Bears Pounded Wheat Down Another Half Cent Yesterday.

SELLERS OF WHEAT WERE NUMEROUS EARLY

Only Bullish Feature of the Day's Movement Was the Heavy Export Clearances of Wheat and Flour from the Atlantic Scaboard.

CHICAGO, March 19.-Urged by a moderate decrease in the world's supply and cables the bears pounded wheat down another 1/2c today, May closing that much lower. Corn was stubbornly and independently strong, gaining 1/2c for May, and May only followed with 1/2 cars. May oats followed with 4c gain, Provisions were weak, closing at declines. There were plenty of sellers of wheat at the opening at from 56% down to 55%, and very few buyers at above the lower of these quotations. The reason for the weakness was made up by a kneading together of the foreign news and a slight sprinkling of rain along the southern edge of the winter wheat belt in this country. Liverpool was quoted %d lower. The Minneapolis and Duluth receipts were again in excess of the number of cars reported on the corresponding day of last year, being 376 cars today, to 257 last year. Primary market receipts today were 310,000 bu., against 209,000 bu, a year ago. The only bullish feature of the day's evement was the heavy export clearances of wheat and flour from the Atlantic seaboard, which amounted to 459,000 bu. That strained the market at around 56c and 56%c during the greater part of the forenoon up to about the time when Bradstreet's restrained the market at around 56c and 56%c during the greater part of the forenoon up to about the time when Bradstreet's report is received. After the latter report came in the price yielded again, and 55%c became the trading price for a few seconds on that noon tide break. Bradstreet's visible supply statement showed decreases east and west of the Ruckies amounting to 1.894.000 bu., while in Europe and affoat there was an increase of 80,000 bu., leaving a net decrease of 1,046,000 bu. in the world's stocks, against 1,840,000 bu. decrease in the same time a year ago. The Russian crop of last year, it was reported, had been again officially estimated, making it 74,000,000 bu. larger than provious estimates, but the later commercial advices from Europe were that Russian wheat was scarce, and held at Russian ports above its spring value. The closing cables quoted weakness and a slight decline at Liverpool, a slight advance in wheat at Paris, no change in values at Antwerp, but 2 marks decline at Berlin. There was an increase of activity after the Bradstreet's report came in, and during the decline to 55%c, it became weak and remained so to the end, closing at 55%c. In corn, the market set an example of bullishness, and was again the envy of its bigger neighbor. It was kept down by the bearishness early in the day, but asserted a stubborn independence after a slight decline, and was soon hoisted. The opening price for May was 46%, declining to from 46%c to 46%c, and then advanced steadily to 47%c. It weakened at the latter price and sold down to 46%c, but found plenty of buyers on that reaction. Primary market receipts amounted to 182,000 bu., compared with 56%,000 a year ago. The reports from the interior of this state are that Baltimore and St. Louis buyers are paying 3c over Chicago prices for No. 3 corn and shipping it to Baltimore and No. Contact of the state and advance of from 1/2 to 1/2 per bu. The May and $11.92. May pork kept on the slide time and seling became quite general. Bartlett-Frazier were princi

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Share Speculation Yesterday Was Les Active Than on Monday.

NEW YORK, March 19.-The share speculation day was but little less active than yesterday and again were dealings distributed very widely ities in London was in good tone, and the for-eigners were buyers of almost all of the intercational stocks in this market. Thus the trading opened under very auspicious circumstances and the trend of prices was upward throughout the morning, the eval shares and the granger group being most prominent in the upward movement.

Quickellyer preferred and New York Central also rose 1 per cent. Trading in bonds today was of enormous proportions, and the sales reached the unusually large total of $2,820,000. Northern Pacific consol lives and Southern Pacific fives were the most animated. Their respective transactions augregated $27,000 and $787,000. The other speculative issues were also heavily traded in, and final sales show material advances on the day. The Evening Post's London cablegram says: The stock markets were good today. Consols were better on government buying. There was a further material rise in Americans, which closed at the best. The impetus here is merely professional buying and bears' closing, but there was good buying today from the continent. Paris bought Louisylles, St. Paul and Norfolk, The Parts buying, if continued, is a distinctly good feature. Amsterdam bought Central Pacific. The public here is immersed in Kaffirs, in which there was a further great rise today. The strength in silver and silver stock was a good feature. Reports that New York is buying silver imparts a special strength to the market.

BEEF CATTLE SCARGE AND HELD STEADY One Choice Bures Brings Over $5-Cows and Butchers Easier-Stockers Weak -Hogs Dull on All but the Rest Grades.

