that protection which a membership in the association is supposed

Will Talk the Staff System. Superintendent C. A. Goodnow of the Milwaukee system and one of the ablest operating railroad men in the counry, who is known as the great exponent of the staff system in the United States, was in Omaha yesterday. Mr. Goodnow is a thinker and progressive enough to introduce on his system, wherever possible, the newest methods devised for the better protection of ife and property with which he has to deal. Mr. Goodnow is to deliver an address before the Western Railway club in Chicago next Tuesday afternoon on "The Train Staff Sys-tem." His road was the first to put in the staff system in the United States, applying it to the Savanna bridge, which has given such general satisfaction that the Milwaukee road intemplates putting it in at the La Crosse bridge, where trains of the river division. Southern Minnesota and Dubuque divisions cross into La Crosse. It is also contemplated between Ramsey and Austin, Minn., where trains of the Southern Minnesota and Indiana & Minnesota run over the same piece of single track in order to reach the division terminal track at Austin, it being the division terminal for five subdivisions of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway. Remarkable as it may seem, the only road using the staff system, other than the Milwaukee, in the United States, is the hesapeake & Ohio, which recently adopted it on a single piece of track, including the Jerry Run tunnel, three-fourth of a mile in length where it was impossible to double Other railroads are seriously considering the advisability of putting in the staff system in order to facilitate the running of trains and at the same time surround them with the absolute guards to safety. N. P. Litigation Further Complicated. MILWAUKEE, March 13.-A new compli cation in the extremely complicated Northern Pacific litigation developed today when the Northern Pacific receivers filed a reply to the intervening petition of the Chicago & Northern Pacific receivers denying the legal ty of the lease or its assignment under which the Northern Pacific company operated the lines of the Chicago & Northern Pacific road from April 1, 1890, to September 27, 1893. The receivers further developed an inclination to shoulder all the responsibility on the Wisconsin Central lines. The receivers deny that there is any sum whatever due the Wis consin Central receivers or the Chicago & Northern Pacific receivers. The receivers of Northern Pacific company further set forth that they have been unable to determine whether the Chicago & Northern Pacific lines are being operated by the Wisconsin Central eccivers or by one of the Wisconsin Central

After this the fees which are due to the electrical department but which have not been collected, will turned over to the treasurer for collection. It is thought that in this way the office can made more nearly self-supporting. The balance sheets of the city treasurer show that the tax collections still continue to be satisfactory. In February the collections amounted to $65,255.30, of which $14,-107.93 was for general and $51,147.37 for special taxes. The collections during the same period in 1894 were $60,764.35, $17,933.55 being general taxes and $42,830.80 special. The figures show that while there has been a slight falling off in the collections of general taxes this has been more than offset by

The singing of the Schubert Glee club, the vocal solo by Mr. C. E. Abbott, the songs by the Lowe Avenue Quartet choir, the reci-tations given by Mrs. Etta Matheson, the plano work by Mr. Stambaugh, the club swinging by Mr. Myers, the overture by the Grant Street orchestra and the pantomime story by the pupils of the Institute for the Deaf were all heartily applauded. The Glee club was particularly well re-ceived, and Mrs. Matheson practically "owned the house," as she was the recipient but one or two will encounter the objections of a double encore. BETWEEN TWO FIRES--

We sell no boys' suits at less than One Dollar.

Unfavorable comments from competitors, who either sell trash or command exhorbitant profits, about our children's stock amounts to nothing,

The idea that we don't carry as fine boys' clothes as any one here is all bosh. We cheerfully offer a premium for an article of boy's wear that we could not show its equal both in style and fabric. Everything that was made lately by the big bugs who lead the boys' clothing market of the country-yes, everything but the prices; about $5.00 is all we ask for the best.

The idea that we don't carry as cheap boys' clothing as any one here is—quite true. Nothing less than $1.00. But for that dollar you get a suit that is dependable and true to good wear. The cheapest wool suit outside here is worth at least $2. We'll prove it—so can you. Very well -try it. You are never too late to come here.

We carry no suits which we cannot recommend. Entirely inconsistent with our business principles. Shoddy stuff looks ragged, wears bad.

Where would our reputation come in?

What'll the Continental do next?
