To the Public and Our Patrons.

We have decided to change the name of our new beverage, and in the future it will be called "WHEELER'S KING TEMPERANCE CHEER."

This refers to what was known as "Copp's Cheer." (The name of the herb tonic will remain the same.)

The name of the herb tonic will remain the same. This change is made for the purpose of giving it a more distinctive label, with a name exclusively our own.

Which will be done at once; also to prevent the goods from being sold at a discount.

Wheeler's King Temperance Beer contains neither alcohol nor grain of any kind, but is a pure hop extract, refined and carbonated by a process of our own invention, and has been decided by the United States Department of Agriculture to be not subject to special tax, either for manufacture or sale.

These goods are manufactured exclusively by the G. R. Wheeler Brewing company, 124 East Broadway, Council Bluffs, Ia., Wheeler & Herold, proprietors.

Negligé and summer shirts and ladies' and gents' ties, a very large stock and the largest stock of straw hats in town, are a part of the great Speiman Bros. stock that is being sold by retailing at a reduction of low prices. It is also the ladies' chance to get unheard of bargains in dry goods.

Memorial Services.

The Knights of Pythias observed Memorial day yesterday afternoon, paying their respects to the deceased members of the order in the manner which custom has made a fixture.

Invitations had been sent out to all the neighboring lodges and in response came a large number of brethren, all of whom all bent upon the same errand. Committees from the local lodges visited all the local deaths during the forenoon and received the guests, escorting them to the hall in the Merriam block.

At 1:30 o'clock were held the memorial services in the hall, according to the ritual of the order, only members being admitted. Hon. C. G. Saunders pronounced a eulogy upon the deceased members, his effort being warmly received. The program was formed at Bayliss park, Ovide Viens acting as chief marshal and Louis Cook and Oscar Younkman as assistants.

Ladies, do not fail to look at the beautiful new things on second and third floors of the Durfee Furniture company. Nothing finer is made.

Eight Hundred Excursionists.

Fourteen coaches, bearing 800 excursionists, arrived in the city yesterday morning over the Burlington railway, the visitors being picked up at Cresion and all the towns between that place and here. At local points fully half of the people flocked it up town, while the other half boarded the motors and went on to Omaha. At most of them spending their time on this side of the river. The Council Bluffs resorts were well patronized, Fairmount park with all its natural beauty proving a great attraction. Manawa also had a large share of the visitors, both Grand Plaza and Manhattan beach having all the people take care of. The crowd was a very orderly one and the day was unmarred by any accidents of a serious nature.

Commencement is not complete unless your diploma is framed. See the new styles in frames. H. L. Smith & Co., 45 Main street.

New York Authorities Given the First Chance at "Judge" Adler.

INDICTED THERE FOR GRAND LARCENY

Friends of the Woman He Married While Here deny that She is Dead, but on the Contrary is with Relatives at Crete, Neb.

Chief Scorslan received a telegram yesterday announcing that "Judge" Adler, "der Deutsche Advokat," would be taken to New York to answer to the charge of grand larceny, for which he is under indictment, in preference to turning him over to the authorities of Council Bluffs. This is probably due to the fact of his having been indicted by the New York grand jury, instead of merely being charged with an indictment here.

The bride whom Adler married here is at the residence of Mrs. C. A. Adler, on East Jacob Neumayer in a telegram that she was dead, but it is learned from relatives here that she is still alive, and is believed by them to have been murdered.

Pressman Case Features

Closing of Des Moines Saloons Out of Munch Revenue.

Considerable Deficit in Sight

Forty Thousand Dollars Annually Derived from This Source—Municipal Officers Fuzzed as to Their Course in the Premises.

DES MOINES, June 16.—(Special.)—Judge Spier yesterday signed the decree in the Pressman case, which finally closed the saloons in the city which have been operating under the mule law. Many of them have remained closed since the decision was rendered Monday morning, the decision making them amenable to the prohibitory law. Several injunction suits have been commenced already against those remaining open.

"This decision is a hard blow to the city," said a prominent business man. "It will cost the city $40,000 to $60,000 annually, and by the decision this source of income is cut off. There will therefore be a deficit at the end of the year of the amount of which the city is deprived during the unexpired portion of that period. Twenty thousand dollars was set apart to redeem outstanding warrants; $7,000 was set out to buy a new cemetery; $20,000 was to go to the funding of warrants and the remainder to the general fund. The burdens of taxation will therefore have to be increased next year."

John Deuss and White Whitney Exchange a Number of Shots.

RED OAK, Ia., June 16.—(Special Telegram.)—John Deuss, a young colored man, 22 years of age, shot and fatally wounded a white man of this city today, named White Whitney. Red blood had existed between them for some time and today they had some dispute over a small amount of money Deuss claimed of Whitney. The amount involved was only $1.20. Saturday night the parties met and Deuss shot at Whitney three times, but without doing any damage. At 11 o'clock Sunday the two met at the water tank at the depot and renewed the quarrel. Deuss shot Whitney through the abdominal wall, but he did not die until Monday.

Professor Clark Won.

RED OAK, Ia., June 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Prof. Jesse Clark carried Lincoln township at yesterday's primaries and is the club as the residence of the school superintendent of Montgomery county.

Death of P. W. Peterson.

RED OAK, Ia., June 16.—(Special Telegram.)—P. W. Peterson, auditor of Montgomery county, died this morning at 3 o'clock, after a lingering illness of over a year.

No Wish to Intrude.

A Prostrated Man Bravely Declines to Be Taken to an Afternoon Tea.

"He Lives!"

As the doctor spoke, relates Brooklyn Life, the man who but a few moments before had been struck by a passing cable car and who was now lying prostrate in a rear room of the corner drug store moved unaided and slowly opened his eyes and looked wonderingly around him on the faces of the men who had carried him away from the path of death.

"Am I hurt?" he queried vaguely, as he made an effort to move and then sank back again, his face pale as death.

"Yes," said the doctor. "Don't you remember you were trying to cross the street and did not see the car behind you? It's a good thing you were not hurt more."

"What time is it?" he asked.

"It is now," he said, "just 5:15."

"Would it be any harm," said the sufferer, "with an expression of deep earnestness, "if I stayed here for an hour or so yet? I don't want to go home just now."

"But you would be much better cared for there," replied the medical man, "and I don't see how you should want to stay here. Come, what difference does it make whether you get home now or an hour or more later?"

"It makes a great difference," exclaimed the man on the couch, with a look of intense anguish. "You may not know it, sir, but I have a wife and a child at home, and I would rather die than leave them without me."

"You may not know it, sir, but I have a wife and a child at home, and I would rather die than leave them without me."
