WOMAN SUFFRIGE GOES IN UTAH

All Amendments to the Majority Report Voted flown in Constitutional Convention SALT LAKE, April 2 .- The excitement over the woman suffrage question has been teadily on the increase for a week. An hour before the time of calling the constituional convention to order this morning the pacious corridors around the hall were filled with a surging mass of humanity, Tardy delegates found the entrances to the hall so blocked as to make entrances to the possible. When the doors were opened the ladies forced their way in, and in their en-thusiasm took possession of the delegates' seats. Police officers had to be called in to 'ake charge of the excited crowd. At the time for calling the convention to order a quorum of members had not gained ad-mission, and President Smith had to remet a doordan of memoers had not gained ad-mission, and President Smith had to request the ladies to vacate until the delegates were seated. Bishop Whitney made a short speech in explanation of his remarks last week, and then Roberts, who was to make the closing speech, was recognized, and made a masterly speech against the pend-ing measure. He was particularly sarcastic in his reference to the remarks of Mr. Whitney, who spoke in favor of equal suff-rage. At the close of his speech he was the recipient of the most enthusiastic dem-masterions of applause. The first vote was on the section providing for separate sub-mission of the suffrage clause. Only twenty-eight delegates cast their votes in favor of the substitute. Every substitute and amendment was voted down, and the majority report was finally ordered to a third reading. ssion, and President Smith had to request third reading.
