

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (Without Delivery), One Year, $3.00...

PUBLIC SENTIMENT AND THE LAW. Can laws be enforced that clash with public sentiment? This question has often been propounded and discussed from the forum and the pulpit...

At the meeting of the Kansas State Temperance union at Topeka a few days ago Governor Morrill made the declaration that the prohibitory law of Kansas could not be enforced in those localities where public sentiment is against it...

"Does the public sentiment of any portion of Kansas regulate or prevent such crimes as stealing, arson, burglary or bigamy, or is it the determination of the law officers of the locality that makes them a terror to evil-doers and criminals?"

When a Chicago editor writes such rot, while thousands of saloons are running in full blast, seven days in the week, within a stone's throw of his office door, he proves that he has no conception of the practical administration of law...

Think of President Cleveland deigning to write a letter to the grand sachem of Tammany hall and never even acknowledging receipt of Mr. Bryan's interrogatory epistle! The very thought is overwhelming.

Governor Holcomb apparently proposes to see to it that the clause in the constitution empowering him to demand reports from the heads of all the executive offices and state institutions is not a dead letter during his term of office.

If Spain can raise a loan of $120,000,000 right at home without calling upon a single outsider to assist in any way, why can't the United States? President Cleveland is alone in position to answer this question.

Of course the Omaha ball team will remain in the league. If the attendance here is not what it ought to be perhaps a reduction in the price of admission would aid in finding the cause of poor business.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat wants Secretary Carlisle to stop in Missouri on his way to Nebraska. It says there is need for instruction in sound finance among the Missouri democrats.

Attorney General Harmon says he is still undecided as to what course to pursue in the matter of the government suit against the Leland Stanford estate for $15,000,000 diverted from the Central Pacific to the private benefit of the directors.

and without proper medical care and supplies. If Waller is still an American citizen, and he appears to be regarded as such by the State department, the duty of the government in his case is perfectly obvious.

Without doubt the killing and maiming of railway employees goes on without diminution. According to the last annual report of the Interstate Commerce commission the number of railway employees killed during the period covered by the report was 1,823 and the number injured 23,422.

At any rate our government should know all the facts and it should be as firm and persistent in demanding them from France as it could be were such a demand made upon the smallest and weakest power on earth.

AN OBJECT LESSON IN REFORM. To reform the administration of a great city like New York, which for years has been a hotbed of every form of municipal corruption and venality...

The Pan-American congress of religion and education will be held at Toronto July 18 to 25. It will be composed of representative laymen and clergymen from every country, province and state of North and South America.

We are informed by Superintendent of the Census Wright that the complete results of the eleventh census will be in the hands of the public two years and a half earlier than were those of the census that preceded it.

Chicago has figured out a population of 1,685,700 through the medium of her new city directory. But the question is how nearly does the city directory represent the actual population.

William H. Harrity, chairman of the democratic national committee is quoted as saying that the democrats will next year all unite in nominating the best and most available man for president...

THE CASE OF WALLER. The country will approve of the action of the State department in urging the French government to supply a record of the proceedings in the case of ex-consul Waller, who is incarcerated in a French prison upon a verdict found against him by a court martial in Madagascar.

Another Law Disregarded. The law passed by congress in 1893, requiring railway companies to supply their locomotives and cars with uniform couplers and other safety appliances, among other things provided that all freight cars engaged in interstate commerce should be equipped before July 1, 1895, with grab irons and hand holds in the ends and sides of the cars...

THE SUNSHINE OF JOY. Indianapolis Journal. As the returns come in it is shown that the crops in the west and northwest will be enormous in spite of the gloomy prophecies of the spring.

Prement Herald: Can it be possible that the people of Omaha will continue to submit to the peculiar methods of Judge Scott, simply that Mr. Rosewater's enemies may be misled by the information which they will give to the press?

Papillon Times: A New York court has decided that the courts of the District of Columbia cannot drag Editor Dana down to Washington and try him there on charge of libel, holding that the defendant must be given a chance to raise a criminal charge in his own home.

Bellevue Phoenix: The conviction of Editor Baker of the Gretna Reporter settles the question in the minds of the public as to what is a fair trial.

Colorado courts uphold the law taxing Denver street car horses. Ex-Weather Chief Harrington has reached the conclusion that Cleveland mows hay with an ax.

It is an old saying that "Joy never kills," yet there was a case in Newark, N. J., the other day which disproves it. A Miss Meyer, engaged in a shoe factory, for some time was taken ill. Her associates raised $125 for her and her family.

