

IN CONTEMPT OF THE COUNCIL

Mayor, Police Commissioners and Police Chief Fined by Saunders.

REFUSED TO ANSWER HIS QUESTIONS

Denied that His Committee Had Any Authority to Investigate Actions of Board—Yesterday Afternoon's Session.

A new offense against the peace and good order of the city of Omaha was created yesterday afternoon, Mayor Bemis, Commissioners Brown and Deaver of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, Chief of Police White and Sergeant Ormsby and Whalen were adjudged guilty of contempt of the judicial committee of the city council. Whalen was fined $15 and the others $25 each for the alleged offense, which consisted in their refusal to recognize the authority of the committee to inquire into the actions of the commission. Each of them refused to answer the questions put by the committee on the advice of Judge Deane, who acted as their attorney.

BEGAN THE FINING PROCESS.

After the testimony of the ex-politicians had been received the more interesting features of the program were introduced. Chief of Police White was called in as a witness. He was accompanied by Judge Deane, who said that he had been asked to advise the right the committee assumed jurisdiction in the matter. The chief of police was not responsible to this committee, nor to the city council, nor was any member of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners. The alleged investigation was a farce. The commissioners were responsible to the governor alone and the chief of police was responsible to the commission, and not to the city council. As their attorney he should therefore advise them not to reply to any questions that might be asked by the committee.

COMMITTEE'S AUTHORITY DENIED.

Mayor Bemis and Commissioners Brown, Deaver and Strickler were called to the stand and followed Judge Deane's advice by refusing to answer the questions of the committee. He also informed them that they would be glad to give the members of the committee as citizens any information they wished to give on any matter in hand. But this was not what the committee wanted, so they were also charged up with a $25 fine for alleged contempt.

STRIKLER LIVES.

It was the same way with Mayor Bemis and then Mr. Strickler took the stand. He did not object to answering any questions the committee might ask, but his information was limited. The board made a contract with Martin J. White as chief of police for $2,000 a year. He believed the contract was for two years and that the business of the city were to make up $500 additional. He knew nothing in regard to the dismissal of the policeman on July 1st as he was out of the city at the time. When the second detail of men was dismissed no charges were filed against them which appeared on the record. The new men were assigned to duty by regular action of the board. He knew nothing about any Pinkerton men and if any were in the city he was not aware of it. Saunders asked Strickler whether the men had not been dismissed for sectarian or political reasons, but Strickler said that he knew nothing about it.

ACTION OF COMMISSIONERS.

Put on Record Their Sentiment Regarding the Committee. The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon in executive session and held a meeting that lasted an hour and resulted in the passing of a motion touching on the investigation that is being held by the committee of the city council.

GREAT RUN OF THE EMPIRE STATE EXPRESS.

The 148 Miles from Syracuse to Albany Covered in 140 Minutes. A feat in railroading was performed Saturday on this section of the New York Central, this most efficient and speedy of roads, is certainly calculated to make one wonder. The feat was nothing less than the accomplishment by the great Empire State Express of a distance of 148 miles in 140 minutes, something scarcely possible, with safety, to a less thoroughly governed and mechanically perfect train.

The Empire arrived in Syracuse Saturday afternoon forty-one minutes late, was delayed three minutes by its stop at Utica, and four minutes at this city. Accommodation train No. 72, but arrived in Albany at 7:08, having made the 148 miles from Syracuse in 140 minutes, this, of course, being actual running time, exclusive of stops. Success in such a race across country for such a distance is enough to convince any old time obstructionist that we of the present day are actually "flying" into the face of Providence.

It Rained Carroll's Buggy.

A horse attached to a phaeton and driven by James Carroll ran away yesterday and wrecked the buggy. Carroll was driving south on Twenty-fourth street when the horse began to kick, getting one of his hind legs over the shaft. Leaving Twenty-fourth the frightened animal turned down N street and took to the sidewalk on the north side of the street. In front of the Ironers' Journal office the runaway collided with a telegraph pole and one of Dickman's grocery wagons. The buggy was thrown into the air, though not hurt. One of the buggy shafts struck Dickman's horse in the mouth. A farmer's team standing near the street ran down the sidewalk and was captured before running a block. Carroll's buggy was badly wrecked.

Could Not Meet the Terms.

The arrangement between Curtis C. Turner and the Board of Park Commissioners, by which Mr. Turner's tract of unimproved property at Thirtieth and Union streets was to be deeded to the city for park purposes, has been declared off. The commissioners insisted that the property should be turned over, free of all tax incumbrances, while Mr. Turner contended that the city should pay the taxes now due. As the board had no funds at present to improve the property the members were not willing to come to Mr. Turner's terms.

She Can Pick Her Own Husband.

Mattie Sechl's troubles are over for a while at least. News of her experience at Wirth's hotel reached her father in Des Moines, and he arrived in the city yesterday. He had a talk with his daughter and their differences were quickly settled. It was promised that if she would return home she would be allowed to have her own way in the selection of a husband and would have no further parental interference on that score. This was satisfactory to the girl, and she left for her home, accompanied by her father.

BUCKERMAN UNFOLDS A TALE.

Tells How He Fell by the Wayside. The trial of William Bucker, proprietor of the Union hotel, on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, was commenced in police court yesterday, where it held the boards until noon, when an adjournment was taken until this morning.

The arrest of Mr. Barr was made on the complaint of Henry Bucker of Arapahoe, who alleged that he had been robbed of $50 in the hotel by a woman who had been assigned to the same room with him by Barr. Buckerman is veridical enough to withstand a long spell of drouth, but he had a clear story to tell and he told it about as if he meant to smooth over the fact that he was the sucker in the play. He swore that he went to the hotel on Wednesday night and Barr asked him to go to a room for a roommate. He looked over the stock and decided that there was nothing on hand just to his liking and he went away. He returned on Thursday night and Barr asked him if he wanted a slim girl or a stout girl, a blonde or a brunette. Buckerman decided on a stout brunette and Lulu Wilcox was introduced. She was the one for whom he had been looking. The next morning he was missing. Hence the arrest.

THAT BAD MAN FROM TEXAS.

He Was Not Accommodated to the County Jail. C. D. Woods is from Texas and wants to get back. He had an idea that the announcement of the fact that he hailed from the land of long horned cattle would strike terror to the hearts of the timid residents of Omaha and he'd have a lot of fun. He sent down to the burg district the other night and told some of the denizens that he was fresh from Texas and that he was charmed for trouble. He was not out long but had been touched by his Waterbury and $7 to money. He made up his mind that he would get out of the city without attempting to scare any more people. He started for Council Bluffs and met some fellows down near the Douglas street bridge. Woods was pretty well dressed. Two of the men knelt him down and took his coat and vest. A third party insisted on trading pants with him and then the final touches were added when another man forced Woods to part with his underwear. The bad man from Texas was in a sorry plight. He crawled into an empty box car and had a small lot of goods with him. He made a requisition for a set of box clothes for him. He has left all his valor and yesterday he had the court that his suit lived in Texas and he was very anxious to get back to her. He was allowed to depart.
