 It Afforded Him Less Fun at His Wife's Expense Than He Had Counted On.
 A great deal of amusement was caused on an eastbound electric car the other afternoon by a waggish policeman, who selected his wife for his victim, relates the Louisville Courier-Journal. The policeman had done duty at the ball park, and his wife had been to see the game. While the crowd was leaving the woman stood about the front of the park and waited for her husband to ride up town with him. He finally arrived, and the pair boarded a crowded car. Both were is run in the bilge of the Norma's he hold forward of the fire room d with cordwood to resist the shock e steamer struck, and all hatches illed down.