Bradstreet says that over a million of industrial workers have received at least a 10 per cent advance in wages this year in the United States. This of course is taken up by democratic party organs as evidence of returning prosperity under democratic rule.

Chicago has figured out a population of 1,685,700 through the medium of her new city directory. But the question is how nearly does the city directory represent the actual population.

With the death of the historic Mrs. O'Leary, whose frisky bovine is supposed to have kicked the lamp that started the blaze that cost Chicago $100,000, comes a deluge of recollection of the beam of fame that illumined the western heavens in October, 1871.

THE GREAT MODERN EDUCATOR. Young Mr. Baker, 300 of Senator Baker of Kansas, has declined to quit the legal profession and take up journalism, for the reason as stated by him that a man cannot be a good lawyer and a gentleman at the same time.

Novelists in Cuban Warfare. Washington Star. War correspondents in Cuba have given variety to their stories from the disturbed island by publishing vivid narratives of what the Spanish commander is engaged in loading up an expedition with poisoned food and defective cartridges.

SCULPTURAL ARTS AT THE PULPIT. New York Times: According to the theologians of Iowa, it is a desecration of the Sabbath to go hear Rev. Mr. Teague on that day. Many severe things have been said by his saint about the eloquence of Brooklynite, but none refers to memory at the present moment that was quite so unkind as this.

Brooklyn Eagle: If the clergymen of Brooklyn held the same views as the clergymen of Bath, N. Y., they would have few teachers in their Sunday schools. The pastor of the Reform church told a young woman that if she attended a dance she would not teach in the school.

St. Paul Pioneer-Press: Theological status of the bicycle is still unsettled. In fact, it can be said that there is any such thing as a bicycle question the clergy are being it in the most approved and professional fashion.

Minneapolis Journal: The census bulletin on churches in this country shows that there are 143 distinct religious denominations, belonging to the churches are 2,390,000 people. It appears from this that the churches have accommodations for some 23,900,000 worshippers.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY. Chyenne, Wyo., boasts of a rooster that crows, has three legs, two tails and lays eggs. That's a hot bird.

The remains of Samuel Woodworth, who wrote "The Old Oaken Bucket," are soon to be reinterred in St. Francis cemetery.

Senatorial John Sherman is drawing on his pocket of recollections of material for a book. One book will hardly make an impression on the stock.

Colorado courts uphold the law taxing Denver street car horses. Ex-Weather Chief Harrington has reached the conclusion that Cleveland mows hay with an ax.

It is an old saying that "Joy never kills," yet there was a case in Newark, N. J., the other day which disproves it. A Miss Meyer, engaged in a shoe factory, for some time was taken ill. Her associates raised $125 for her and her family.

Bradstreet says that over a million of industrial workers have received at least a 10 per cent advance in wages this year in the United States. This of course is taken up by democratic party organs as evidence of returning prosperity under democratic rule.

BLASTS FROM RAN'S HORNS. Every is a robber. The devil hurls us most when he emits us through those we love.

DOMESTIC IDYLS. New York Recorder: He - You say they were both wealthy, and married quately? She - Yes, you see it was simply a love affair.

Chicago Tribune: "Liz," said Miss Kilbride's youngest brother, "do you say that 'Woody' has married?" "Woody has, of course," she answered.

St. Paul Pioneer-Press: Theological status of the bicycle is still unsettled. In fact, it can be said that there is any such thing as a bicycle question the clergy are being it in the most approved and professional fashion.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY. Chyenne, Wyo., boasts of a rooster that crows, has three legs, two tails and lays eggs. That's a hot bird.

The remains of Samuel Woodworth, who wrote "The Old Oaken Bucket," are soon to be reinterred in St. Francis cemetery.

Senatorial John Sherman is drawing on his pocket of recollections of material for a book. One book will hardly make an impression on the stock.

Colorado courts uphold the law taxing Denver street car horses. Ex-Weather Chief Harrington has reached the conclusion that Cleveland mows hay with an ax.

It is an old saying that "Joy never kills," yet there was a case in Newark, N. J., the other day which disproves it. A Miss Meyer, engaged in a shoe factory, for some time was taken ill. Her associates raised $125 for her and her family.

Bradstreet says that over a million of industrial workers have received at least a 10 per cent advance in wages this year in the United States. This of course is taken up by democratic party organs as evidence of returning prosperity under democratic rule.

"SPECIAL" We have a word to say. Men's Straw Hats. Boys' and Children's Straw Hats. Browning, King & Co., Reliable Clothiers, S. W. Cor. 15th and Douglas Sts.