More Ghastly Relies.

Judge W. S. Lewis was present and asked Samuel Walter, a wood cutter, who lives the board to refund the faxes paid on the property of Mrs. Wiley, an old soldiers' widow, and thus prevent the sheriff from at 397 Lincoln avenue, ran across a ghastly collection of relics yesterday forenoon while executing a tax deed to another party and chopping wood near Big Lake, at a place not far distant from where a few days ago five bodies of persons supposed to have been dissected at the Council Bluffs Medical college were found. There were two arms two hands and two feet lying around in cinted to investigate the case.

An Insane Nurse.

Rebecca Barton, an aged woman who has been a county charge for several years past, was brought before the commissioners of in-Flynn. sanity yesterday for an examination. She had been kept at St. Bernard's hospital for quite a while, but knowing that she would become unmanageable if she knew she was kept as a patient the nurse allowed her to think that she was nursing the other patients. Several times she got tired of the place and walked She would enter the house of a throwing Mrs. Wiley out of her house and home.