TUESDAY, March 19. Receipts today were only moderate, but better than they were a week ago. The two days' supply foots up 4,534 cattle, 7,227 hogs and 865 sheep. Compared with arrivals for the first two days of last week this is an increase of over 1,800 cattle and 1,900 hogs, and a decrease of about 600

The supply of cattle was about the same as on Monday, and fully 1,000 heavier than on last Tuesday, the general character of the offerings being not noticeably different from Monday's arrivals. Reports from Chicago were not reassuring, and shippers who were caught by the recent slump there were not inclined to try it again, at least not until the prospect was more encouraging. Dressed beef men had things pretty much their own way. They wanted the cattle, however, and as the supply was far from excessive, prices averaged up nearly steady, although in some cases values ruled a shade lower. The top was $5.35 for a bunch of choice 1,404-lb, beeves, and common to choice choice 1,404-1b. beeves, and common to choice 1,000 to 1,200-1b, steers sold at from $4.15 up to $5. Hay-fed western steers averaging 1,257 lbs, brought $4.35, and sales shaded from that down to $4.85. The trade had neither life nor strength, still it was difficult to see where prices were much lower. Cows generally sold at about steady prices, if anything some of the more desirable of the offerings brought a shade stronger figures. The supply was comparatively if anything some of the more desirable of the offerings brought a shade stronger figures. The supply was comparatively small, perhaps fitteen loads—all told—and the demand from local killers alone was sufficient to absorb them all readily. Veal calves were in rather liberal supply, more liberal than usual, in fact, and prices ruled just about steady. All but the best of the bulls, oxen and stags were slow sale at a shade easier figures.

The dullness and weakness that characterized Monday's trade in stockers and feeders were among the ruling features of today's business. A good share of the fresh arrivals were stock cattle, and speculators already had a good supply on hand. Prices are still too high to be attractive to the country, and the result was a restricted trade and a weak feeling. Good fleshy feeders were in fair request and about steady, while stock cattle were slow sale at yesterday's decline of 25c. Representative sales:

were the best hogs of the season. The market opened out pretty minds the same as on Monday. Fackers were all wanting supplies, and there were a few shipping orders for York hogs, as well as a moderate inquiry for speculative account. The top was $4.55, but the fair to good butcher weight and heavy hogs sold largely at from $4.40 to $4.50,... The good light and light mixed hogs sold early at about steady prices, but the common stuff was in indifferent request and dull and dragging from start to inlish. There were sales of 160 to 250-50, boads at from $4.10 to $4.40. Comparatively few pigs and lights were offered, and prices generally ruled casler around $3.50 to $4 for 110 (s 130-1b, stuff. On the slump in provisions the market weakened of badly and late bids and safes were fully a nickel lower. Several loads when still in first hands at the close. and therefore the trend of the market is still upward. Steers were quoted at from $4 to $4.69; cows and helfers at from $3.60 to $4.55; stockers and feeders at from $2.80 to $4.50, and Texans at from $2 to $5.

The hog market was weak and the average was 5c lower than for yesterday. The change in prices was small, the best shippers paying close to Monday's prices. After they had filled their orders and sellers were obtliged to look to local packers, the market was very steady. Sales were principally at from $4.35 to $4.65 for laverages over 200 lbs., and from $4.40 to $4.45 were the prices most frequently paid for lighter weights. At the close $4.79 was the top for heavy and $4.55 for light weights. The weak turn in the market is explained by the break in provisions. TALKING STATE FAIR PLANS. Board of Managers Discusses the Prelim

Yesterday the board of managers of the State Board of Agriculture met at the Millard hotel, and during the forenoon the ground and interior plans of the state fair buildings were discussed with Architect Beindorff. In the afternoon the question of at-tractions was discussed without definite action. Delegations of hog men and bee ex-hibitors were received and the respective exhibits talked over. The proposition to locate the gates to the grounds on the east side was considered without final disposition. In fact, the entire day was one of discussion. At the meeting this morning it is thought some action will be taken on the subjects discussed yesterday. Good Government Club

A large number of the north side tax payers met at Idlewild hall, Twenty-fourth and Grant streets, Monday night, where they organized Good Government club No. 1, the constitution of which states that the purpose is to educate club members upon the subject of better government.
Officers were elected as follows: D. W. Merrow, president; L. E. Hawk, vice president; W. T. Graham, secretary, and C. A.

Starr, treasurer. Executive committee, W. S. Sheldon, R. N. Hammond and L. A. Harmon.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the same place two weeks from Monday night.

BOUND TO CONTROL IT ALL

Window Glass Manufacturers Adopt an Iron Clad Agreement.

