Considering the Telephone Franchise.

The city council will hold a meeting this evening and will probably take some definite action with reference to the petition of the Wizard Telephone company for a franchise. At 9 o'clock this morning the councilmen will hold a meeting of the committee of the whole and talk over the franchise and the ordinance introduced at the last meeting which were asked for by W. H. Ware in behalf of the company.

Some of the councilmen concede that ten years is a rather short time for a company to live, particularly when a good share of its capital must be sunk in the franchise. A twenty-year franchise would enable the bonds to bring a higher price, and they are disposed to grant the favor to the extent of an extra five years.

On the other hand, it is urged that the ordinance contains no provision for the city's receiving a pecuniary benefit from the company's operations, and this should have a tendency to offset the disadvantage of having a ten year lease of life. In many cities franchise are bought by competing companies, but in Council Bluffs that is not the case. If the Wizard company should consent to this sort of an arrangement, it would be entirely to their advantage to procure any reasonable concessions from the city they might want.

Letters Over the Land.

The city is likely to run up against a snag in its efforts to knock out the plans now being laid for the establishment of a road from the east bank of the Missouri to connect the South Omaha ferry with the land south of Manawa. Instead of being owned by farmers the land over which this road is likely to be laid is in the name of C. S. Lettens, and he is anxious to be entirely independent of the road put in. Mention has been made of the suit now pending in the courts of Sarpy county, Nebraska, between Lettens and the Manhattan Beach Improvement company over the possession of all the land south of Manawa on which the bathing houses stand. Mr. Lettens' claim is based on the same sort of foundation as the suit which was decided by the United States supreme court some time ago involving the ownership of Cut-Off island. If the result of this trial is the same as in the other case, it is readily to be seen that Mr. Lettens has a fair show of being some time the proprietor of the bath houses and pavilions, and he is consequently keeping half an eye open for any news of the beach. The suit now pending will be tried at the October term of district court at Papillion. The demurrers filed by the Beach Improvement company to Lettens' petition were recently overruled by Judge Ambrose and that leaves the case open for a trial on its merits.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Last of the Pierson Meetings Held at the Presbyterian Church.

THIS WEEK WITH THE METHODISTS. Success Warrants the Extension of the Meetings for Another Week—Convincing Sermon on Family Relations and the Christian Religion.

Last evening the last meeting to be held in the Presbyterian church by Evangelist Pierson was attended by the largest throng that has been drawn together to hear the evangelist. The interest has been such that it has been determined to lengthen the series by one week. Every night this week meetings will be held in the Broadway Methodist church, in order that the residents of the eastern part of the city may have the same chance that has been accorded those in the western.

The discourse last evening was an uncommonly interesting and powerful one, dealing with the relations of parents and children to one another and to the cause of Christianity. He said he would rather see a boy become a Christian in the morning of life, and save both body and soul, than see an old man, whose sun of life was about to set, turn over a new leaf and give to the Lord a body that had been devoted all his life to the service of Satan. He believed in encouraging children in their searchings after truth. He could not see how a woman, who was not a Christian could take the responsibility of bringing up a family of children. He could think of nothing better for a woman to grow old with a Christian family about her.

"If your boy comes to you and wants to know about the Christian religion, give him a mother's kiss and help him all you can."

There is a society higher than what you call the highest society, and that is the society of Christian character. If the young women of the nation would determine not to associate with young men who do not have a wonderful uplifting of society, and in the young men there is enough energy to carry the nation for Christ. They need to be in the streets, and all other walks of life, and why should not their influence be felt in the Christian church? And yet only 10 per cent of the people of this country are found in the churches, and even less than that proportion of young people. We leave the towns and are soon swallowed up in the cities. There Satan sets all his snares for the young men, knowing that when he gets them he will get the fathers, the husbands, and the homes of the nation.

In response to God's invitation the man says he will come soon. The average man knows what is right and wants to do it, but lacks courage. He tries to fix himself up with good habits, but he does not know how to cover him up with the cloak of his own righteousness, which alone is acceptable in his sight.

Mr. Pierson closed his sermon with an appeal to fathers and mothers to train their children in the principles of Christianity, for it is impossible to expect that the children will choose them when they see their parents, whose lives they take as their models, so backward about accepting them. He then went to the Broadway Methodist church, where a service of song had been in progress under the direction of F. T. Johnson. At both places after meetings were held, at which considerable interest was manifested.
