FREMONT CITIZEN IS MISSED

Ex-City Treasurer Leaves Home Under Queer Circumstances.

COMPELLED TO RESIGN BY A SHORTAGE

His Friends Believe He Has Committed Suicide, but His Wife Expects to Hear from Him and is Not Worried.

FREMONT, Neb., May 25.—(Special.)—A. W. Forbes, formerly city treasurer, has been missing since Tuesday night. He went to bed Tuesday with his wife as usual, and was apparently in good spirits. Toward morning his wife found that he was not in bed and that his clothes were gone. His watch and chain, which he valued highly, were where he left them, and on a stand was a note hastily scrawled, saying that he was of no use to himself or any of his family and that he would never be seen by them again.

Forbes is about 55 or 60 years old, has dark hair and dark whiskers on his chin, slightly gray, with an arm and has an impediment in his speech, which makes it difficult for one not acquainted with him to understand him. He is about five feet, nine inches tall, and weighs probably 175 pounds. He was dressed in a dark suit, frock coat and dark slouch hat.

RAISE THE PACE OF BREAD

Omaha Bakers Decide to Shall Be Thirty-six Loaves for a Dollar.

Omaha bakers held a meeting last night in the Continental block and in view of the doubling up in the price of flour incident to the recent advance in the price of wheat, they agreed to raise the price of a loaf of bread in Omaha tomorrow morning the new schedule of thirty-six loaves for $1 goes into effect.

William Lauer called the meeting to order and the situation was explained to the members present from a baker's standpoint. Several bakers declared it an impossibility to make as much as the present expenses to continue selling bread at the rate of fifty loaves for $1 with the rise in flour. The bakers, it was stated, had been compelled to cut the wages of the men and were losing money every day in consequence of the fact that they were expected to sell a loaf for 2 cents, whereas the pound of flour which went into it cost 25 cents.

HAVE A CHAIR.

To show ordinary politeness to callers you must invite them to sit down; otherwise you indicate either a desire to shorten the interview or display a lack of courtesy unpardonable.

There is no excuse for not having chairs when they can be bought for almost nothing. A Rocking Chair for comfort leaves little to be desired; its every motion suggests luxury.

Our success this season with rockers warranted us in purchasing recently a car load of the latest and most modern styles of these "Comforts" at late season prices. We shall offer for this week the entire stock at figures which permit of no argument as to value.