PRACTICALLY ALL MAKERS INTERESTED

Intend to Regulate the Amount Produced, the Price at Which it Shall Be Sold and the Rate of Wages Paid to Employes.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 19 .- The combingion of the window glass interests of this country is now an assured fact. At a meeting of manufacturers in this city today the National Association of Window Glass manufacturers was formed, which is designed to regulate the production, the price of the product and the wages of the workmen. The capital represented in the association is estimated at $25,000,000, and the aggregate yearly output from 6,000,000 to 7,000,000 boxes. At the meeting there were 100 plants represented embracing nearly every factory. in the country. The special committee appointed at the Columbus meeting to draw up a plan for organization made its report and the committee that conferred with the New York and Boston importers had valuable information on competition from foreign glass, A. L. Conger of Akron, O., presided and T. H. Johnson of Dunkirk, Ind., was secretary. The association was formed by the election of F. L. Rodine, Philadelphia, president; A. L. Conger, Akron, vice president; T. H. Johnson, Dunkirk, Ind., secretary; William Loeffler, Pittsburg, treasurer.

The committee on price list was continued to the next meeting, which will be held here in April, when a substantial advance in the price of all grades of glass will go into effect. None of the manufacturers would state the amount of the advance, but they say that for the past six months window glass has been selling at a loss. The association will gather statistics on production, con-sumption and imports and deal with their employes on the question of wages only as an organization. In the meeting a letter from Belgium was read, stating that the blowers of that country would go on a strike April 1. Immediately after the meeting the Indian manufacturers met and advanced the price of

DECIDED IT AGAINST THE TRUST

mportant Ruling by a Detroit Judge Bearing on the Sherman Law.
DETROIT, March 19.—Judge Severens in the district court today rendered an important decision bearing on the Sherman anti-trust law. About a year ago the Merse, Warren, Michigan and National Capsule companies entered into an agreement to pool interests and carry on the business of manufacturing gelatine shells for capsules as one institution under the style of the United States Capsule company. Although the agreement had been entered into the Merse Capsule company balked and refused to go further into the consolidated enterprise. The cause of the disaffection was due to the election of certain members of the other companies to the management of the new one and also to their contention that the new company would practically control the manufacture of gelatine shells or capsules,

They filed a bill to perpetually restrain the pool from operating on the basis set forth on the ground that it was a trust and intended to drive competitors out of the business. The defense was that the company was not to raise prices, but to lessen the cost of production, stop serious competition and yield a better product.

Judge Severens takes the position that the trust was formed in violation of the laws of the state of Michigan as well as the act of congress, although "it became so apparent," said Judge Severens in connection with his pointon, "that the complication was inteleropinion, "that the combination was intolerable under Michigan law that it was not necessary to apply the acts of congress which bear upon the same question."

The case will doubtless undergo a review in the appellate court.

SURPRISED COUNT CREIGHTON. Recipient of a Beautiful Gift from an Old Friend in St. Louis. For a number of years Adolphus Busch, head of the great brewing establishment in St. Louis, and John A. Creighton have known one another and admired the charities in which both are so largely interested. When Mr. Creighton received his patent of nobility from Leo XIII and a reception was being tendered him in the hall of Creighton college, in the presence of many representative people, his fellow citizen in St. Louis, Mr. Busch, was sent ing a congratulatory telegram and in his modest way expressing the joy he felt over the honor conferred on his friend. Monday there came the climax to this friendship. It was toward evening when the representative of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company at this point, Mr. George Krug, entered Count Creighton's office and after chatting a moment arose and in a short speech that breathed of deep feeling presented to the count the insignia of the St. Louis company, formed in the letter "A," with an eagle breaking through the sides of the "A," his feet resting on the American shield. The charm is a masterpiece of the jeweler's art, the eagle being made of platinum, while the sides of the letter and the shield are in diamonds and rubies. This, Mr. Krug said, he presented to Count Creighton on behalf of Adolphus Busch, who had admired the sterling qualities of Mr. Creighton for a number of years. Mr. Busch had been interested in his many charities, in the hospital scheme and in everything that tended to make men better, and he desired the count to accept the charm as coming from a man who stood to St. Louis what John A. Creighton stands to Omaha. Mr. Creighton was surprised of course, but in a graceful way he accepted the token of kindly remembrance in the spirit which prompted its giving. The informality and the heartiness were particular features of the presentation, which was splendidly performed by Mr. Krug. Death of Joseph Darling. Mr. Frank Darling received the sad inelligence Monday of the death of his brother, Joseph Darling, at Baltimore. Up to Saturday last it was expected that the sufoperation, but he passed peacefully away at 7 o'clock Monday evening. Deceased was a brother of Mrs. Joseph Weeks and Milton Darling of this city.

Fixed the Date of Hearing. The case of the state against Schultz and McCabe, the men charged with arson, will be called for trial in the police court at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
